COMMISSARIAT NOTICES.

No. 44.

CONTRACT FOR THE SUPPLY OF HOSPITAL CLOTHING.

1. Persons desirous of entering into a Contract for the supply of such Hospital Clothing as may be required by the Commissariat Department at the Presidency, for the term of one year from the date of the acceptance of the offer, may, on application at this Office, from 11 A. M. till 5 P. M. daily (Sundays excepted), obtain copies of the Schedule or List of Prices, and such information relating thereto as they may require.

2. No person will be allowed to bid for the Contract unless he deposits in this Office, in cash, the sum of Rupees (1,200) One thousand and two hundred, which will be forfeited in the event of withdrawal of his offer before the Commissary General, or other authorised person in that behalf, shall have signified to him, by a notice in writing, his refusal to accept such offer, or in the event of delay, evasion, or refusal, on his part, to furnish the requisite further security, and execute the Deed of Contract, when required to do so on his offer being accepted.

3. The further security required is Bonded Security to the amount of Rupees (4,000) Four thousand and eight hundred, subject to the approval of the Government Solicitor; and this, together with the amount previously deposited, will be held as a guarantee for the due fulfilment of the Contract.

4. Verbal offers for the Contract will be received at this Office on Thursday, the 14th instant, at 1 o'clock precisely, when bidders will be required to bid a percentage above or below the prices exhibited in the above List, at which the supply will be made.

5. The articles supplied must be of unexceptionable quality, and according to musters which may be seen in this Office, or of the exact kind, quality, and description demanded; and are to be delivered, in the first instance, at the Commissariat Stores, if required, and afterwards to the Indenting Departments, in good condition, free of all charges beyond the stipulated price, in such quantities as may, from time to time, be demanded, being liable to examination and rejection by the Executive Commissariat Officer, or by the Indenting or Receiving Officers, or by a Committee of Officers appointed on the part of Government, in the event of the Contractor being dissatisfied with the decision of the above Officers, or either of them.

6. In case the said articles, or any of them, shall be rejected by the Committee so appointed, the said Committee shall not be required to assign or give any reason for such rejection, but the decision of such Committee shall be final and conclusive; and it shall not be competent to the Contractor, his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, to question such decision in any Court of Law or Equity, or otherwise howsoever.

7. The Contractor must comply immediately with emergent demands, and meet others of less urgency, within the periods stated in the requisitions made upon him; in failure whereof, or if any supply be rejected or condemned by a Committee as aforesaid, the articles, or such others as may be required in lieu thereof, may be at once purchased by this Department at his risk and cost; and in all such cases Thirty (30) per Cent. upon the amount of expenses incurred, or a fine not exceeding Rupees (100) one hundred, at the option of the Executive Commissariat Officer, shall be levied as liquidated damages for each and every such breach of Contract,—the condemnation of any article by a Committee being held to constitute a breach of Contract, whether the rejected articles be replaced by the Contractor or by this Department. In every such case, the Contract may be cancelled at the discretion of the Commissary General; and if it be so cancelled, the cash deposit, mentioned in paragraph 2 of this Notice, will be forfeited to Government.

8. Any delay, negligence, evasion, or refusal, on the part of a Contractor, to make supplies or obey orders, or any attempt on his part, or that of his Agents, to pass off articles of an inferior quality in lieu of those he is bound to supply, or any neglect to deliver them at the time and place appointed, will subject him to be fined to the extent of Rupees (25) Twenty-five by the Executive Commissariat Officer; an appeal from his order may be made to the Commissary General, whose decision is to be final; but when any of the penalties provided for in the preceding clause are exacted, no further penalty shall be leviable under this clause.

9. Any party whose offer is accepted, must produce Sureties, such as shall meet the approval of the Government Solicitor, within Fifteen days from the date of the acceptance of his offer, or the Contract will be resold, and the amount deposited by the bidder forfeited to Government. No reason will be stated for rejecting any Security offered.

10. Bills for articles supplied under this Contract must be preferred for examination within one month from the date of the delivery of the same, or the Contractor will forfeit their full value, unless it clearly appear, to the satisfaction of the Commissary General, that the delay was unavoidable. Payment of Bills passed in this Office must be claimed within Five days after they are passed, or the amount will be forfeited to Government.

11. The amount of retrenchments made by the auditing authorities on the Contractor's Bills will be recovered from the first sums payable to him; but in the event of such retrenchments, or any portion thereof, being remitted, the amount remitted will be refunded.

12. Any party who, after offering for the Contract, fails to furnish the necessary Security, as provided for in Clauses 3 and 9 of this Notice, will be interdicted from bidding on future occasions, unless he produces a document from some person or persons of unexceptionable character and sufficient means, guaranteeing the due finding of the requisite Security, and execution by him of the Deed of Contract on his offer being accepted.

13. Persons intending to offer may, on application, see a statement of the actual annual consumption during the past years; but it is to be distinctly understood that supplies must be furnished to any extent required, without reference to such former consumption.

14. No reason will be assigned for the rejection of any offer.

No. 33.

CONTRACT FOR THE SUPPLY OF PROVISIONS, &c.

Persons desirous of entering into a Contract for the supply of such Provisions, &c. as may be required by the Commissariat Department at the Presidency for the term of one year from the date of the acceptance of the tender, may, on application at this Office, from 11 A. M. till 5 P. M. daily (Sundays excepted), obtain copies of the Schedules, or Lists of Prices, and such information relating thereto as they may require.

2. No person will be allowed to tender for the Contract unless he deposits in this Office, in cash, the sum of Rupees (6,000) Six thousand, which will be forfeited in the event of withdrawal of his tender before the Commissary General, or other authorised person in that behalf, shall have signified to him, by a notice in writing, his refusal to accept such tender; or, in the event of delay, evasion, or refusal, on his part, to furnish the requisite further security, and execute the Deed of Contract, when required to do so on his tender being accepted.

3. The further security required is Bonded Security to the amount of Rupees (24,000) Twenty-four thousand, subject to the approval of the Government Solicitor; and this, together with the amount previously deposited, will be held as a guarantee for the due fulfilment of the Contract.

4. Sealed tenders for the Contract will be received at this Office on Friday, the 22nd March 1861, at 1 o'clock precisely. Tenders must specify a percentage above or below the prices exhibited in the above List, at which the supply will be made.

5. The articles supplied must be of unexceptionable quality, and according to musters which may be seen in this Office, or of the exact kind, quality, and description demanded, and are to be delivered, in the first instance, at the Commissariat Stores, if required, and afterwards to the Indenting Departments, in good condition, free of all charges beyond the stipulated price, in such quantities as may, from time to time, be demanded, being liable to examination and rejection by the Executive Commissariat Officer, or by the Indenting or Receiving Officers, or by a Committee of Officers appointed on the part of Government in the event of the Contractor being dissatisfied with the decision of the above Officers or either of them.

6. It is to be clearly understood that such of the articles specified in the Schedule as form part of the rations for European Soldiers or Hospital diet, are to be supplied under the rules laid down in G. G. O. No. 613 of the 10th October 1853, and No. 33 of the 11th January 1854, copies of which may be seen in this Office.

7. In case the said Articles or any of them shall be rejected by the Committee so appointed, the said Committee shall not be required to assign or give any reason for such rejection, but the decision of such Committee shall be final and conclusive; and it shall not be competent to the Contractor, his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, to question such decision in any Court of Law or Equity, or otherwise howsoever.

8. The Contractor must comply immediately with emergent demands, and meet others of less urgency, within the periods stated in the requisitions made upon him; in failure whereof, or if any supply be rejected or condemned by a Committee as aforesaid, the articles, or such others as may be required in lieu thereof, may be at once purchased by this Department, at his risk and cost; and in all such cases Thirty (30) per cent. upon the amount of expenses incurred, or a fine not exceeding Rupees (200) Two hundred, at the option of the Executive Commissariat Officer, shall be levied as liquidated damages for each and every such breach of Contract, the condemnation of any article by a Committee being held to constitute a breach of Contract, whether the rejected articles be replaced by the Contractor or by this Department. In every such case, the Contract may be cancelled, at the discretion of the Commissary General; and if it be so cancelled, the Cash deposit, mentioned in paragraph 2 of this Notice, will be forfeited to Government.

9. Any delay, negligence, evasion, or refusal on the part of a Contractor to make supplies or obey orders, or any attempt on his part, or that of his Agents, to pass off articles of an inferior quality in lieu of those he is bound to supply, or any neglect to deliver them at the time and place appointed, will subject him to be fined to the extent of Rupees (25) Twenty-five by the Executive Commissariat Officer. An appeal from his order may be made to the Commissary General, whose decision is to be final; but when any of the penalties provided for in the preceding clause are exacted, no further penalty shall be leviable under this clause.

10. Any party whose tender is accepted must produce Sureties, such as shall meet the approval of the Government Solicitor, within fifteen days from the date of the acceptance of his tender, or the Contract will be re-sold, and the amount deposited by the tenderer forfeited to Government. No reason will be stated for rejecting any security offered.

11. Bills for articles supplied under this Contract must be preferred for examination within one month from the date of the delivery of the same, or the Contractor will forfeit their full value, unless it clearly appear, to the satisfaction of the Commissary General, that the delay was unavoidable. Payment of bills passed in this Office must be claimed within five days after they are passed, or the amount will be forfeited to Government.

12. The amount of retrenchments made by the auditing authorities on the Contractor's bills will be recovered from the first sums payable to him; but in the event of such retrenchments or any portion thereof being remitted, the amount remitted will be refunded.

13. Any party who, after tendering for the Contract, fails to furnish the necessary Security, as provided for in Clauses 3 and 10 of this Notice, will be interdicted from tendering on future occasions, unless he produces a document from some person or persons of unexceptionable character and sufficient means, guaranteeing the due finding of the requisite Security, and execution by him of the Deed of Contract on his tender being accepted.

14. Persons intending to tender may, on application, see a statement of the actual annual consumption during the past years; but it is to be distinctly understood that supplies must be furnished to any extent required, without reference to such former consumption.

15. No reason will be assigned for the rejection of any tender.

16. Tenders should be superscribed "Tender for the supply of provisions," &c.

Travellers' Bungalow and Messman, at all the above Stations.

PASSENGER TRAIN.

1st. The Train will start at 3 p. m. daily from each end of the Line, and also from each Halting Station, at the same hour, except on Sundays, when Passengers will not be received unless in cases of emergency. This is not applicable to Passengers wishing to travel through without halting; but whenever halts are made, the above hour for starting must be conformed to; if voluntary halts be made at any Station beyond 24 hours, demurrage will be charged at the rate of two Rupees per every hour in excess of that time.

2nd. Twenty pounds of Luggage will be allowed free of charge to Passengers travelling by spring cart, and ten pounds per muster cart. A spring cart will carry two adults, and a muster and country cart, four.

3rd. All Luggage in excess of the above weight must be paid for, and will be sent with the Travellers on country carts at the Train rates of hire; 500 pounds in weight are allowed to each cart in the fair weather, and 400 pounds in the monsoon.

4th. All fares for Passengers and excess Luggage must be prepaid.

5th. Tickets must be shown or given up by Passengers to the Subordinates of the Train, at the Halting Stations on demand. Any Passenger refusing to comply will have to pay the fare from the Terminus in rear to his destination, and will be prevented from proceeding further by the Train, unless the prescribed amount is at once paid or arranged for.

6th. Passengers are on no account whatever to ill-treat the Cattle, Drivers, or Subordinates of the Train. Should any person employed in the Department evince a want of proper civility, or cause unnecessary inconvenience, the same should be reported to the Director at Bombay, or to the Assistant Director at Mhow, detailing all particulars, with the names of the Drivers, Stations, Dates, &c.

7th. Passengers are earnestly requested to conform strictly to the above Rules, as infringements of them not only disturb the arrangements of the Department and interrupt the working of the Train, but may cause considerable inconvenience to themselves.

GOODS TRAIN.

1st. The Train will start from Wassind and intermediate Halting Stations downwards at 3 p. m. daily, and upwards to Bombay from Indore, Mhow, and other Halting Stations at 9 a.m.

2nd. Until arrangements are made for receiving Goods in Bombay, Consignees must forward them by Railway at their own cost to Wassind,—but Tickets for Goods must be obtained and paid for at the Head Quarter Office, Bombay. These Tickets should be enclosed or presented to the Inspector of the Transport Train at Wassind, who will, on receipt of the Goods from Bombay by Railway, forward them to their respective destinations.

3rd. Goods, including Opium, intended for despatch upward, will in like manner be forwarded from Indore, Mhow, and all the principal intermediate Stations.

4th. Goods Trains will necessarily travel at a slower rate than Passenger Trains, and be subject to greater detention at the Halting Stations, for examination and such repairs to carts as may be found necessary.

5th. One spare cart will be allowed to every ten engaged for Opium and other Goods, for the accommodation of the Escort in charge, and to prevent delay in cases of accident.
