III. The Governor of the Presidency of Bombay in Council may declare, by notice to be published in the Official Gazette of that Presidency, that the territory of any Native Chief, not subject to the jurisdiction of the Courts and Civil authorities of that Presidency, shall be deemed to be Foreign Territory; and may declare goods passing into or out of such territory liable either to the duty fixed by the Schedules of Act I. of 1852 for goods imported or exported at the Ports of that Presidency, or to double the said duties, as the Governor in Council may think fit.

Customs Stations.

IV. For the levy of Duties of Customs as above provided on goods exported by land to, or imported by land from, such Foreign Territories, Customs Stations may be established at such places as may be determined by the Governor in Council.

Appointment of Officers.

V. The Governor in Council may appoint such persons as he may deem fit for the control and supervision of the collection and management of the Customs payable under this Act as Commissioners and Deputy Commissioners of Customs, or under such other designation as the said Governor in Council shall determine; and may appoint all other proper persons to execute the duties of the several subordinate offices necessary to the due management and collection of the said Customs; and the provisions of Sections IV. V. and VI. of the said Act I. of 1852 shall be applicable to the persons so appointed. Provided that no new office shall be created without the previous consent of the Governor General of India in Council.

VI. The Governor in Council may prescribe, by public notice in the Official Gazette, by what roads and passes goods shall be allowed to pass into or out of any such Foreign Territory as is described in Sections II. and III. of this Act; and after such notice, goods which may be brought to any Station established on other roads or passes than those so prescribed, shall be detained, and shall be liable to confiscation, unless the person in charge thereof shall be able to satisfy the adjudicating Officer that his carrying them by that road or pass was from ignorance or accident.

Goods not to be passed across the Frontier after sunset.

VII. Goods unlawfully passed, or attempted to be passed unlawfully, across any Frontier guarded by stations, between sunset and sunrise, shall be seized and confiscated.

Written application for permission to pass goods.

Government to fix the value of goods for the purpose of levying duty.

X. The Governor in Council, from time to time, by notice in the Official Gazette, may fix a value for any article or number of articles liable to duty under this Act upon their value; and the value so fixed for such articles shall, till altered by a similar notice, be taken to be the value of such articles for the purpose of levying duty on the same under this Act.

Duty leviable on certain goods according to the market value.

XI. When goods liable to duty, for which a value has not been fixed by such a notice as is above directed, or for which a fixed duty has not been declared by the said Schedules, are brought to any such Station as aforesaid, the duty leviable on such goods shall be levied according to the market value of such goods.

Ascertainment of market value for levy of duty.

XII. If the value of any goods, upon which duty is leviable according to the market value thereof, shall appear to be understated in the declaration of value prescribed in Section VIII., the Officer authorised to receive duties of Customs at the Station where such goods are brought to be passed, shall have power to take the goods, or any part thereof, as purchased for the Government at the price so declared; and whenever he shall so take goods for the Government, payment thereof shall be made for the same within one month from the date of the declaration, and the Officer shall sell the goods so taken on account of Government; and, if they shall realize on sale a sum exceeding all charges incurred on them by Government, a proportion not more than one-half of the excess shall, at the discretion of the Commissioner, be payable to the Officer who reported the under-valuation of the goods, who shall in like manner be liable to pay one-half of the net loss that may accrue on the sale of the said goods.

Exemptions.

XIII. No goods entered in either of the said Schedules as liable to duty shall be exempted from the payment of such duty, or of any part thereof, except under special order from the Governor in Council; provided always, that any Officer authorised to receive duties of Customs under this Act may, at his discretion, pass free of duty any passenger's personal baggage in actual use; and if any person shall apply to have goods passed as such baggage, such Officer, acting under the orders of Government, shall determine whether they be passenger's personal baggage in actual use, or goods subject to duty under the provisions of this Act.

Certificate of payment of duty.

XIV. When goods are passed at any such Station as aforesaid, the Officer authorised to receive duties of Customs at such Station shall grant a certificate of the payment of such duty, or (if the case so require) of the goods having been passed free of duty. Any Officer of Customs employed at a Station established under this Act may require any person in charge of dutiable goods which have been passed across the Frontier to produce the certificate granted for such goods; and any goods which are unaccompanied by a certificate, or which on examination do not correspond with the specification contained in the certificate produced, shall be detained, and shall be liable to confiscation.

Granting duplicate of lost certificate.

XV. If a certificate be lost by any person to whom it may have been issued by the Officer authorised to issue the same, the Commissioner of Customs, or other Officer duly authorised in that behalf, on being satisfied that no fraud has been committed or was intended, may grant a duplicate of such lost document upon payment of a fee of not less than one rupee nor exceeding ten rupees. The Commissioner or other Officer as aforesaid may also authorise any amendment to be made in any application made under this Act; but if such amendment be required after such application is entered and recorded in the Custom House books, then upon payment of a like fee for any amendment in a document so entered.

Station Officer permitting goods to pass without payment of duty.

XVI. Any Station Officer who shall permit goods liable to duty to pass across the Frontier without payment of duty, or who shall release any goods not covered by a sufficient certificate, or who shall permit such goods to pass by any road or pass other than the prescribed roads or passes, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, or both.

Vexatious seizure by Station Officer.

XVII. Any Station Officer who shall needlessly and vexatiously injure goods, under the pretence of examination, or in the course of his examination, or who shall wrongfully detain goods for which there is produced a sufficient certificate, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, or both.

Obstruction of Officers.

XVIII. Whoever intentionally obstructs any Officer in the exercise of any powers given by this Act to such Officer, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, or a fine not exceeding one thousand Rupees, or both.

Offering bribes to Officers.

XIX. Adjudication of confiscations, &c.

XX. In all cases in which, under this Act, goods are liable to confiscation, a Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Customs appointed under this Act may adjudicate such confiscation, or the same may adjudged by an Assistant Commissioner of Customs appointed under this Act, being a Justice of the Peace; provided that power to adjudicate confiscation shall not extend as regards an Assistant Commissioner to goods beyond the value of one hundred Rupees; and all cases adjudicated by an Assistant Commissioner shall be liable to revision by a Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Customs on appeal.

Restoration of forfeited goods.

XXI. In case any goods shall be seized as liable to confiscation, or detained as under-valued under this Act, the adjudicating Officer may order the same to be restored, in such manner and on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit to direct; and if the owner of the same accepts such terms and conditions, he shall not have or maintain any action for recompense or damage on account of such seizure or detention, and the adjudicating Officer shall not proceed to condemnation.

Damages for vexatious seizure.

XXII. Any Officer authorised to adjudicate Customs cases, if he shall decide that a seizure of goods made under the authority of this Act was vexatious and unnecessary, may adjudge damages to be paid to the owner by the Officer who made such seizure, beside ordering the immediate release of the goods; and if the owner accepts such damages, no action shall thereafter lie against such Officer in any Court of Justice on account of such seizure; and if such adjudicating Officer shall decide that the seizure was warranted, but shall deem that the penalty of confiscation is unduly severe, he may mitigate the same by levying on the goods so seized as aforesaid any portion of the market value of such goods not less than one-tenth of such value; and if the said Officer adjudges confiscation, or any penalty in mitigation of confiscation, he may order that, from the sale of the goods, or from the proceeds of any penalty inflicted in mitigation of confiscation, a proportion, not exceeding, in all cases of seizure except seizures of Salt or Tobacco, one-half of the sum remaining after payment of all Government demands, shall be distributed in rewards amongst such Officers as he deems entitled thereto, and in such proportion as he directs to each respectively. In awarding rewards for the seizure of confiscated Salt or Tobacco, the said Officer may award one-half of the proceeds of sale, without making any deduction on account of Government demands.

SUPPLEMENT

TO THE

BOMBAY GOVERNMENT GAZETTE.

Published by Authority.

THURSDAY, 8TH OCTOBER 1857.

NOTIFICATION.

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

Bombay Castle, 3rd October 1857.

THE following Notification, issued by order of the Right Honorable the Governor General of India in Council under date the 19th ultimo, is republished for general information.

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council,

H. L. ANDERSON,
Secretary to Government.

No. 3813.

FORT WILLIAM, FOREIGN DEPARTMENT,

The 19th September 1857.

NOTIFICATION.

The Right Honorable the Governor General in Council having appointed a successor to the late Sir HENRY LAWRENCE, K.C.B., in the post of Chief Commissioner of Oude, desires to take the opportunity of testifying publicly in this form, as he has already testified in addressing the Honorable Court of Directors, the deep sorrow with which he laments the loss of that eminent man.

In the course of a service extending over thirty-five years, in Burmah, in Affghanistan, in Nepal, in the Punjab, and in Rajpootana, Sir HENRY LAWRENCE was distinguished for high ability, devoted zeal, and generous and self-denying exertions for the welfare of those around him. As a Soldier, an Administrator, and a Statesman, he has earned a reputation amongst the foremost.

Impressed with a sense of his great qualifications, the Governor General in Council selected him to be Chief Commissioner in Oude. In that position, from the first appearance of disaffection amongst the Troops quartered in the Province, his conduct was marked by foresight, calm judgment, and courage; and, if anything could have averted the calamitous outbreak, which has been followed by the temporary subversion of British Authority in Oude, the measures which were taken by Sir HENRY LAWRENCE, and the confidence which all men, high and low, European and Native, felt in his energy, his wisdom, and his spirit of justice and kindliness, would have accomplished that end. As long as there was any hope of restraining the wavering Soldiery by appeals to their sense of duty and honour, he left no becoming means untried to conciliate them. When violent and open mutiny called for stern retribution, he did not shrink from the (to him) uncongenial task of inflicting severe punishment. When general disorder and armed rebellion threatened, he was undaunted, and the precautionary preparations which, from the beginning, he had had in view, were carried out rapidly and effectually.

He has been prematurely removed from the scene, but it is due mainly to his exertions, judgment, and skill that the Garrison of Lucknow has been able to defy the assaults of its assailants, and still maintains its ground.

The loss of such a man in the present circumstances of India is indeed a heavy public calamity. The Governor General in Council deplores it deeply, and desires to place on record his appreciation of the eminent services, his admiration of the high character, and his affectionate respect for the memory, of Sir HENRY LAWRENCE.

By order of the Governor General of India in Council,

(Signed) G. F. EDMONSTONE,
Secretary to the Government of India.
