FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

The following Notification by the Government of India is republished for general information:—

"No. 67.

Fort William, the 21st April 1862.

NOTIFICATION.—Under Orders contained in a Despatch from the late Court of Directors, No. 31 of 1849, dated the 18th December, it is prescribed that the Medical Certificate of unfitness, which is submitted by an applicant for superannuation pension, should state that his incapacity for further service is not the result of his own imprudence or intemperance; but pensions have hitherto been granted in very many cases on Medical Certificates containing no such declaration.

A pension, however, having been recently refused on the ground that disqualification for service was the result of intemperance, His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct the re-publication, for general information, of the following Extract from the Despatch referred to:—

Paragraph 16.—'To enable us to decide upon the propriety of allowing the retirement upon pension 'of the Uncovenanted Servants of Government, it is desirable that we should be placed in possession of 'detailed information regarding their several cases. The nature of the complaint, and whether or not it 'has been induced by irregular or intemperate habits are points on which it is especially necessary to 'afford us information.

17. 'We beg this may be attended to in future.'

For the future, pensions will, in no case, be granted to applicants whose incapacity for further service is the result of their own intemperance.

Officiating Secretary to the Government of India."

By order,
A. D. ROBERTSON,
Acting Chief Secretary to Government.

Bombay Castle, 6th May 1862.

No. 63 of 1862.—The following Rules for the payment and other cash transactions of the Vessels of the Indian Navy are to be adopted from the 1st of July next, in supersession of those now in force :—

1. It is to be understood throughout these Rules (except in paragraph 78) that wherever the term "Captain" is used it is to be taken as meaning the Officer in Command of the ship or vessel, and that where the term "Purser" is used it is to be taken as meaning the Purser, Clerk in Charge, or other Officer in charge of the Purser duties; the term "Ship" also is to be taken as meaning any ship or vessel borne on the list of the Indian Navy.

2. The following Books are to be kept on board every ship of the Indian Navy in commission :—

A "Complete Book."

A "Muster Book," according to the general instructions.

A "Check Book." The musters to be taken every Monday and Thursday when at the Presidency, and on the 1st and 15th of each month when absent, and the results entered in this book.

An "Account Current Book," giving copies of each monthly Account Current.

An "Undrawn Pay Account Book."

A "Remittance Book," giving copies of all Remittance Rolls.

A "Voucher Book." This should consist of a duplicate of all Vouchers to the Contingent Bill, also a copy of the latter.

A "Cash Book."

A "Slop Book."

3. All documents from Vessels away from the Presidency are to be prepared as soon as they fall due and transmitted by the first opportunity, and the Commanding Officer will, in every instance, be held responsible for their due preparation and transmission.

4. All Officers in Command are held responsible, as well as the Pursers, for all receipts and disbursements on account of the Vessel for the period they command, and also for the correct delivery of all accounts and vouchers; and in the event of its being proved that the Captain has neglected to exercise the supervision over the accounts which is required of him, he will be held personally responsible for any loss for which the Purser or his Securities may fail to indemnify Government.

5. Offices in Command are required to keep themselves acquainted with the state of the Books and Accounts, and any irregularity that may occur is to be brought to the notice of the Commander in Chief.

6. Every ship's Treasure Chest is to have two locks and keys, of different descriptions; one key is to be in charge of the Captain, and must, under any circumstances, be available at all times, and the other is to be kept by the Purser. The chest is never to be opened except to receive Government money, or when disbursements on the public account have to be made, and then it must be done in the presence of the Purser and another officer to be deputed by the Captain.

7. A separate Treasure Chest is to be kept on board each vessel for deposit of private money belonging to Seamen, under the Rules contained in General Order of the 13th June 1836, and such deposits are never to be placed in the Chest containing the Government money.

8. It is to be distinctly understood, that every book and document is to be considered as belonging to the ship in which the disbursement takes place, and no individual is to be permitted to remove them for the purpose of adjusting his accounts at the Presidency, or for any other purpose, although he will have every facility afforded him of procuring copies of such documents as may be necessary for the purpose. A Purser on being relieved must take a receipt from his successor for all the Books and Accounts he may make over to him, and such receipt is to be always countersigned by the Captain.

9. In order to prevent deterioration and inconvenience from too large a number of old accounts being kept on board a vessel at one time, any of the following documents of an older date than three years may, in future, be lodged with the Indian Naval Storekeeper on the usual Returning Indent :—

Check Books.
Complete Books.
Account Current Books.
Cash Books.
Voucher Books.

10. The attention of Officers in Command is enjoined to the necessity for preserving in good order all the Books and Accounts of their ships, and as it will not be requisite to keep more than three years' accounts on board in future, there should be no difficulty in allotting appropriate and sufficient space for their safe custody.

11. The Storekeeper is required to make a report to the Commander in Chief and to the Naval Examiner of any document that may be returned in an illegible or defaced condition.

12. The Purser is the disbursing officer of a ship ; only one Account Current is therefore required, which is to contain the whole of the disbursements of the ship. The Captain is nevertheless required to sign all accounts, and will be held responsible (as well as the Purser) for any incorrect charge that may arise, from his not exercising a proper supervision over the accounts.

13. Vessels at the Presidency are to be paid Monthly by the Purser, for which purpose, after preparing the Abstract and Complete Book, he may draw from the Military Paymaster, on an advance Receipt (Form A), an approximation to the amount required. The advance Receipt is to be submitted to the Naval Examiner who, on being satisfied that the amount demanded is not excessive, will pass it, and send it on to the Military Paymaster to be discharged. A copy of this receipt is to be sent by the Paymaster to the Naval Accountant on the day of payment.

14. Payments are to be made in vessels away from the Presidency under the following conditions :—

That no one under the rank of a Warrant Officer shall be permitted to draw more than one month's pay in two ; and that three days before the payment is to be made, the Officer of each division shall ascertain from the men in his division the amount they wish to draw, and shall give in a list of the same to the Captain, who, provided the sum required by each man is not more than is due after deducting all charges on account of slops, apprehension-money, or other charges, shall direct the Purser to enter the same in the Complete Book to be paid to the men on the allotted day of payment. The Captain may, however, in the exercise of his discretion, reduce the amount applied for by any Seaman, and may cause a lesser sum to be paid. Officers (including Engineers and Warrant Officers) are to be permitted to draw the whole of what is due to them, after deducting charges on account of Indian Navy Fund and all other charges, and the whole or any portion of such sum due which an officer may not desire to receive in cash, may, if he wishes it, be remitted to his agent in Bombay.

That the payment be made on the first suitable day in the beginning of each month to be determined by the Captain, and that no sums on account of pay shall be issued to either officers or men on any other day during the month, except in the case of the discharge of an individual, or under very peculiar and exceptional circumstances, which should be duly noted in the Complete Book.

That no Officer shall take up more pay than is due to him for the preceding month ; all other arrears can only be drawn on discharge, or on the Vessel being paid up after arrival at the Presidency.

15. Pursers are responsible to the Captain alone for the payment of the Crew. All general payments are to be made in the presence of the Captain, or, in his unavoidable absence, in that of the senior lieutenant. Payments to men on discharge, and of bounty-money or other allowances, are to be made by the Purser in the presence of another Officer to be deputed by the Captain for that purpose. The column "when paid" in the Complete Book is invariably to be filled up on the day of payment.

16. Whenever the receipt of pay or allowances may be acknowledged by a "Mark" by men who cannot write, the initials of a witnessing Officer, other than the Purser, are to be placed opposite each mark at the time of payment, as a verification of such acknowledgment.

17. To prevent, as far as possible, any accumulation of unclaimed pay, it is most positively ordered that Officers in command do not permit the absence on pay day of any one to whom pay may be due, except on the most urgent and unforeseen occasions, of which a full report must be made to the Commander in Chief.

18. The Commander in Chief will hold Commanding Officers responsible for the due performance of the above duty, and for the equitable settlement of any legitimate claim which may arise after a ship has been paid.

19. Officers and men who prefer leaving their pay, or any portion thereof, undrawn, while absent from the Presidency, may do so, and on discharge may either be paid up in Cash, or be furnished with an order for the amount on the Military Paymaster. No pay, however, can be left undrawn on a vessel being paid up at Bombay.

20. An undrawn Pay Account is to be kept on board each Vessel according to Form B. On one side of this account must be entered each month the amount of pay debited in the Account Current as "undrawn Pay" ; and on the other side all arrears paid to individuals, or Orders drawn on the Military Paymaster in their favour when discharged. This Account is to be balanced monthly, and will, if correctly kept, show the exact amount due to the ship.

21. On the arrival of a Ship at the Presidency from an Outstation, the whole amount of "undrawn pay" standing to her credit on the Military Paymaster's books is to be taken up by the Purser on a receipt countersigned by the Captain, and all arrears due to the Officers and Ship's Company must then be paid to them.

22. The pay of all individuals remaining unclaimed for one month after the ship has been paid up in Bombay, is to be returned to the Military Paymaster, with a list (Form C) detailing the names and ratings of each person, and the period for which the sums were drawn, and the Paymaster is to grant a receipt for the same. The Purser of the ship will then note in the signature column of the Complete Book, opposite the name of each man whose pay has been so deposited, "Deposited with Military Paymaster as per receipt, No. dated ."

23. In the case of the discharge of Officers, Seamen, or others, the Purser of the Vessel from which persons may be so discharged is to pay to them the full amount of wages due up to the date of discharge, after deducting all charges, and such payments are to be immediately entered in the ship's books. All payments of this nature that may be made at the Presidency are to be in cash, but at an Outstation they may be either made in cash, or by an order on the Military Paymaster, as may be most convenient to the recipient.

24. Pay due to individuals discharged from a vessel at the Presidency is to be disbursed from the balance in the ship's treasure chest; but in the event of such balance being insufficient, and of the sum authorised to be drawn for contingencies being also inadequate to meet the disbursement, the amount may be obtained on a special advance receipt, to be preferred in the manner described in paragraph 13, and which must also contain a note explaining the reason for its being preferred. When, however, the amount due to the individual, or any part of it, consists of pay which has been brought to account as "undrawn pay," the Purser is to draw such amount from the Paymaster, on a receipt countersigned by the Captain, and to be careful to deduct it from the balance shown in the "Undrawn Pay Account."

25. In paying individuals discharged at places away from Bombay, such portion of the amount due as may have been brought to account as "Undrawn Pay" is to be entered on the creditor side of the Account Current as a payment made (in cash, or by an order, as the case may be,) from the Undrawn Pay Account; pay due to an individual for the month in which he is discharged, being part of the abstract for that month, must not be included in the amount expended from undrawn pay, as on the abstract being passed by the Examiner credit will be given for it.

26. No one under the rank of an Officer is to be permitted to attend at the Pay Office to draw the amount of an order on the Military Paymaster; all such orders must be drawn by the Purser of the vessel the individual concerned is attached to, and be paid to him on board, a receipt being taken in the Complete Book, a few pages at the end of which are to be set apart for miscellaneous payments.

27. An exception to the foregoing rule is allowed in the case of individuals discharged the Service at places away from the Presidency, and who may return in Vessels not belonging to the Indian Navy.

28. All checks against Officers or men, of whatever nature, are to be recovered at once by the Purser, and henceforth it will be unnecessary for the Naval Examiner to issue bills for stores lost or damaged by neglect, as the amount will be checked at the time the loss or damage takes place. The Captain is responsible that recoveries on account of stores lost or damaged by neglect are promptly made.

29. In the event of an individual being discharged from one Vessel to another against whom there are claims, which the pay due is insufficient to meet, the unrecovered balance of such claim is to be shown on the pay ticket, and an acknowledgment is to be granted by the Purser of the Vessel the individual may be discharged to, that the particulars of such balance have been duly entered in the pay ticket, and that the amount will be recovered from the individual's pay as it falls due. The Purser granting such acknowledgment must debit himself with the amount in his Account Current, while the acknowledgment will enable the Officer obtaining it to take credit for the amount in his Account Current.

30. On the discharge to sick quarters of any one with an unrecovered balance against him, the particulars must be shown on his pay ticket, and a certificate obtained from the Medical Officer of the Hospital or Sanitarium to the effect that such balance has been so shown on the pay ticket, and the Purser of the Vessel he may subsequently join must debit himself with the amount and recover it from the pay due to the man. Should, however any one draw pay while in sick quarters, the balance against him must be recovered by the Officer making the payment.

31. In the event of there being a balance exceeding two months' pay against any individual on being transferred from one Vessel to another, the Purser of the Vessel the individual joins may object to grant an acknowledgment for such balance, unless the Captain of the latter Vessel is satisfied that it has not been caused by advances or other charges unauthorised by the Regulations, and which must be certified in the body of the acknowledgment.

32. A pay ticket is to accompany each individual discharged from one Vessel to another, or to sick quarters; it is to be made out according to Form D, and is to show the amount paid on discharge, and the claims that have been adjusted since the last general payment, or that may be outstanding against the person discharged. These pay tickets are to be forwarded to the Examiner with the Abstract on which the next pay is demanded.

33. In cases of the death or desertion of men against whom there are charges which cannot be recovered, a full report of the circumstance is to be made to the Naval Examiner, by the Officer commanding (or in case of the death occurring in sick quarters, by the Committee of Adjustment), showing that the charges arose from advances made in accordance with the Regulations, and in the case of desertion, that all available means have been tried to apprehend the deserter. The Naval Examiner will, if the explanation afforded be of a satisfactory nature, authorise the unrecoverable amount to be written off, after reference to the Naval Accountant and with his concurrence, but is to refer, for the decision of Government, any case in which the charges may appear to have arisen from inattention to orders or want of due precaution.

34. In the event of the letter R being removed in a ship's books from any man's name by the authority of the Commander in Chief, the amount of pay due to the man up to the date he was marked Run, and the amount realised by the sale of his effects are to be paid to him, a receipt for the same being taken in the Complete Book. The Officer Commanding will grant a certificate that the amount has been paid, and will enter in such certificate the date and number of the Squadron Order authorising the removal of the letter R. The sum paid is then to be entered on the creditor side of the Account Current, the Captain's certificate being forwarded as a Voucher, and a reference given to the account current in which the money will be found credited to Government.

35. On a Vessel proceeding to sea from the Presidency on a long voyage, the Officers, including Engineers and Warrant Officers, may, with the sanction of the Commander in Chief, and if there are no demands against them, be allowed an advance of two months' pay, which must be duly entered in the Complete Book. Officers against whom there are any demands on account of the state, can only be permitted an advance of the balance of two months' pay after deducting such demands. These advances may be made from the balance remaining in the Treasure Chest, and if that is insufficient, the amount is to be drawn on an Advance Receipt in the manner prescribed in paragraph 13.

36. An advance of two months' pay may also be issued to newly entered Lascars, with the sanction of the Commander in Chief.

37. Sums not exceeding at one time the amounts below stated may be obtained from the Military Paymaster by ships at the Presidency for contingencies (such as payments to individuals on discharge, payment of savings, bounty money, &c.) on receipt, according to Form E.

For ships of the—

3rd Rate and upwards.....	Rupees	1000
For 4th and 5th Rates	,,	500

38. On money being required for the expenses of a vessel away from the Presidency, the Purser is to represent the same to the Captain, who, after examination of the accounts, and on being satisfied of the necessity for the money represented as requisite, will ascertain the balance of Cash (if any) on board, and if the advance is to be made from any Civil Treasury under the Bombay, Presidency, will authorise a Bill of Exchange, in triplicate, to be drawn at sight on the Military Paymaster at Bombay, according to Form F, which the Purser is to present to any Civil Disbursing Officer at the nearest station, by whom it is to be paid, and the original of the Bill of Exchange is to be forwarded by the latter to the Naval Accountant, and the duplicate to the Naval Examiner, who will register and send it on to the Paymaster for adjustment.

39. On advances being made at Suez, Alexandria, Singapore, New South Wales, or at any place under either the Bengal or Madras Presidency, on account of vessels of the Indian Navy, they are to be covered by receipts, in triplicate, the original and duplicate of which the Disbursing Officer is to transmit to the Secretary to Government at Bombay, by whom the first is to be forwarded to the Indian Navy Accountant, and the second to the Naval Examiner, who is at once to debit the amount of such advance to the Purser of the ship.

40. For all monies which may be required for the service of a ship at places where there is no public Treasury, and where there is no Government Officer authorised to make such advances, the Purser is, under the rules contained in paragraph 37, to draw bills upon the Military Paymaster, Bombay, agreeably to Form F, with the exception that the rate of Exchange is to be certified by two respectable merchants instead of by the Civil Disbursing Officer. Bills of this nature are never to be negotiated when a Treasury belonging to any of Her Majesty's Governments is available at the station where the funds are required. A Letter of Advice of each bill so drawn is to be transmitted to the Naval Examiner by the first opportunity, so as to arrive, if possible, before or with the bill.

41. All advances taken up by a Disbursing Officer on account of the ship he belongs to, are to be debited to him as Purser of the ship, and not to his personal head.

42. As the correctness of all the Pay and Cash Accounts of a vessel will depend mainly upon the Complete Book, this book is to be kept with the utmost degree of exactness, and never permitted to fall into arrear; it must be written up monthly, and as no sums on account of pay are permitted to be paid to any individual oftener than once in a month (except as provided for in paragraph 14) such sums should be at once entered in the book, and be duly signed for (Form G).

43. The names, ratings, and general numbers of the whole ship's company are to be entered in the Complete Book (and in all other books in which they are ordered to be shown) under the following heads:—

1. Commissioned Officers, including Midshipmen and Clerks.
2. Warrant Officers.
3. Petty Officers and Seamen.
4. Boys.
5. Ships' and Officers' Servants.
6. Engineers and Apprentices.
7. Stokers.
8. Coal Trimmers.
9. Supernumeraries for victuals and wages.
10. Supernumeraries for victuals only.
11. Marines.

44. The names may be entered either alphabetically or otherwise, as most convenient, but the book is to be paged throughout, and an alphabetical index made at the end, to facilitate reference. A number of pages is also to be left at the end, according to the size of the vessel, for the entry of allowances, such as tuition money, watch and store account money, &c. that may be paid.

45. A Complete Book is not to contain more than twelve or less than six months' accounts, unless under exceptional circumstances. On closing the Complete Book of a vessel absent from the Presidency, the balances of deductions and the amounts due are to be brought forward in the new book.

46. General Abstracts, according to Form H, are to be prepared monthly in original only, and, accompanied by a single Muster Roll, are to be transmitted with the Account Current direct to the Naval Examiner.

47. Pay is to be demanded on the General Abstract for the numbers of each grade borne during the period the document is for, and not for individuals by name; pay for broken periods is to be shown at the end of the Abstract distinct from that for the whole month.

48. As it is desirable to reduce the number of separate abstracts as much as possible, pay and allowances due under the following heads must be included in the General Abstract:—

Pay of men on passage in one Ship to join another to be demanded on the Abstract of the latter.

Pay of men in Hospital to be demanded on the Abstract of the Ship they join on leaving Hospital.

Steam allowance to Engineers.

* Tuition money to the Chief Engineers.

* Allowance to the Store Accountant for keeping the Accounts.

* Ditto for the Clerk in Charge on rendering his Accounts.

Bounty money.

Batta for keeping watch.

49. All the claims must be supported by the usual Certificates, nominal Rolls, &c., and those marked with an asterisk should not be paid until the amounts have been passed on the abstract.

50. As a general rule, the abovementioned pay and allowances will be paid by the Purser of the vessel in whose General Abstract they may be claimed; but in cases where this is not feasible, owing to Officers or others being discharged before claims of a doubtful nature have been audited, the Purser is to write to the Examiner, requesting him to afford the necessary credit to the Purser of the Ship such Officer or other person may join (with a view to its being paid on board such ship) and to debit the amount to the Ship on whose Abstract the claim has been made.

51. For the future the Notification in Squadron Orders of a man's entry will be sufficient to admit the charge for bounty money; Bounty Rolls are, consequently, not required to accompany the Abstract, but are to be forwarded to the Commander in Chief with a report of the entry of the men, as until such entry is notified in Squadron Orders neither pay nor bounty money will be admitted.

52. All pay and allowances are to be debited to the vessel on whose Abstract they may be passed. In case of any part of a vessel's expenses becoming debitable to another Government or head, the bills for the same will be separated on audit to the proper heads of Charge by the Naval Examiner, instead of being shown separately in the ship's accounts.

53. The Muster Roll which is to accompany the General Abstract is to be made out according to Form I, and is to contain the name and rating of every individual borne during the month, showing the date of his entry, and all casualties that may have taken place. Any one whose date of joining has been shown on a Muster Roll, may be entered in succeeding Rolls as entering on the 1st of the month from "old book."

54. All individuals are to be considered as belonging to a ship on the day discharged, their entry in the ship they join being dated from the following day.

55. The utmost care is to be taken in the preparation of the Muster Roll, and in no case shall it be forwarded, until it has been carefully compared with the Check Book, and duly signed by the Captain and Purser.

56. A memorandum is to be inserted on all General Abstracts and Muster Rolls, showing where the vessel has been during the period embraced in those documents, and if employed on any duty for another Government, the date from which such duty commenced and when it ended is to be noted.

57. An Account Current in original is to be forwarded monthly to the Naval Examiner, framed in the form annexed (J), in which, except in the cases forwarded for in this Section, credit is to be taken for audited charges only, an explanation of the balance outstanding being shown at the back of the account; thus every Disbursing Officer will know exactly what amount is standing against him, and why it is so standing; in fact, the adjustment of advances will depend upon the Purser, and not upon the Offices on shore, which will simply look to him for the settlement of the money taken up by himself on the ship's account.

58. On the debtor side of the Account Current are to be shown as follows, viz. all Cash received, the total amount of a Remittance Roll, * which is to accompany the Account Current, the amount of pay left undrawn by officers or men, recoveries made on account of slops issued on account of stoppages for stores lost or damaged, and all other recoveries which are not included in the General Remittance Roll, that may be made from the pay of any individual, with the exception of recovery on account of actual cash payments. The pay and amount realised by the sale of effects of deserters must also be brought forward in the account current.

* Vide Paragraph 76.

59. On the creditor side of the Account Current, credit is to be taken for the full amount passed on all audited Abstracts, Contingent Bills, Savings' Accounts, &c., according to a statement which will be furnished to the ship monthly by the Naval Examiner; but credit is never to be taken for the amount of any Abstracts, Bills, &c. that may have been paid until the same has been duly audited, the amount of such paid, but unaudited Abstracts, &c. being shown at the back of the Account Current, as provided for in paragraph 57.

60. Apprehension money is to be paid and recovered by the Purser. There will, of course, be no occasion to enter these, or any other disbursements that are recovered from pay due in the Account Current, as the credit taken for the total amount of the abstract covers them; they must, however, be promptly entered in the Complete Book and Cash Book. A simple receipt is to be taken for apprehension money paid to Constables and filed, in case of any dispute arising afterwards.

61. All claims which may remain unrecovered at the end of a month (i. e. which the pay demanded on the Abstract for that month is insufficient to cover) whether on account of advance of pay, slops, or other charges, are to be shown among the unadjusted balances at the back of the Account Current.

62. Audited Abstracts, and other vouchers to an Account Current, will not be returned to the Disbursing Officer who prefers them, but a monthly Statement will be forwarded by the Examiner to each ship in commission, showing what documents have been passed during the month, and the sums for which they have been passed; and the amounts of such only as are mentioned in this statement are to be entered on the creditor side of the Account current. The Examiner will also include in this Statement a memorandum of the sum standing to the credit of the ship on the books of the Pay Office on account of undrawn pay.

63. Contingent Bill (Form K) in original, with vouchers also in original, are to be sent monthly with the Account Current. The various items of stores or provisions included in a voucher are not to be entered in the Contingent Bill; the numbers and total amounts of the vouchers need only be inserted. The following descriptions of Charges are to be separated:—

Provisions.
Stores.
Contingencies.

64. If bills be paid in Foreign coin, the equivalent value in Indian currency is to be stated under each heading.

65. Vouchers to the Contingent Bill on account of purchases, are to be prepared according to Form L. The signatures of two merchants heretofore required are now dispensed with; it is the duty of the Officer Commanding to see that the articles are obtained at the lowest rate, and that the interests of Government are not neglected. The witness to payment should, when practicable, be an officer, and in any case should be a person able to sign his name in English.

66. The Captain is solely responsible that all stores, other than those in the Purser's charge, that may be purchased by his authority, are duly accounted for.

67. Great care is to be taken that Abstracts, Contingent Bills, &c. are duly supported by the required certificates and vouchers; in all cases where they are not so supported, the charge will be retrenched.

68. In cases where it may be found impossible to comply with these Regulations, a full explanation of the cause is to be forwarded, to avoid the delay of calling for an explanation, and to admit of the sanction of Government being applied for by the Examiner, if requisite.

69. The date of despatch is to be marked on all documents forwarded, and when the ship is away from the Presidency, the place whence despatched is also to be marked.

70. The "Cash Book" is to shew the actual amount of cash received and disbursed; it is to be a simple debit and credit account of all cash transactions, and must always be written up to the latest date, and be balanced on the last day of each month.

71. To prevent the keeping of large balances on board, and for verifying the accounts, a Committee, to be composed of the two Officers next in rank to the Captain, shall assemble on the last day of each month (except when it falls on a Sunday, when the Committee is to assemble on the day previous), count the money in the Ship's Treasure Chest, and address a report of the result to the Naval Accountant. This report is to be delivered to the Captain, who will forward it, with any remarks he may wish to offer, direct to the Naval Accountant, by the first opportunity.

72. On one Purser of a ship being relieved by another, the money in the Treasure Chest is to be counted, and the Account Current examined, and on both Officers being satisfied of the correctness of the latter, one is to sign it as having delivered over, and the other as having received charge; a report to this effect, signed by both, is then to be forwarded to the Naval Examiner.

73. In the event, however, of the relieving Officer finding, on taking charge, that the accounts are so greatly in arrear as to make the balance of the Account Current unduly large, or that the books and accounts have been so negligently kept as to render the proper adjustment of the men's pay accounts a matter of doubtful accomplishment; or in the event of his having any reasonable objection to taking charge of the accounts, he will represent the same, in writing, to the Captain, specifying particularly what is objectionable, and will attach a copy of the same to the Account Current. The Captain will forward such representation to the Commander in Chief, and will, unless he can satisfactorily shew that there has been no remissness on his part, be held accountable, as well as the Purser relieved, for any deficiency or loss that may occur in adjusting such accounts. The Officer relieving is not on this account to refuse to take over the balance, but his letter of representation will, if proved to be well-founded, be held sufficient to clear him from any responsibility on account of his predecessor's negligence, the party in default being liable for any loss.

74. It is to be understood that the responsibility of the Officer relieved does not cease on his quitting the ship, but he is to satisfy himself from time to time that the adjustment of the accounts of the ship he has left, for the period they were in his charge, is progressing satisfactorily; and any omission in this respect will lead to the amount unadjusted being recovered from his pay. The relieving Officer is, however, to use his utmost endeavours to adjust all the pay and cash accounts transferred to him by his predecessor, and will afford all the informatoin in his power to obtain regarding such, or any of the other accounts, as may be required by the Naval Accountant or Examiner, furnishing also any documents that may be called for; and it is also the Captain's duty to see that the accounts are speedily adjusted.

75. In the event of retrenchments being confirmed on any unaudited Abstracts or other vouchers which have been taken over by a Purser from his predecessor, the amount of such retrenchments is to be struck off the Account Current, and must be debited to the personal head of the Officer relieved, and be recovered by the Examiner.

76. The Remittance Roll referred to in paragraph 58 is to be prepared according to Form M, and is to contain an account of all remittances (except continuous family payments) shown under distinct heads. It is not to supersede the return on which family payments are made, and such remittances are not to be included in it; all other remittances, including all stoppages for the Indian Naval Fund, will be paid upon this roll only; for instance, an officer who remits to Bombay a continuous family payment of Rupees 70 per month, and who, on being paid at an outstation at the end of any month, may desire to remit 20 Rupees additional under paragraph 14, such additional 20 Rupees would be paid on this roll; but the continuous remittance of 70 Rupees would be paid on the Half-pay Remittance Roll already lodged in the office of the Examiner. Subscriptions to the Indian Naval Fund, and family payments in England, will be the only remittances permitted from Vessels at the Presidency.

77. Officers, seamen, and others serving in the Indian Navy, are allowed to remit a portion of their pay for the benefit of their families both in Europe and in Bombay.

78. The sums which can be remitted to Europe are as shown below: corresponding deductions from pay will be made at the rate of exchange notified annually in General Orders:—

Captain, as Lieutenant Colonel	£ 200	per annum.
Commander, as Major	„ 150	„
Lieutenant and Purser, as Captain in the Army	„ 100	„
Mate, as Lieutenant in the Army	„ 70	„
Midshipmen and Clerks, as Ensigns	„ 50	„

Warrant and Petty Officers, Seamen and others, not exceeding their half pay.

79. Rolls for remittances to Europe are to be framed according to Form N., in original only, and are to be transmitted direct to the Naval Examiner. Quarterly Remittance Rolls are dispensed with; one Roll only will be required, and the remittances will be continued until applications are received for them to be discontinued.

80. Remittances to Bombay will be paid on Rolls to be framed and transmitted according to the instructions contained in the preceding paragraph: these remittances are not to exceed the half-pay of the individuals remitting, and will be paid until applications for their discontinuance are received; they will, however, cease on the arrival of the ship in Bombay.

81. Applications for the discontinuance of a family payment made either in England or Bombay, are to be made by letter to the Examiner; but as the date of the discontinuance of a family payment will depend upon the time the application may reach the Examiner's Office, Pursers are to continue to make recoveries on that account up to the date that will be communicated to them by the Examiner on receiving the Roll.

82. In case of the death or desertion of any individual belonging to a Ship on whose account a family remittance is made, the Captain of such ship will make an immediate report of the occurrence to the Naval Examiner, with a request that the remittance may be discontinued. Care is to be taken also to stop the payment of remittances on account of persons discharged from the service, in time to prevent any payment being made beyond the amount recovered from such persons. Captains of ships are held responsible for any overpayment that may be made in consequence of a neglect of this rule.

83. On the discharge to sick quarters at an outstation of any person belonging to a Vessel of the Indian Navy on whose account a family remittance is paid in Bombay, such remittance shall not be stopped, except at the request of the person remitting, or on his death, desertion, or return to Bombay.

84. In every instance of a discharge as above described, the Purser is to be careful to note on the Pay Ticket which is sent with the person so discharged, the amount of his monthly remittance, so that in adjusting his Hospital Pay, the amount remitted may be duly recovered. The Officer commanding the Vessel will also arrange with the Medical Officer in charge of the Hospital, that in case of the death or desertion of the man, immediate notice of the occurrence be given to the Senior Naval Officer present, who is at once to report it to the Commander in Chief. The Medical Officer in charge of the Hospital is also to be requested, in the event of no Senior Indian Naval Officer being present, to send the notice, with the man's papers, direct to the Commander in Chief, Indian Navy, and to write on the back of the Pay Ticket any advances or other charges which may require to be adjusted. A copy of these Rules is to be attached to the Pay Ticket of every individual discharged to sick quarters at an outstation on whose account a remittance is payable in Bombay, and any loss to the State occurring by neglect of them will be recovered from the pay of the officer concerned, if he be under the orders of the Government of this Presidency.

85. All Captains and Pursers are enjoined to comply with the instructions regarding the pay and Cash Accounts which will from time to time be addressed to them by the Naval Examiner, it being, of course, open to them to make a representation concerning any such instructions as may seem to be erroneous or irregular.

86. For the future the Accounts Current, with all Abstracts, Bills, and Vouchers, Remittance Lists, &c. are to be sent direct to the Naval Examiner, when they will be examined, adjusted, and sent to the Paymaster, prepared in such a manner as to admit of immediate payment or adjustment.

87. The Examiner will see in the first place that the amount of pay demanded on an Abstract is correct, that the payments made or to be made at the Presidency or in England have been correctly credited; he will then pass the Abstract for its full amount, deduct the recoveries, and send it to the Paymaster, showing the sum to be paid on it to the Purser, or carried to the credit of the Ship as "undrawn pay," as the case may be.

88. In a similar manner he will deal with all Contingent Bills, &c.

89. As soon as the whole of the accounts of a Ship for a month have been disposed of as above, the Examiner will frame an adjustment statement, showing the amounts which have been passed on each item for which credit is to be taken in the Account Current, and this statement will be transmitted through the Captain to the Purser, and will show the latter Officer exactly how the Ship's account stands, and will be the authority under which he takes credit for audited charges in his Account Current.

90. The non-receipt of this statement in due time will show that there has been delay in the Examiner's Office, which should be brought to notice.

91. The Examiner must also prepare the Monthly Family Rolls for remittances payable in England and in Bombay, the latter being prepared for payment at once.

92. The General Remittance Roll (containing Officers' remittances on account of Indian Naval Fund and Pay) will be compared by the Examiner with the amounts credited in the Account Current, and be then passed and sent on for payment to the Pay Office.

93. It is the duty of the Examiner to see to all recoveries on account of family payments in England and India, and of all other advances.

94. The Military Paymaster is to be relieved from the task of examining Abstracts and other vouchers; his duty is confined to the adjustment of the advances taken up by Disbursing Officers.

95. It is the duty of the Paymaster to see that every item is entered and duly adjusted in his Cash Accounts.

96. The Paymaster, after having adjusted the Abstracts, Bills, &c. in his Cash Account, is to transmit them to the Compiler, who, after completing his compilation, will return them to the Examiner for record.

97. The Naval Accountant is to watch the working of the Offices of the Examiner and Paymaster, and see that all advances are duly recovered and adjusted, and that no retrenchment or unadjusted advances are allowed to remain outstanding for an unreasonable time.

Indus Flotilla.

98. The foregoing Rules are applicable to the Indus Flotilla, with the following exceptions.

99. That the Vessels be paid up in Cash Monthly, as at present, and therefore orders on Bombay are unnecessary, unless, as it sometimes happens, that a discharge takes place at Kurrachee when it would be found a convenient method of payment.

101. The family payments in England are to be entered in the General Remittance Roll of the Flotilla as heretofore.

N.B.—This table is an extract from a more extensive yearly Return that is prepared for statistical purposes, and chiefly for the detection of any removable sources of disease, with a view to improving the healthiness of the Island. As the principal object cannot be fully attained unless the true causes of death be recorded, persons of all stations are requested, in each case of death occurring in their circle, to obtain, in writing, from the Medical Attendants the name of the fatal disease, that it may be delivered to the Policeman at the funeral place. Medical Practitioners particularly, are requested to aid the registration. Blank forms of Death Reports, to keep by them in readiness, are given gratuitously on application at the Office of the Deputy Commissioner of Police.

It is thought that some withhold their assistance through the notion that reports of the single casualties coming now and then under their observation could but little affect the Returns; but it ought rather to be borne in mind, that the accuracy of the Returns depends on the correct reporting of all single cases, for of such only the aggregate is made up.
