* Republished at pages 823 to 824 of Part I of the Bombay Government Gazette dated 24th August 1893.

To be substituted for rule 8:

‘The market rate applicable to the quarters April to June and July to September 1893 has been fixed in Resolution No. 3624-A dated 18th August 1893. For subsequent quarters the market rate applicable to any quarter will be approximately the average of the Calcutta demand rate during the quarter ending on the 15th day of the last month of the preceding quarter, and will be calculated and notified by the Comptroller General, if possible, on such 15th day. The rate will be fixed at the nearest 32 of a penny.’

ORDER.—Ordered, that the Resolution be communicated to the several Departments of the Government of India; to all Local Governments and Administrations; to all Heads of Departments subordinate to the Finance Department; to the Comptroller and Auditor General; and to all Accountants General and Comptrollers.

Ordered also, that the Resolution be published in the Gazette of India.

RESOLUTION.

Read the following—

General notice regarding the Antwerp International Exhibition of 1894.

ANTWERP INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION OF 1894 UNDER THE HIGH PATRONAGE OF HIS MAJESTY THE KING OF THE BELGIANS.

HONORARY PRESIDENT—HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE COUNT OF FLANDERS.

FOREIGN SECTIONS.

GENERAL NOTICE.

(Taken from the general Rules.)

The Antwerp International Exhibition will include all Industrial, Scientific and Artistic Productions, as well as all Commercial Produce. It will comprise Maritime, Colonial and African Sections; also an Exhibition of Military Art.

Simultaneously with the General Exhibition, the Antwerp Royal Society of Fine Arts will hold a special exhibition of Painting, Sculpture, Engraving and Architecture, to which Artists of all countries are invited to contribute.

It is also intended to hold a series of shows and exhibits of Live Stock, Agricultural Products, Flowers, Fruit, etc.

The Exhibition will be inaugurated May 5th, 1894, and will remain open for six full months, closing at latest on November 12th, 1894.

It will be located in the new quarter of the city, in close vicinity of the Scheldt and the new maritime installations and will be connected with the principal Railways.

It will cover, in one enclosure an area of about 200 acres, including (1) a Palace of Fine Arts; (2) Several Halls, covering about 120,000 square yards of ground, and intended for exhibiting Industrial and Commercial products, Machinery, Electric appliances, etc. These halls will be built of iron and steel and will be roofed with zinc.

A Board of Directors conduct the business of the Antwerp International Exhibition Company and decide all matters of Administration and Finance.

An Executive Committee under the honorary Presidency of Baron Osy van Zegwaart, Governor of the Province of Antwerp and M. Jan Van Ryswyck, Burgomaster of the city, and under the effective Presidency of Count de Pret Roose de Calesberg, Member of the Senate, has charge of the organisation and management of all Exhibits in the different departments.

By Decrees, dated 11th March 1893, Royal Commissions of the Belgian and Foreign Sections have been instituted, under the honorary Presidency of His Royal Highness the Count of Flanders. Also a Commissariat General of the Government, and General Commissions of the Belgian and Foreign Sections.

The Belgian Commission is presided over by M. Leon De Bruyn, Minister of Agriculture, Industry and Public Works.

The Foreign Commission under the Presidency of M. Valère Mabilie has for its object to encourage and facilitate the co-operation of Foreign Exhibitors.

The Commissariat General of the Government, whose head-quarters are at the Palais des Académies in Brussels, is conducted by Count Hyppolyte d'Ursel, who represents the Government at the Antwerp International Exhibition and is the official Referee between the Executive Committee of the Company and the Commissaries of the Belgian and Foreign Sections, also between the latter and the Foreign Commissaries delegated with the Exhibition, in all matters where the interests of Foreign Exhibitors are concerned.

The Commissary General of Foreign Sections, M. Vercruijsen-Brack, Member of the Senate, co-operates with the Commissary General of the Government in all negotiations with Foreign Countries, especially as regards the appointment of the Commissaries of the Foreign Sections.

The Foreign Governments have been officially advised of the formation of this International Exhibition; they have been invited to appoint their official Commissaries to represent them.

Committees for furthering the objects of the Exhibition may be formed in the principal cities or towns of the world under approval of the Belgian Government, and with the co-operation of its Diplomatic and Consular Agents abroad.

Where no official Commissary has been appointed, foreign Exhibitors may be represented by a private Committee or its delegate.

All products will be divided into classes, as per summary hereafter given, and will be exhibited in accordance with this classification in all the separate sections.

In the halls for Machinery and Electricity the products of each country will be exhibited together as far as the distribution of motive power will allow.

The charge for space in the different compartments including general decoration of the halls, and the reception of goods, has been established according to position as follows:—

I.—HALLS OF INDUSTRY.

Per square metre, ground surface	...	...	fr. 25
The charge for space in this department will in no case be less than	...	„	25

For space allotted under sheds or tents, the above charges will be increased by fr. 5, per metre.

For large spaces taken in the halls of gardens by the different countries, special terms will be arranged through the intervention of the Commissary General of the Belgian Government.

Foreign Goods, arriving by the Belgian State Railways, will be returned carriage free over the same lines. Negotiations have been opened with the private Companies and the Foreign Lines in connection with the Belgian State Railways, to obtain the same terms from them.

Most of the regular Lines of Steamers will take goods for the Antwerp Exhibition at reduced rates of freight.

The Antwerp International Exhibition Company undertakes the handling of Goods within the Exhibition, free of charge, on all packages received not later than April 15th, 1894, and not exceeding 1,500 kilos in weight. This includes the delivery of the packages on the space allotted, and the eventual re-loading on the Railway trucks, within the limits of the Exhibition.

Empty packages will be stored at a low rate, and brought back for repacking at the close of the Exhibition.

The Executive Committee will arrange special terms for handling Goods and storing Empties with all Countries officially represented.

The general decoration of the Exhibition halls will be carried out at the expense of the Company, all private and special decorations will be at the expense of Exhibition singly or collectively.

Strict watch and guard will be established to prevent goods being stolen, strayed or damaged, without however any responsibility being incurred by the Company in this respect.

All Exhibitors will be free to appoint at their own expense and under their own responsibility any number of private Inspectors from a List approved by the Company.

The Exhibitors, whether singly or collectively, are responsible for the whole charge for rent; for the supply, fixing, and decoration of all and any special appliances they may require, such as partitions, screens, extra ceilings, stands, raised flooring, extra foundations for heavy exhibits. Also for the packing, laying out and repacking of their goods, rent for storage of Empties, etc.

Exhibitors requiring steam, water, gas or electricity must declare, in their application for space, the hourly quantity they require. It will be supplied as per tariff.

When motive power is required the intended rate of speed must also be indicated.

In the Halls of Machinery, motive power will be obtainable per special tariff, and will be supplied from the main shaft for general transmission.

Intermediate transmission will be at the expense of Exhibitors; the foundations and all special appliances will also be at their cost.

A copy of the particular rules and regulations further relating to this department will be sent on application.

Articles of every day sale, also those manufactured on the spot, may be sold and delivered to visitors, on payment of a percentage to be fixed by agreement; but such sales may not take place in the Halls without a special and written consent of the Executive Committee. A special convention will regulate the sale of refreshments in the gardens and grounds of the Exhibition.

An International Jury of Awards will be formed, the members of which will be appointed by their respective Governments; this Jury will be organised and presided over by the Commissary General of the Belgian Government, who will also propose for appointment by the Belgian Government members of the Jury from among the delegates of countries not officially represented.

The Jury will officiate as soon as possible. The Awards will consist of Medals or Diplomas of First Class; Diplomas of Gold, Silver and Bronze Medals, and of honourable Mention.

All foreign goods will be admitted to the Exhibition in bond, paying no duty of any kind if re-exported.

All inventions, patents, drawings, models, trade marks, etc., exhibited will be placed under the immediate protection of the Belgian Government, and all rights of property in them will be effectually secured.

The Executive Committee will issue an official and complete catalogue methodically arranged and containing the name and address of each exhibitor with particulars as to trade, place of production, etc.

Foreign sections will have the right of issuing at their own expense their special catalogues and of selling them within their respective limits.

The issue of tickets for the lottery authorised by the Belgian Government may extend over several series of one million tickets each; the prizes to be purchased exclusively from Exhibitors. The issue of the first series of tickets will be authorised before the opening of the Exhibition.

Printed forms of application for space are supplied by the Executive Committee or by the Commissariats of Countries officially represented. These forms must be signed, and addressed prepaid to the official Commissariat of the Country to which the intending Exhibitor belongs, or to the Executive Committee of the Exhibition, No. 9 rue Gérard, Antwerp, not later than October 1st, 1893, for all countries not officially represented.

All goods exhibited at the World's Fair, Chicago, which may be destined for the Antwerp Exhibition, will on arrival be stored free of charge in the halls, and as near as possible to their definite places.
