LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

Bombay Castle, 26th July 1893.

No. 257.—His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor of Bombay, under the authority vested in him by the Indian Councils Acts, 1861 and 1892, has been pleased to nominate Mr. NAVROJI NASARWANJI WADIA, C.I.E., to be an Additional Member of the Council of the Governor of Bombay for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations only.

By order of His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor,

C: H. A. HILL,

Secretary to the Council of His Excellency the Governor of Bombay for making Laws and Regulations.

I.—195

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Bombay Castle, 16th July 1893.

No. 5161.—The following draft rules under Sections 37, 52, 58 and 59 of the Bombay Salt Act, 1890, are published for general information. Persons who have any objections to urge to them are required to communicate the same in writing to the Chief Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, within one month from the date of the publication of this notification :—

In exercise of the powers conferred by Sections 37, 52, 58 and 59 of the Bombay Salt Act, 1890, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules and to direct that on and after the same shall have force in supersession of all existing rules on the same subjects respectively.

Preliminary.

Short title.

1. These rules may be cited as the Bombay Salt Rules, 1893.

Deposit and Storage of Salt at Salt-Works.

1A. No person shall allow any salt which is under his control to lie unheaped for more than 10 days or for a period longer than that allowed under any general or special order communicated to him as made by the Collector of Salt Revenue in this behalf.

2. Except before first storage in heaps at a salt work or after removal to a distance of at least one mile beyond a Preventive Station, no person shall sift or spread out any salt to dry except with the special sanction of the Commissioner.

3. Before first storage no person shall sift salt or spread it out to dry except in places appointed by the Sarkarkún for that purpose.

4. The licensee shall be bound to store the salt produced in or during each manufacturing season separately from the salt produced in or during every other manufacturing season, unless specially permitted by the Sarkarkún to do otherwise.

5. No person shall construct or cause or allow to be constructed any storage platform or salt heap in any shape or of any size or in any situation other than such as may be in accordance with the general or special orders of the Collector of Salt Revenue for the time being in force and applicable in that behalf.

6. When a heap of salt has been broken open to satisfy a permit, the licensee shall not, except with the written permission of the Sarkarkún, allow any other heap in the same salt-work to be resorted to for the same permit until the heap first opened has been disposed of and cleared away.

7. No person shall open or cause or allow to be opened any salt heap which he has been directed by the Sarkarkún not to open. The licensee shall close in such manner as the Sarkarkún may direct any salt heap which has been opened.

8. No person shall add to, or remove from, or cause or allow additions or removals to be made to or from, any salt in a heap that has been partly made and not completed, if loss by smuggling, rain, flood, or any exceptional accident has occurred thereto, or if the Sazedár, on the ground of such loss having occurred, prohibits such addition or removal, unless and until such heap has been inspected by the Sarkarkún or some officer deputed by him.

9. No person shall at any time add any salt to, or cause or allow any salt to be added to, a heap after it has been once made and completed.

Deposit of Salt.

10. No person shall deposit or cause or allow to be deposited at any salt-work in the Kánara District any salt within 200 yards of any kothár or building used or intended to be used for the storage of salt on which excise duty has not been paid excepting on ground allotted for the purpose by the Sarkarkún; and any person depositing salt on any such ground shall be bound to at once remove it if so ordered by the Sarkarkún.

Removal of Salt.

11. Except as is hereinafter in this rule otherwise provided, no one shall remove salt from a salt-work otherwise than in bags legibly marked with consecutive numbers and with the initials or other distinguishing mark of the person on whose account the salt is removed: Provided that this rule shall not apply to removals of salt from Government Salt-Works at Kháraghoda to the stores or from the works at Sanikatta to the kothárs, or to salt removed under the special orders of the Collector or by Wanjáris.

Conservancy of Salt-Works.

12. No person shall commit a nuisance within the limits of any salt-work.

Warehousing of Salt for Sale.

13. Licenses, granted by the Collector under Section 37 of the Act for the storage or possession of salt for sale within any of the limits mentioned in Section 36 of the Act, shall be either for the wholesale or for the retail sale of salt and shall be in the form annexed to these rules and contain the conditions specified in the said form. The said conditions shall be deemed to be and shall have the same force as rules framed by the Governor in Council under Section 37 (1) of the Act.

14. Every license shall be taken out not later than the 1st of January in each year and shall be in force until the 31st December next following and no longer.

15. The Collector may cancel or refuse to renew a license without assigning any reasons therefor.

16. If a licensee desires to open, for purposes of sale, more than one shop or warehouse, he must obtain a separate license for each such shop or warehouse.

17. Every such license shall be liable to suspension or revocation, at any time, on breach, by the licensee or any of his servants, of any of the conditions thereof or of any provisions of the Act.

Disposal and destruction of things seized.

18. Confiscated salt-earth shall be destroyed.

19. At any time after the seizure of goods under the Act, it shall be lawful for an officer not lower in rank than a Sarkarkún to direct that any such goods which appear to him to be subject to natural and speedy decay, shall be sold by public auction at once or, if unsaleable, that they shall be destroyed.

20. Any officer of a class not lower in rank than Sarkarkúns or Inspectors may give the directions specified in section 52 (b) in any case in which such directions may be given under the provisions thereof.

21. The surplus proceeds of all sales under Rules 19 and 20 shall, unless the owner of the property sold establishes his claim to them within three months of the sale, be forfeited to Her Majesty.

Penalties.

22. Whoever commits a breach of any of the Rules 1, 4, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 or of any condition of a license granted in accordance with Rule 13, shall be punished with fine which may extend to rupees fifty, and in default of payment of fine, with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month.

23. Whoever commits a breach of Rule 12 shall be punished with fine which may extend to rupees twenty, and in default of payment of the fine, with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to ten days.

MAIL SHIPS ACT, 1891.

[54 & 55 VICTORIA, CHAPTER 31.]

An Act to enable Her Majesty in Council to carry into effect Conventions which may be made with Foreign Countries respecting Ships engaged in Postal Service.

[21st July 1891.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. (1) Where Her Majesty the Queen has made a convention with a Foreign State respecting the postal service between such Foreign State and the United Kingdom, or respecting the privileges of mail ships, that is to say, ships engaged in any postal service of such Foreign State or of any part of Her Majesty's dominions, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to order that this Act shall, and this Act shall accordingly, subject to any conditions, exceptions and qualifications contained in the Order, apply during the continuance of the Order as regards such Convention and Foreign State and the postal service and mail ships described in the Convention; and where by virtue of any such Order this Act or any section thereof applies as regards any Convention, Foreign State, postal service or mail ship, the same is in this Act referred to as a Convention, Foreign State, postal service or mail ship to which this Act or section applies.

(2) The Order shall recite or embody the terms of the Convention, and may be varied or revoked by Order in Council, but shall not continue in force for any longer period than the Convention.

(3) Every Order in Council under this Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament forthwith after it is made, or, if Parliament be not then sitting, after the then next meeting of Parliament, and shall also be notified in the London Gazette, and published under the authority of Her Majesty's Stationery Office.

2. (1) Where this section applies to a Convention with a Foreign State, the master of a British mail ship to which this section applies when carrying mails to or from any port of the Foreign State, and the master of a mail ship of the Foreign State to which this section applies when carrying mails to or from any port of the United Kingdom, shall not, nor shall any person on board the ship, whether a passenger or belonging to the ship or any other person, convey in the ship for delivery to another person in the Foreign State or United Kingdom, as the case may be, any letter, other than the letters contained in mail bags entrusted to the master by a postal officer of the United Kingdom or of any Foreign State, or than the despatches sent by the Government either of the United Kingdom or of any Foreign State.

(2) If a person on board such ship acts in contravention of this section, or refuses or fails on demand to give up to a postal officer, or, if such person is not the master, to the master, any letter so conveyed by him, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

(3) It shall be the duty of the master of the ship to secure the observance of this section by all persons on board the ship, and to inform the proper authorities at the port at which the ship arrives of any breach of this section by any of those persons, and if he wilfully fails to perform that duty, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

(4) Provided that a person shall not be liable under this section to a fine for any offence for which he has been punished by the law of the Foreign State.

(5) Nothing in this section shall apply to any letters which, if sent from the United Kingdom, would be exempted from the exclusive privilege of the Postmaster-General under the Act of the session of the seventh year of King William the Fourth and the first of Her present Majesty, chapter thirty-three, intituled 'An Act for the management of the Post Office.'

7 Will., 4 & 1
Vict., c. 33.

Regulation as to giving of security for ships engaged in postal service.

3. (1) Where the owner of any ships, British or foreign, applies to the High Court in England, and

(a) produces a certificate of a Secretary of State that such owner is subsidised for the execution of any postal service within the meaning of a Convention with a Foreign State to which this Act applies by reason of receiving from the Foreign State or from the Government of the United Kingdom or of a British Possession a bona fide subsidy for the postal service mentioned in the certificate, and

- (b) produces sufficient evidence of the nature of the said service and the number of, and the prescribed particulars respecting, the ships engaged therein, and
- (c) gives notice of the application to the Board of Trade, the High Court, after hearing the owner, and the Board of Trade if they wish to be heard, shall fix the nature and amount of the security which the owner ought to place under the control of the Court for the purposes of this Act as respects the ships engaged in that postal service, and fix the maximum number and tonnage of the ships to which the security is to apply.

(2) The security shall be the bond of the owner guaranteed either—

- (a) by the personal security of a surety, accompanied by an adequate real security given by the surety; or
- (b) by the payment or transfer into Court of cash or of securities of the Government of the United Kingdom.

(3) If the owner gives such security to the satisfaction of the High Court, then so long as the security is maintained and is sufficient to the satisfaction of the Court, and the number and tonnage of the ships for the time being actually engaged in carrying mails for the postal service in respect of which the security is given does not exceed the number and tonnage of the ships to which the security applies, the ships actually engaged in carrying mails for the said service shall be deemed to be exempted mail ships, and be entitled to the exemptions and privileges given by this Act to exempted mail ships; and the Board of Trade shall give the prescribed notices for informing the arresting authorities that the ships actually engaged in carrying the mails for the said postal service are exempted mail ships.

(4) Notice of every application respecting any security given in pursuance of this section shall be given to the Board of Trade.

(5) If at any time it appears to the Board of Trade that a security given as respects ships engaged in any postal service is from any cause (whether pending claims, variation of the conditions of the service, or otherwise) insufficient, the Board of Trade shall apply to the High Court, and that Court, if satisfied of such insufficiency, shall require the security to be made sufficient to the satisfaction of the Court within a reasonable time, and direct that in default the ships engaged in the postal service shall cease to be exempted mail ships, and that the Board of Trade shall give the prescribed notices for informing the arresting authorities of such cesser.

(6) The amount and nature of the security may be varied and the whole security may be withdrawn, and the income of the security may be disposed of by order of the High Court from time to time on such application either of the ship-owners or of the Board of Trade, or of any person appearing to be interested, and in such manner and after such notice, and upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by rules of Court, or, so far as the rules do not extend, as the Court may think just.

(7) Provided that before the security is actually withdrawn the High Court shall be satisfied—

- (a) that the prescribed notice of the order for withdrawal has been given to the arresting authorities; and
- (b) that there is no pending claim for the purposes of which the security may be required;

and upon the prescribed notice of the order for withdrawal being given to an arresting authority, the ships shall, as respects that authority, cease, after the date specified in the notice, to be exempted ships.

(8) Rules of Court may be made for carrying this section into effect, and in particular for regulating the nature, amount and value of the security to be given, and the mode of giving security, and of giving notices to the arresting authorities, and for providing for the evidence of the exemption of ships under this section, and for the information to be given from time to time to the High Court respecting the ships to which the security applies and for the jurisdiction of the High Court under this Act being exercised in chambers.

4. (1) Where this section applies to a Convention with a Foreign State, and an exempted mail ship to which this section applies is in a port in the United Kingdom, no person shall be arrested without warrant on board such ship, and before any process, civil or criminal, authorising the arrest of any person who is on board such ship is executed against that person, the following provisions of this section shall be observed; that is to say,—

- (a) written notice of the intention to arrest a person who is, or is suspected to be, on board the ship, stating the hour at which, if necessary, the ship will be searched, shall, if it is a ship of a Foreign State and there is at the port a consulate of that State, be left at the consulate, addressed to the consular officer:
- (b) it shall be the duty of the master upon demand, if the said person is on board his ship, to enable the proper officer to arrest him:
- (c) if the officer is unable to arrest the said person, he may, but if it is a foreign ship, only after the expiration of such time after notice was left at the consulate as is specified in the Convention, search the ship for such person, and if he is found may arrest him.

(2) The ship may be delayed for the purposes of this section for the time specified in the Convention, but not for any longer time.

(3) If the master of a ship refuses to permit a search of the ship in accordance with this section, any officer of Customs may detain the ship, and such master shall be liable to a fine of five hundred pounds.

(4) This section shall apply to the arrest of the master in like manner as in the case of any other person.

5. (1) An exempted mail ship to which this section applies shall not, subject as in this Act mentioned, be liable to be arrested or detained by any arresting authority either for the purpose of founding jurisdiction in any Court of Admiralty, or of enforcing the payment of any damages, fine, debt, or other claim or sum, or enforcing any forfeiture whether arising from the misconduct of the master or any of the crew or otherwise, but every Court of the United Kingdom by the process of which the ship could have been under the circumstances arrested or detained shall have the same jurisdiction as if the ship had been so arrested or detained, and any legal proceeding in relation to any such matter as aforesaid may be commenced by such service in the United Kingdom of any writ or process as may be prescribed by rules of Court; and the High Court on application shall, in accordance with rules of Court, cause the security to be applied in discharge of any such damages, fine, debt, claim, sum or forfeiture.

(2) Provided that nothing in this section shall render invalid the arrest or detention of a ship before the prescribed notice has been given to the arresting authority, but such authority, on proof that the ship is an exempted mail ship, shall release the ship. Where the Commissioners of Customs, in pursuance of any Act or as a condition of waiving any forfeiture, require a deposit to be made by any exempted mail ship to which this section applies, the amount of such deposit shall, on notice from the Commissioners of Customs, and without any further proceeding, be set apart out of the security as money belonging to the said Commissioners, and shall be paid and applied as they direct, and any rules of Court relating to such notice, payment or application shall be made with the consent of the Treasury.

6. (1) Where the Convention with a Foreign State provides that any provisions of the Convention similar to those contained in this Act shall in any cases apply to a public ship of a Foreign State when employed as a mail ship, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty the Queen to agree that the like provisions shall apply to a public ship of Her Majesty in the like cases when employed as a mail ship, and to give effect to such agreement.

(2) An order in Council applying this Act as regards a Convention with a Foreign State may, if it seems to Her Majesty in Council to be consistent with the Convention so to do, apply this Act as regards a public ship of that Foreign State when employed as a mail ship in the cases authorised by the Convention; and this Act shall apply accordingly as if such ship were an exempted mail ship belonging to a private owner, and any person may be arrested on board such ship accordingly.

7. (1) Every fine under this Act, if exceeding fifty pounds, may be recovered by action in the High Court in England or Ireland or in the Court of Session in Scotland, and the Court in which it is recovered may reduce the amount of such fine, and a fine under this Act not exceeding fifty pounds may be recovered on summary conviction, provided that every offence for which a fine exceeding fifty pounds can be imposed under this Act may be prosecuted on summary conviction, but the fine imposed on such conviction shall not exceed fifty pounds.

(2) In the case of a summary conviction, any person who thinks himself aggrieved by such conviction may appeal to quarter sessions. In Scotland such person may appeal in manner provided by the Summary Prosecutions Appeals (Scotland) Act, 1875. 38 & 39
c. 62.

(3) Service of any summons or other matter in any legal proceeding under this Act shall be good service if made by leaving the summons for the person to be served on board the ship to which he belongs with the person being or appearing to be master of the ship.

(4) If a fine under this Act imposed on the master of a ship is not paid, and cannot be recovered out of any security given in pursuance of this Act, the Court may, in addition to any other power for enforcing payment of the fine, direct the amount to be levied by distress or pawning and sale of the ship, her tackle, furniture or apparel. An officer of Customs in detaining a ship or releasing a ship after detention in pursuance of this Act shall act upon such requisition or authority and under such regulations as the Commissioners of Customs may make with the consent of the Treasury.

8. (1) An Order in Council may, for the purpose of a Convention with a Foreign State, apply this Act, subject to any exceptions or modifications not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, to any British Possession, and this Act, when so applied, shall, subject to those exceptions and modifications, and subject as hereinafter mentioned, have effect as if it were re-enacted with the substitution of such British Possession for the United Kingdom;

Provided that before it is applied to any British Possession named in the schedule to this Act, the Government of such Possession shall have adhered to the Convention.

(2) Where this Act applies to a British Possession, it shall not be necessary for the owner of any mail ship to give security in any Court in that Possession, and the provisions of this Act with respect to the jurisdiction of any Court of the United Kingdom, other than any jurisdiction relating to the application of the security, shall apply as if a Court in the British Possession were substituted for a Court of the United Kingdom.

(3) It shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make rules for carrying into effect, as respects British Possessions, the provisions of this Act with respect to the security given by mail ships, and in particular with respect to the commencement of a legal proceeding by service of a writ or process in the Possession, and to the notices to be given to arresting authorities in the Possession, and the evidence to be receivable by such authorities of the security having been given or withdrawn, and the application of the security in discharge of any damages, fine, debt, claim, sum or forfeiture, where the same are or is recovered or payable either in the British Possession, or under proceedings pending concurrently in that British Possession and in any other British Possession or the United Kingdom.

(4) If by any law made either before or after the passing of this Act by the Legislature of any British Possession provision is made for carrying into effect within such Possession any Convention to which this Act applies, Her Majesty in Council may suspend the operation within such Possession of this Act or of any part thereof so far as it relates to such Convention, and so long as such law continues in force there, or direct that such law or any part thereof shall have effect in such British Possession with or without modifications and alterations as if it were part of this Act.

INDIA OFFICE:

London, 8th June 1893.

To His Excellency the Most Honourable the Governor General of India in Council.

MY LORD MARQUIS.—In continuation of my Despatch, dated the 6th of April last, No. 79, I forward, for the information of your Government, ten copies of the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the 16th of May 1893, entitled 'the Mail Ships (France) Order in Council (India), 1893.'

I have, &c.,
KIMBERLEY.

AT THE COURT AT WINDSOR.

The 16th day of May 1893.

PRESENT:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Marquess of Ripon.

Mr. Secretary Asquith.

Whereas on the thirtieth day of August 1890 a Convention was made at London between Her Majesty and the President of the French Republic respecting the postal service between France and the French possessions and the United Kingdom and British possessions;

And whereas the ratifications of the said Convention were exchanged on the 23rd March 1891;

And whereas by 'the Mail Ships (France) Order in Council, 1892,' 'The Mail Ships Act, 1891,' is applied during the continuance of that Order as regards the said Convention, and as regards the French Republic and the postal service and mail ships described in that Convention;

And whereas by section 8 of the said Act it is provided that an Order in Council may, for the purpose of a Convention with a Foreign State, apply the said Act, subject to any exceptions or modifications not inconsistent with the provisions of the said Act, to any British possession, and that the said Act, when so applied, should, subject to those exceptions and modifications, and subject as hereinafter mentioned, have effect as if it were re-enacted with the substitution of such British possession for the United Kingdom, provided that, before it should be applied to any British possession named in the Schedule to the said Act, the Government of such possession should have adhered to the Convention;

And whereas the Government of India, one of the possessions named in the Schedule to the said Act, has adhered to the said Convention, and it is expedient that the said Act should, for the purposes of the said Convention, apply to India, subject to the exceptions and modifications in this Order contained:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by 'The Mail Ships Act, 1891,' or otherwise in Her Majesty vested, is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. 'The Mail Ships Act, 1891,' shall, for the purpose of the said Convention, apply to India, subject to the provisions of section 8 of the said Act, and also to the exceptions and modifications following, that is to say—

- (1) The expression 'Officer of Customs' means an officer of Customs authorized under 'The Sea Customs Act, 1878,' or other Law for the time being regulating sea customs in India.
- (2) The provisions of the said Act as to the amount of fines shall be read as if the amounts were stated in rupees at the rate of 10 rupees to the pound sterling.
- (3) In lieu of sub-sections 1 and 2 of section 7 of the said Act, the following provisions shall be substituted, that is to say—

Every fine under the said Act, if exceeding 500 rupees, may be recovered by suit in the principal Civil Court having original jurisdiction in the place in which the person liable to the fine may be found.

A fine under the said Act not exceeding 500 rupees may be recovered by criminal proceedings before a Presidency Magistrate, or Magistrate of the First Class, having jurisdiction in the place in which the person liable to the fine may be found: provided that (a) every offence for which a fine exceeding 500 rupees can be imposed under the said Act may be prosecuted before such Magistrate, but the fine imposed on such conviction shall not exceed 500 rupees; and (b) in every case of conviction and fine by a Magistrate there shall be an appeal to the same Court as in other cases of fine of such amount as, under the Law for the time being in force in India, to give a right of appeal.

Every Court, whether of original or appellate jurisdiction, may reduce the amount of any fine.

- (4) The Regulations required to be made under sub-section 4 of section 7 of the said Act by the Commissioners of Customs with the consent of the Treasury shall in India be made by the Governor General in Council.
- (5) Section 5 of the said Act, so far as relates to the Commissioners of Customs, shall not apply to India.

2. The said Act shall apply as regards any public ship of the French Republic when employed as a mail ship in the cases authorized by Article V of the said Convention.

3. This Order may be cited as 'The Mail Ships (France) Order in Council (India), 1893.'

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Rosebery, K.G., and the Right Honourable the Earl of Kimberley, K.G., two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. L. Peel.

No. 4397A.—In exercise of the power conferred by Section 16 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules for the guidance of the Benches of Special Magistrates "A" and "B" established by Government Notification No. 5711, dated the 15th October 1892, for the area comprised within the limits of the taluka of Hyderabad :—

Classes of cases to be tried. (1) Except in respect of offences under—

(a) Chapter VI, Indian Penal Code (against the State);

(b) Chapter VII, Indian Penal Code (concerning the Army and Navy);

(c) Chapter VIII, Indian Penal Code (against Public Tranquillity);

(d) Chapter IX, Indian Penal Code (by or relating to Public Servants);

(e) Chapter XV, Indian Penal Code (relating to Religion);

(f) Chapter XXI, Indian Penal Code (Defamation); and

(g) Chapter XXII, Indian Penal Code (Criminal Intimidation, Insult and Annoyance); and in respect of the offences designated in column 8 of Schedule II of the Criminal Procedure Code, 1882, as triable exclusively by the Court of Sessions, any such quorum of either of the said Benches as shall be constituted as hereinafter provided, may exercise the ordinary powers of a Magistrate of the Second Class.

(2) Each Bench shall hold its sittings not less than twice in each week, on such days, and at such hours and places, as may be from time to time appointed for this purpose by the Magistrate of the district.

(3) In order to form a quorum at least two members shall be present from the beginning to the end of a trial or enquiry as members of the Bench. If this cannot be done, a fresh trial must be held before a different set of Magistrates.

(4) Any Stipendiary Magistrate who is a member of the Bench, and is present during any part of any proceedings, may take part therein as a member: Provided that no member of a Bench shall preside or give such vote as is referred to in Rule 9 in any case, who has been absent during any part of the proceedings therein.

(5) Except as provided in Rule 4, the Stipendiary Magistrate of highest official rank present, if he be a First Class Magistrate, and if his official rank is not inferior to that of a Deputy Collector, shall preside. If there be no such Stipendiary Magistrate present, the Honorary Magistrate, whose name stands highest of those present in a list of the Honorary Magistrates prepared from time to time by the District Magistrate subject to the orders of Government for this purpose, shall be President.

(6) The claim of a member to preside at the trial of, or enquiry into, any case shall pass to the person next entitled thereto if the former shall state that he has reason to doubt whether he will be able to be present throughout the proceedings therein.

(7) If any President be unable to be present, or fail to be present, Substitution of President. throughout the proceedings, such one among the members who have been present throughout such proceedings as is next entitled to preside, shall take the place of the President.

(8) The votes of all members present at the time being shall be taken to decide—Votes as to question other than final decision.

(i) Whether any particular evidence should be admitted or recorded.

(ii) Whether an adjournment shall be allowed; and

(iii) Any other question or order not finally decisive of the case.

(9) Except as provided in Rule 4, the votes of the President and of every member shall be taken to decide—Votes as to final decision.

(a) Whether an accused person shall be convicted, acquitted or discharged, and (b) the sentence to be passed in case of conviction.

(10) All questions shall be decided by a majority of the votes taken, the President having a second or casting vote in all cases of equality of votes.
Questions to be decided by a majority of votes.

(11) (a) When a person is accused in the alternative of two or more offences not equally punishable, and a difference of opinion arises between the Magistrates in Session, as to which of such offences the accused person is guilty of, the Presiding Magistrate shall put to the vote, first the question whether the accused is guilty of the offence for which the law provides the highest punishment, and, if the votes decide such question against the accused, the question of his guilt on the minor charge or charges shall be excluded.

(b) If a difference of opinion arise between the Magistrates on any other point, the questions raised shall be put to the vote by the Presiding Magistrate in such order as he may deem most conducive to the furtherance of justice.

Bombay Castle, 19th July 1893.
