3. The year 1891-92 was on the whole favourable to Provincial revenues. As compared with 1890-91, there was a net increase of revenue of Rs. 24,00,180, and the Provincial Government was able to spend Rs. 16,93,195 more than in the previous year. It was necessary to draw on the accumulated balances only to the extent of Rs. 5,31,888, as against Rs. 12,38,873 in 1890-91. There are, however, two large items which must be taken into account in comparing the results of the two years. In 1890-91, a special contribution of Rs. 17,50,000 was made by the Provincial Government in aid of Imperial revenues; the Provincial share of the revenue was, therefore, correspondingly decreased. This item, therefore, forms the chief part of the apparent increase of 24 lakhs. In 1891-92 the construction of the Hyderabad-Umarkot Railway was commenced as a Provincial undertaking and Rs. 11,72,211 were spent on it. If it had not been for this special expenditure, the year would have closed with a surplus instead of a deficit. The year 1891-92 began with a balance of Rs. 46,01,994, and closed with Rs. 40,70,106 to the credit of the Provincial Government. The closing balance was thus Rs. 20,70,106 in excess of the minimum fixed by the Government of India.

4. In considering the details of the variations in revenue, the item which calls for special attention is the large increase of Rs. 21,78,729 in Land Revenue. The Provincial interest in Land revenue is one-fourth of what is known as the divisible revenue, i.e., revenue which does not include mere book adjustments of the assessment of alienated lands. This divisible revenue shows a small reduction when compared with that of the previous year. The nominal increase is due (1) to the absence of the special contribution of Rs. 17,50,000 to Imperial revenues referred to above, (2) to a loan given to the Provincial Government by increasing the Land revenue share in connection with the supply of rails to the Hyderabad-Umarkot Railway, (3) to smaller deductions from the Provincial share, on account of amounts due to Imperial for receipts under the Succession Certificates Act, (4) to larger adjustments of assessment of alienated lands. The improvement of Rs. 11,131 in Salt revenue is accounted for by larger recoveries of shilohri establishment charges in the Presidency proper, and of storage charges in Sind. The Stamps, Excise, Assessed Taxes and Registration revenues were the highest on record, and as the Provincial interest in them is a fixed proportion, the Provincial Government benefited from the increase. The prevalence of scarcity, which necessitated increased borrowing on substantial security and an increase in litigation, caused the enhancement in the Stamp revenue, which like land revenue is a progressive item of Provincial income. The additional Excise revenue came chiefly from the tax on trees tapped for raw toddy and distillation in consequence of an enhancement of the tax in some districts and an increase in the number of trees tapped and from country spirits, owing to larger consumption and an increase in the still-head duty in some of the districts. The Income-tax receipts are yearly increasing: the addition to the revenue came mainly from the tax "on other sources of income" in Bombay and Karachi, indicating a more careful application of the Act, and increases in the assessable incomes. The prevalence of scarcity is responsible for the increase in Registration; the good result is to some extent also due to the better appreciation of the advantages of registration. The Customs and Forest revenues, however, fell off during the year. The former resulted from fewer transshipments of kerosine oil, spirits and wines and from a better understanding of the Merchandise Marks Act, in consequence of which a smaller amount was recovered on account of confiscations and penalties. The prevalence of scarcity chiefly in the Southern Circle adversely affected the receipts from Forests. In Sind there was a larger demand for timber and firewood, and in the Northern Circle additional revenue came in from the introduction of new grazing rules and the strict application of the fee system; the myrabolam crops also gave better results; but the improvement in these two circles and from myrabolam was not enough to cover the loss in the Southern Circle, where not only was a smaller quantity of timber and firewood required, but the prices also declined. The increase in Interest is chiefly on account of loans to municipal and other public corporations. The interest receipts have a tendency to increase under the present arrangements, which allow of larger loans and advances on Provincial account. It must, however, be remembered that the loans are made on the responsibility of the Provincial Government, and that it has to pay Imperial interest on the sums withdrawn from the treasury for this purpose. The net gain to Provincial Revenues was less in 1891-92 than in 1890-91. The decrease of Rs. 1,000 under Post Office, is due to an account change, by which the recovery of the Portuguese Indian Government share of the subsidy for the conveyance of mails to the Konkan Coast is now credited in the Imperial Post Office Accounts. In Law and Justice—Courts of Law there were larger receipts from "Magisterial fines," "Court fees realised in cash" and "Miscellaneous items." The variation in Jails is very small; the sales of Jail manufactures were better than in the previous year at Bombay, Yerrowda and Karachi, but the receipts from the hire of convicts fell considerably. The net increase in the receipts from Police is Rs. 3,605; the receipts from (1) police supplied to public departments, private companies and persons, (2) Presidency Police, (3) fees, fines and forfeitures were more than in the previous year by Rs. 10,060, Rs. 6,125 and Rs. 3,616 respectively; but the miscellaneous receipts were less in consequence of the stoppage of the Palanpur Superintendency General Fund contribution towards the cost of the Agency police and smaller adjustments for value of ordnance stores returned to the Military Department. The fees realised at all the Shipping Offices showed an increase during the year, chiefly at Bombay and Aden, the number of seamen shipped and discharged being larger. This explains the increase in the Marine receipts. An additional revenue of Rs. 10,313 came from the Educational Department, the attendance at the Arts Colleges and Secondary Schools improved and a larger amount was realised from the sale of books. The differences under Medical, Stationery and Printing and Civil Works (Civil), are small and do not call for any special remarks. The decrease in Scientific and other minor departments was mainly caused by the reduction in the area of the Bhadgaon Farm. In 1890-91 special adjustments were made on account of the contributions of old Local Board employes. The receipts in aid of Superannuation and retired and compassionate allowances in 1891-92 appear therefore to be less than in 1890-91. The Miscellaneous receipts of 1891-92 were normal; while in the previous year special receipts came in on account of exceptional writes-off of Administrator

General's deposits, sales of old coins and the proceeds of the nazars received at the Rájkot Darbár. The Local Board contributions to Provincial Revenues depend on the circumstances of each year, the large increase shown above is on account of the contributions of the Hyderabad and Thar and Párkár Local Boards towards the construction of the Hyderabad-Umarkot Railway. The Irrigation works produced more but the Civil Works in charge of the Public Works Department less than in the previous year. The increase in Telegraph is an evidence of the increasing use of the lines constructed on the guarantee of the Bombay Government.

5. The expenditure side of the accounts shows some large variations, the most important being the increases in Police, Miscellaneous Contributions to Local Funds, Construction of Railways and Irrigation Minor Works and Navigation. There is a decrease of Rs. 2,261 in the Provincial share of Refunds and Drawbacks; decreases are observed in all the classes of refunds except "Stamps" and "Registration". The whole of the excess under Assignments and Compensations is due to adjustments of assessment of alienated lands for which corresponding credits are taken in the accounts, the cash payments were less, but this was merely because some of the excise compensations due were not claimed within the year. The net excess in Land Revenue is only Rs. 2,093. The survey and settlement expenditure is being gradually reduced and arrear recoveries from other parties on account of the expenditure of the department further reduced the net expenditure chargeable to Government. But the charges for district administration and allowances to district and village officers are increasing items. Consequently with the reduction of the Survey Department the expenditure on the new staff for Land Records and Agriculture is increasing, and the revisions of settlements, while bringing in additional revenue, also increase the charge for collection, as additional allowances have to be granted for village officers. Additional expenditure was also incurred in the year on account of the construction of tappedárs derás in Sind. The Stamp Department show an excess of Rs. 6,337; a portion of this was due to the deputation of the Assistant Superintendent and the conveyance of a prisoner to Europe in connection with a case of robbery of stamps and a part to larger sales of stamps. The small excess in Excise was on account of additional establishments for new distilleries in Kánara and Ratnágiri and the saving in Assessed Taxes was due to smaller payments to village officers for the collection of the Income-tax. The reduction in the demand and fall in prices of timber and firewood led to the decrease in Forests. The Registration expenditure follows the revenue as commission to Sub-Registrars has to be paid on additional revenue collected. The charges for interest on ordinary debt increased during the year by Rs. 27,816, larger agricultural advances and loans to municipalities necessitating additional payments to the Imperial Government for monies lent on Provincial responsibility. The Post Office expenditure was less by Rs. 1,701, the decrease being due to the account change mentioned above in connection with the receipts and to smaller payments for District Postal Establishments. The excess of Rs. 44,115 under General Administration is made up of several items. Rs. 20,000 were paid for a metre-gauge carriage for His Excellency the Governor, the tours of His Excellency the Governor cost Rs. 8,084 more than last year, and the Civil Secretariats required an additional sum of Rs. 13,134; there was also special charge of Rs. 8,603 for the purchase of tents for the Commissioner in Sind. The large saving of Rs. 20,664 in Law and Justice—Courts of Law, arose from smaller payments on account of the salaries of District Judges, and District and Cantonment Magistrates in consequence of absences on long leave and numerous changes in personnel. The Jail Department shows an extra charge of Rs. 10,406; Jail manufactures which, as stated above, brought additional revenue, also caused additional expenditure; the maintenance of prisoners did not cost so much as in the previous year, but a special charge of Rs. 14,366 was incurred for the erection of huts for the Deccan convict gang. Larger expenditure for clothing and arms of the District Police, for petty construction, for revision of the agency police and for boats, stores and repairs of the Bombay Harbour police, are the chief reasons of the excess under Police. The greater expenditure under Marine resulted from the Commissioner having used the savings in the contract grant for the steamer "Jhelum" and flat "Multan" in 1891-92 to meet expenditure on Marine stores. Rs. 5,000 out of the saving of Rs. 15,013 in the Educational Department is accounted for by the reduction of the grant to the University, otherwise Provincial expenditure on Education was larger; Professional Colleges, and Government Schools, General and Special, and scholarships required larger sums of money. The nominal saving arose from the fact that grants to Local Boards for school buildings were debited under Contributions and not under Education. The Medical Department shows an additional charge of Rs. 42,990. The Provincial Government had to spend more on "Medical Establishment," "Hospitals and Dispensaries," "Sanitation and Vaccination" and "Medical Schools and Colleges." In the first case the salaries of District Medical officers posted for Civil duty were higher than the previous year, and the reserve medical subordinates, whose number is being gradually brought up to the sanctioned strength, absorbed a larger amount. The larger expenditure for hospitals and dispensaries was chiefly for the Jamsetji Jijibhoy and Bomanji Edalji Allbless Hospitals at Bombay and for supplies and services to the mofussil hospitals. An expenditure of Rs. 10,401 or Rs. 6,973 more than last year was incurred for apparatus for the Grant Medical College, chiefly in connection with the Framji Dinshaw Petit Laboratory. In 1890-91 the expenditure on Political Darbárs was heavy; and the purchase of tents for the Káthiáwár agency also added to the expenditure of that year, but these heavy items did not recur in 1891-92. The Provincial share of the cost of the Census operations, viz., Rs. 17,000, was adjusted in 1891-92; this and the expenditure on the Gazetteer of the town and island of Bombay gave rise to the excess in scientific and other minor departments. The Superannuation charges are increasing year by year. In the Stationery and Printing Departments there is a small saving of Rs. 1,170; the cost of stationery supplied to the different offices from the Central Stores was higher than the previous year, but the appointment of a new Superintendent to the Government Central Press on the minimum of a reduced pay led to a saving. The Miscellaneous expenditure was in excess of the previous year by Rs. 1,95,138; this is due (1) to the payment during the year of Rs. 2,17,690 to the Bombay Municipality on account of the consolidated rate on the assessable value of Government buildings with arrears from 1889, while in the previous year only Rs. 50,000 were paid on that account, and (2) to the appointment of a special commission to inquire into the working of the Deccan Agriculturists' Relief Act. The only amount shown as Famine Relief expenditure in the accounts of 1891-92 is Rs. 2,158, on account of infructuous labour on certain public works. The expenditure, direct and indirect, due to the prevalence of scarcity was more than the above sum, but under account rules all the rest was charged to other heads of account, e.g., a sum of Rs. 11,564 under Civil Works (Civil) for works undertaken at the cost of Provincial Revenues for the improvement of water-supply. The Provincial Contributions to Local Funds were in excess of the previous year by Rs. 2,21,922, the grants for village sanitation were nearly a lakh in excess of the previous year, and the grants for school buildings about half a lakh more. Large grants were also made for local roads and bridges in the Kaira, Poona, Nasik, Surat and Bijapur Districts. No Miscellaneous Railway Expenditure was incurred in the year, but Rs. 11,72,211 were spent on the Construction of the Hyderabad-Umarkot Railway, which, as stated above, was undertaken wholly on Provincial responsibility, though a small contribution was received from the Hyderabad and Thar and Parkar Local Boards and a temporary loan from the Imperial Government. Excluding this, the expenditure incurred by the Public Works Department on Irrigation Works and Civil Works was less than in 1890-91.

6. The year 1891-92 was the last of the fourth Provincial contract, which commenced in 1887-88. The Provincial Government had a balance of Rs. 54,89,780 at the commencement of the contract period, and a balance of Rs. 40,70,108 at its close, or Rs. 20,70,108 in excess of the minimum. Considering that the contract was fixed at a time of financial pressure, that the Government of India allowed only for so much of the revenue as was anticipated to be necessary to meet the Provincial expenditure without any margin, that it withdrew Rs. 17,50,000, that the Public Works expenditure was much in excess of the contract assignment, the result is very satisfactory. The estimate of the annual Provincial Revenue and Expenditure was taken at Rs. 3,57,72,000 for the purposes of the contract. Whereas the total actual revenue of the year was Rs. 4,07,48,201 and the expenditure Rs. 4,12,80,089, showing that the Provincial Government was able to increase its expenditure largely and still leave a balance much in excess of the minimum, owing to the elasticity of the revenues placed at its disposal.

7. The Revised Estimates of 1892-93 show the following variations when compared with the sanctioned Budget Estimate of the year :—

8. It was expected that the year would open with a balance of Rs. 38,82,000 to the credit of Provincial Revenues: the actual balance was in round figures Rs. 40,70,000 or Rs. 1,88,000 better than the Budget Estimate. The closing balance of the year is estimated at Rs. 31,03,000 or Rs. 10,88,000 better than the sanctioned Budget. This good result is due both to increases in revenue and decreases in expenditure. From the figures stated above it will be observed that an improvement of Rs. 4,84,000 is expected in revenue and a decrease of Rs. 4,16,000 in expenditure. The Budget Estimates provided for a deficit of Rs. 18,67,000 on the year's working: the present anticipations reduce the deficit to Rs. 9,67,000 or a better result by Rs. 9,00,000.

9. Out of the total net increase of Rs. 4,84,000 in revenue, Rs. 2,16,000 are expected to come from Land Revenue; this is not wholly a real addition to the income of the Provincial Government; Rs. 44,000 are for services payable from Imperial Revenues, but which for the sake of convenience are treated as Provincial, and Rs. 59,000 are for additional adjustments of assessments of alienated lands, for which corresponding debits appear on the expenditure side. The remainder is on account of revenue postponed from last year in some districts, the revision of settlements, and the extension of cultivation. If the inundation of the river Indus had not been very unfavourable for the current year's revenue, the increase would have been greater still. The increase in Salt receipts is from larger recoveries of establishment charges. After Land Revenue, the Stamp revenue shows the largest increase: two special items of composition duty and a large receipt (Rs. 1,26,000) on account of probate duty on the estate of a Bombay millionaire are the chief causes of the good results. The growth of the Excise revenue has been arrested by the recent changes introduced in that department. The revenue derived from opium will be smaller; additional restrictions have been placed on its sale and the market value of the drug has gone up; while the minimum guarantees of A'lkari contracts have, in the majority of cases, been fixed lower than before, and in one case a contractor has been allowed to remove liquor free of duty on account of losses sustained in previous years. But for the rise in the Excise revenue of Sind the estimates would have been still worse. The "Miscellaneous" Customs receipts are decreasing, but the Income-tax improves year by year. The Forest revenue has been adversely affected by the prevalence of scarcity, which as hreduced the demand for and prices of timber and firewood, and it is only the rise of the grazing revenue of the Northern and Central Circles and the additional sales of timber and firewood in Sind which have prevented a larger loss of revenue. The Registration revenue is a growing item of income which is shared equally with the Imperial Government: the extraordinary increase in the current year is ascribed to the prevalence of scarcity. The receipts from Interest on advances to cultivators are expected to exceed the estimate, as a large sum has been given out in loans, and arrears of former years have to be collected. The Karachi Municipality was not however allowed a loan which it asked for and the net increase is expected to be Rs. 2,000 only. The decrease under Post Office is due to the account change already referred to. The Law and Justice—Courts of Law receipts have been affected by an increase in magisterial fines and a decrease in the proceeds of unclaimed and escheated property, which are always uncertain. The employment of some prisoners extramurally is expected to reduce the receipts from Jail manufactures. The large increase in Police receipts arises from three items: (1) recoveries on account of excise and other private police in excess of the original estimate, (2) recoveries of arrears of harbour police charges from the Bombay Port Trust, and (3) adjustments of the value of ordnance stores returned to the Military Department. The Marine receipts are increasing with the better realizations at the Shipping Offices. An improvement in school-fees is likely to cause an excess in the Education receipts over the budget estimate. The hospital receipts have up to date been much better than in previous years; the receipts under Medical will therefore exceed the budget. The transfer of the Empress Botanical Gardens to the Agri-Horticultural Society of Western India will reduce the receipts from Scientific and other minor departments. Under the operation of the new rules the contributions to pensions and gratuities of officers lent to foreign service are declining; the revised estimate therefore provides for a reduction of the Receipts in aid of superannuation and retired allowances. The adjustments for work done for the Census Department will make the Stationery and Printing receipts exceed the budget. Under Miscellaneous the adjustments of unclaimed deposits will be larger than the original estimate, as the usual receipts will be enhanced by a special adjustment of Small Cause Court deposits of back years; the proceeds of the sale of certain sites in Bombay will bring in additional revenue; an unexpected sum of Rs. 2,900 has also been obtained from the sale of Government promissory notes, in which some of the deposits of the Bombay Court of Small Causes were invested. The increase of Rs. 3,000 in Contributions from Local to Provincial is from cattle-pound receipts not provided for in the original budget estimate and other petty items. No revenue is expected under Telegraph: the receipts from lines constructed under Provincial guarantees will not under recent orders be credited gross as heretofore, but will go towards meeting the expenditure on maintenance. A decrease of Rs. 51,000 is shown against State Railways gross earnings; [the Hyderabad-Umarkot Railway was not opened on the date anticipated. The revenue realised in the Public Works Department from Irrigation and Civil Works has been better than the Budget.

10. The revised estimates provide for a net saving of Rs. 4,16,000 on the sanctioned grant of the year for Provincial expenditure, in spite of large additional expenditure which was not contemplated when the budget estimate was framed. An excess of Rs. 6,000 is anticipated in Refunds and Drawbacks in consequence of a special refund of income-tax recovered from the employés of the G. I. P. Railway Company residing in the Berárs and the Nizám's dominions. The increase of Rs. 59,000 in Assignments and Compensations is partly in cash payments and partly in adjustments of the assessment of alienated lands; the latter are covered by corresponding adjustments on the receipt side and the former are due to the payments of arrears. A portion of the large saving in Land Revenue is nominal, being caused by the transfer of the cost of local purchases of stationery to 30—Stationery and Printing. The delay in the introduction of the agricultural staff in the Central and Southern Divisions and the postponement of the revision of the Sind Collectorate establishments give rise to a large saving. The savings will further be enhanced by (1) smaller payments to district and village officers, and (2) by the transfer of a portion of the grant to the Public Works Department. On the other hand the survey expenditure is expected to exceed the budget grant in consequence of the delay in giving effect to the proposed reductions. Two new items have to be provided for:—(1) Pálanpur, Idar and Gadhvada Survey, Rs. 11,000; (2) Resurvey of the River Indus, Rs. 17,000; the cost of the former will eventually be recovered from the States, and that of the latter will be made good to Provincial Revenues by an addition to the Provincial share of Land Revenue. The increase on Stamp expenditure is due to a further fall in exchange and to increased sales. The grants for Excise establishments are not being fully utilized. The increase in Assessed Taxes is for petty items. The revised estimates of the Forest Department provide for a reduction in the charges for conservancy and works, and a saving in gazetted officers' salaries. The Registration expenditure will probably exceed the budget estimate as additional allowances on increased revenue have to be paid to sub-registrars. The encouragement to agricultural loans is increasing the claim of the Imperial Government for Interest on Provincial advance and loan account. The reduction in the Post Office expenditure is due to the transfer of a part of the subsidy for the conveyance of mails to the Konkan Coast to the Imperial Post Office which recovers the Portuguese Indian Government share. The net variation in General Administration is only Rs. 1,000; if it had not been for savings in the Military and Civil Secretariats, the original estimate would have been exceeded by the Revised in consequence of payments to officers of other provinces. The revised estimates of Law and Justice—Courts of Law show a large saving, the charges under almost every minor head being less in consequence of changes in the personnel of High Court Judges and Officers, Law Officers, Judges and Magistrates; there is also a transfer of charges for local purchases of stationery to Stationery and Printing. Part of the saving in Jails is in salaries and establishment charges and part in Jail manufactures. The largest saving is in the estimates of the Police Department, for which special provision was made to meet the cost of the revision of the Presidency and District police; the revision not having taken effect the grants have been reappropriated for other purposes or will be saved. A portion of the saving is also due to the transfer of stationery charges to another major head. Out of Rs. 1,43,000 shown as savings under Education a part only is real; a large amount has been transferred to Local Funds, for grants to schools and school buildings, and as such appears under "Contributions": a part has been transferred to the Public Works Department. In the grants for Municipal schools, Professional Colleges and scholarships there are real savings; the first was an over-estimate, the second included a provision for the improvement of the Law School which has not yet been availed of, and the third is not required in full. The Medical Estimates show savings in Hospitals and Dispensaries, Sanitation and Vaccination, Lunatic Asylums, Medical College and Chemical Examiner. The saving in Political arises from the fact that the grant has not been needed in full; the Darbár presents will cost less and the miscellaneous charges and payments to officers of other provinces will not absorb the provision made for them. The saving in Scientific and minor departments arises chiefly from (1) the transfer of the Empress Botanical Gardens to the Agri-Horticultural Society of Western India, (2) the stoppage of further work on the Bombay Gazetteer, (3) savings in the grants for Inspector of Factories, experimental cultivation and veterinary dispensaries, (4) the transfer of the salaries of certain veterinary officers to Imperial. The additional provision for Superannuation allowances and pensions is for additions to the pension list and arrear payments. The increase in Stationery and Printing is due to the transfer of charges for local purchases of stationery from other major heads. The provision made in the original budget estimate for charges in connection with the Deccan Agriculturists' Relief Act Commission proved insufficient, but this was partly covered by a saving in the grant for the destruction of wild animals; otherwise the excess under Miscellaneous would have been larger. The Famine Relief grant provided both for the direct and indirect charges due to the prevalence of scarcity; but the latter have been taken to other heads and the former are small. The excesses under Civil Works (Civil) and Contributions represent respectively additional grants for the improvement of water-supply and for local schools and school buildings. Provision for the net loss on the telegraph lines constructed under Provincial guarantees has been made under "Miscellaneous." The construction of the Hyderabad-Unarnkot Railway will require an additional sum of Rs. 2,03,000, but the Working expenses will be less by Rs. 22,000. A saving of Rs. 81,000 is anticipated under Irrigation, it being necessary to postpone payments of compensation for lands taken up for the Gokák works. Additional grants amounting to Rs. 2,54,000 have been sanctioned for Civil Works in charge of Public Works officers.

11. The present year is the first of the fifth Provincial contract. For the purpose of this contract the expenditure and revenue of the Bombay Government were each estimated at Rs. 3,89,53,000, a sum of Rs. 13,11,000, which under the old contract would have been Provincial, having been resumed by the Imperial Government in the revision. The following are the important changes in the new contract:—

- (1). Inter-provincial adjustments have been stopped.
- (2). Railway police have been wholly provincialised.
- (3). The charges of the Inspector General of Registration and Stamps and Inspectors of Registration Offices which were divided have been made wholly Provincial.
- (4). The Provincial establishment of the Accountant General's office have become Imperial.
- (5). The payments in England on account of stamps are converted at the official rate of exchange.
- (6). Extraordinary items not in excess of Rs. 10,000 are made Provincial.

12. The result of the first year's working will be satisfactory as far as revenue is concerned. The revenue of the year 1892-93 is estimated at Rs. 3,97,08,000 (or Rs. 7,55,000 more than the contract estimate), but the expenditure will be about Rs. 4,06,75,000 (or Rs. 17,22,000 more than the contract figure). The budget estimates provided for using Rs. 18,67,000 from the accumulated balances of previous years, so that the financial position shows an improvement.

Candidates are at liberty to name any or all of these branches of knowledge (f). No subjects are obligatory.

5. The merit of the persons examined will be estimated by marks; and the number set opposite to each branch in the preceding regulation denotes the greatest number of marks that can be obtained in respect of it.

6. The marks assigned to Candidates in each branch will be subject to such deduction as the Civil Service Commissioners may deem necessary (g) in order to secure that 'a Candidate be allowed no credit at all for taking up a subject in which he is a mere smatterer.'

7. The Examination will be conducted on paper and vivâ voce, as may be deemed necessary.

8. The marks obtained by each Candidate, in respect of each of the subjects in which he shall have been examined, will be added up, and the names of the several Candidates who shall have obtained, after the deduction above mentioned, a greater aggregate number of marks than any of the remaining Candidates, will be set forth in order of merit, and such Candidates shall be deemed to be selected Candidates for the Civil Service of India, provided they appear to be in other respects duly qualified. Should any of the selected Candidates become disqualified, the Secretary of State for India will determine whether the vacancy thus created shall be filled up or not. In the former case, the Candidate next in order of merit, and in other respects duly qualified, shall be deemed to be a selected Candidate. A Candidate entitled to be deemed a selected Candidate, but declining to accept the nomination as such, which may be offered to him, will be disqualified for any subsequent competition.

9. Selected Candidates before proceeding to India will be on probation for one year, at the end of which time they will be examined, with a view of testing their progress in the following subjects (h):—

(e) See Note (f).

(f) A syllabus, defining in general terms the character of the Examination in the various subjects, may be obtained on application to the Secretary, Civil Service Commission.

(g) Marks assigned in English Composition and Mathematics will be subject to no deduction. Each science will, for the purpose of deduction, be treated as a separate subject.

(h) A syllabus, showing the extent of the examination, will be issued to the successful Candidates as soon as possible after the result of the Open Competition is declared.

In this Examination, as in the open competition, the merit of the Candidates examined will be estimated by marks (which will be subject to deductions in the same way as the marks assigned at the open competition), and the number set opposite to each subject denotes the greatest number of marks that can be obtained in respect of it. The Examination will be conducted on paper and vivâ voce, as may be deemed necessary. This Examination will be held at the close of the year of probation, and will be called the 'Final Examination.'

10. The selected Candidates will also be tested during their probation as to their proficiency in riding.

Examinations in riding will be conducted by a Military Officer acting for the Civil Service Commissioners, as follows:—

(1) Shortly after the result of the Open Competitive Examination has been declared, or at such time or times as the Commissioners may appoint during the course of the probationary year.

(2) Again, at the time of the Final Examination, Candidates who may fully satisfy the Commissioners of their ability to ride well and to perform journeys on horseback, shall receive a Certificate which shall entitle them to be credited with 200 marks to be added to their marks in the Final Examination.

(3) Candidates who fail to obtain this Certificate, but who gain a Certificate of minimum proficiency in riding, will be allowed to proceed to India, but will be subjected on their arrival to such further tests in riding as may be prescribed by their Government, and shall receive no increase to their initial salary until they have passed such tests to the satisfaction of that Government. A Candidate who fails at the end of the year of probation to gain at least the Certificate of minimum proficiency in riding, will be liable to have his name removed from the list of selected Candidates.

11. The selected Candidates who, at the Final Examination, shall be found to have a competent knowledge of the subjects specified in Regulation 9, and who shall have satisfied the Civil Service Commissioners of their eligibility in respect of nationality, age, health, character and ability to ride, shall be certified by the said Commissioners to be entitled to be appointed to the Civil Service of India, provided they shall comply with the regulations in force, at the time, for that Service.

12. Persons desirous to be admitted as Candidates must apply on Forms, which may be obtained from 'The Secretary, Civil Service Commission, London, S. W.,' at any time after the 1st December 1892. The Forms must be returned so as to be received at the office of the Civil Service Commissioners on or before 31st May 1893 (2).

The Civil Service Commissioners are authorized by the Secretary of State for India in Council to make the following announcements:—

(i.) As regards the distribution of the selected Candidates to the several Presidencies and Provinces mentioned in Regulation 1, the selected Candidates will be divided into four groups, each containing 14 Candidates, according to the order in which they stand on the List resulting from the Open Competition (the first 14 in Order of Merit composing Group No. 1, the next 14 in Order of Merit composing Group No. 2, and so on), and the Members of each Group will be allowed in the order in which they stand, each to choose, so long as a choice remains, one of the appointments allotted to that Group, as indicated in the following Table:—

The choice thus given, however, will be subject to any other arrangement which the Secretary of State, or the Government of India, may deem necessary.

(ii.) Should any appointments have to be made in excess of the 56 notified in the Regulations, they will be added to such group or groups as to the Secretary of State may seem proper.

(iii.) No exchange of appointments will be permitted between selected Candidates, who under par. 1 have made their choice of Presidency or Province, except between those who are members of the same group or of two adjoining groups or who are separated by not more than 23 others in the Order of Merit, on the result of the Open Competition. Application for permission to exchange appointments must be made to the Secretary of State within one month after the date of choice made under par. 1, and in no case will an exchange be permitted unless it is, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, desirable, in the public interest, that it should be made.

(i) These forms should be accompanied by evidence on the points mentioned in Regulation 2, and by a list of the subjects in which the Candidate desires to be examined. Evidence of health and character must bear date not earlier than 1st May 1893.

(iv.) The giving or receiving directly or indirectly any money or other valuable consideration for an exchange will be deemed to vacate the selection and appointment of the Candidates interested.

(v.) Selected Candidates will be required to report their arrival in India within such period after the grant of their Certificate of Qualification as the Secretary of State may in each case direct.

(vi.) The seniority in the Civil Service of India of the selected Candidates will be determined according to the order in which they stand on the list resulting from the combined marks of the Open Competitive and Final Examinations.

(vii.) An allowance amounting to £100 will be given to all Candidates who pass their probation at one of the Universities or Colleges which have been approved by the Secretary of State, viz., the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, Dublin, Glasgow, Edinburgh, St. Andrew's, and Aberdeen; University College, London; and King's College, London; provided such Candidates shall have passed the Final Examination to the satisfaction of the Civil Service Commissioners, and shall have complied with such rules as may be laid down for the guidance of selected Candidates.

(viii.) The allowance of £100 will not be paid to any selected Candidate until he has been certified by the Civil Service Commissioners to be entitled to be appointed to the Civil Service of India; and every Certificated Candidate must, before receiving his allowance, attend at the India Office and give a written undertaking to refund the amount in the event of his failing to proceed to India.

(ix.) All Candidates obtaining Certificates will be also required to enter into covenants, by which, amongst other things, they will bind themselves to agree to such Regulations for the provision of pensions for their families as may be approved by the Secretary of State for India in Council. The stamps payable on these covenants amount to £1.

(x.) Candidates rejected at the Final Examination of 1894 will in no case be allowed to present themselves for re-examination.

To

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE
VISCOUNT CROSS, G.C.B.,

Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Simla, the 19th July 1892.

MY LORD,

With reference to paragraph 2 of our Despatch No. 32 (Financial) dated the 17th February 1892, we have the honour to address Your Lordship on the subject of the pay and status of Cantonment Magistrates in India.

2. Prior to the year 1887, Cantonment Magistracies were divided into two grades, on a consolidated pay of Rs. 1,000 and Rs. 700 a month respectively: the tenure of the appointments was not limited to any term of years, the holders being required to vacate them only when they became entitled to Colonel's allowances or reached the age of 55 years. In 1886 His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief expressed his opinion that those regulations were not adapted to prevent the retention of the appointments by inefficient officers, and that the public service had suffered seriously thereby. His Excellency therefore recommended that the tenure of the appointments should be limited to a term of five years capable of extension, under special circumstances, up to seven years.

3. Local Governments having been consulted, the proposal of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief was sanctioned as a provisional arrangement in the Resolution quoted in the margin. Officers desirous of becoming Cantonment Magistrates were required to pass a preliminary examination in law; and the pay of the appointments was fixed at Rs. 600 a month for a subaltern and Rs. 700 for an officer of higher rank, with an increase of Rs. 100 in each case after passing the Departmental Examination by the higher standard. It was ruled that all officers who had been appointed Cantonment Magistrates on and after the 1st January 1887 should be brought under the new rules. The latter decision was subsequently modified by permitting Cantonment Magistrates appointed between the 1st January and the 11th August 1887 to elect under which system of pay they would serve.

4. In the early part of the year 1890, it was represented to us by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief that the new rules did not work altogether satisfactorily, and required reconsideration. Objection was taken from a military point of view to the system on the grounds that, owing to the advance of military education, officers necessarily become more or less inefficient during a long period of absence from regimental duty; that officers seeking employment as Cantonment Magistrates are generally those who desire to leave regimental and even military life, and that it was unlikely that they would be inclined to do military duty again after having been placed in an independent civil position for a lengthened period. It was added that from a civil point of view also the system appeared to be objectionable, as an officer would hardly become a really efficient Cantonment Magistrate much before the expiration of his tenure of office, when he would have to make way for another inexperienced officer.

5. Before coming to a decision we consulted Local Governments and Administrations on the subject. The replies are briefly to the following effect. The Government of Madras are in favour of the removal of the limitation imposed by the orders of 1887, and consider that in the matter of reversion to military duty, Cantonment Magistrates should be placed on exactly the same footing as other military officers in civil employ. The Governments of Bengal and the North-Western Provinces and Oudh propose a ten years' limit, the former suggesting that an officer who does not revert after ten years should be treated as permanently in civil employ. The Chief Commissioner of Burma suggests that the Local Government should have the option at the end of five years of sending a Cantonment Magistrate back to military duty or of retaining him permanently in civil employ. The Bombay Government recommend that the continuance of the appointment should be considered at the end of every five years. The Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces suggests the formation of an 'Army Judicial Department,' from which both the Cantonment Magistracies and the Judge Advocate General's Department could be recruited. The Punjab Government propose that all Cantonment Magistrates should be placed on one graded list for the whole of the Bengal Presidency, the pay of the grades ranging from Rs. 400 to 1,300, and officers being eligible for promotion from grade to grade and liable to transfer from one province to another.

Although the remedies proposed are various, there is a consensus of opinion against the present system, which involves the appointment of inexperienced Cantonment Magistrates who, even if they prove successful in their appointments, have to revert to military duty just at the time when they become most useful.

6. We are accordingly of opinion that the system provisionally introduced in 1887 should be abandoned, and that it is advisable to revert to the system which was in force before 1887, but with this essential difference, that whereas the highest pay of a Cantonment Magistrate under that system (Rs. 1,000) was hardly sufficient to induce competent officers to adopt this line of employment permanently, the pay of the higher grades should now be so regulated as to make the appointments sufficiently attractive as a career. This result will, in our opinion, be further aided by giving preference for appointment to the Judge Advocate

General's Department to Cantonment Magistrates who qualify themselves for it. We propose that appointments in that Department should be reserved preferentially (though not exclusively) for qualified Cantonment Magistrates, the Candidates being required to pass the prescribed examinations for the Department and to be attached to the Judge Advocate General's Office for a period of three months' probation so as to secure some knowledge of English Law and Procedure.

7. As regards the rates of pay, we propose that allowances on the scale given below in addition to Staff Corps pay of rank be sanctioned for Cantonment Magistrates:—

	Rs.
On first appointment	200
On passing the Departmental lower standard examination.	250
Ditto ditto higher ditto ...	300
After five years' substantive service as Cantonment Magistrate.	400
After ten years' ditto ditto ...	500

Under these proposals the salary of Cantonment Magistrates will range from Rs. 425-12-0 to Rs. 1,327-14-0 a month; a subaltern will receive something more than his regimental emoluments; the superior rates of allowances are sufficiently high to induce an officer who finds the work of Cantonment Magistrate suitable to him to adopt that line as a career; and the officers concerned will enjoy the prospect of a continuous increase of salary.

We recommend that the whole emoluments of an officer holding a Cantonment Magistracy under the new system be treated as salary.

8. To guard against the retention of unsuitable officers in civil employ we propose that an officer holding a Cantonment Magistracy should be able to exercise the option of reverting to military duty, on giving reasonable notice, at any time up to five years from the date of his first appointment and thereafter up to ten years with the approval of the Local Government and of the Commander-in-Chief. After ten years he will no longer be eligible for return to military duty, unless selected for an appointment in the Judge Advocate General's Department. The Government of India will, however, as in the case of military members of Commissions in non-regulation provinces and commissioned medical officers in civil employ, retain the power of directing an inefficient officer's reversion to military duty at any time.

9. In recommending this scheme for Your Lordship's sanction we may observe that it is not possible at present to estimate the financial effect of our proposals. The Cantonment Magistracies which will be affected by the measure are about 36 in number. In the event of the scheme being sanctioned by Your Lordship, it is our intention to consider separately the question of grouping the Cantonments in order that the higher grade officers may, as far as possible, be placed in charge of the more important stations, and of arranging a system of transfer from one Cantonment to another, irrespective of provinces, when this is found desirable in the interests of the public service. We also propose on receipt of your sanction to give each existing Cantonment Magistrate, whether serving under the rules of 1887 or those previously in force, an option once for all of electing the new scale or continuing to serve under his present terms.

We have the honour to be,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble Servants,

 No. 133.

To His Excellency the Most Honourable the Governor General of India in Council.

MY LORD MARQUIS,—In Your Excellency's Finance and Commerce Despatch of 19th July 1892, No. 185, on the subject of the pay and status of Cantonment Magistrates in India, you show that the opinions of the Local Governments and Administrations are against the present system, as failing to attract competent officers, and you accordingly propose that appointments in the Judge Advocate General's Department should be reserved preferentially (though not exclusively) for qualified Cantonment Magistrates, that allowances ranging from Rs. 200 to Rs. 500 a month should be given in addition to Staff Corps pay of rank, and that the whole emoluments of an officer holding a Cantonment Magistracy under the new system be treated as salary.

2. These proposals have my approval, and also your additional proposals in connexion with reversion to military duty, transfer of officers, and option of election by existing Magistrates.

3. I request that as soon as the financial effect of the new scheme has been ascertained, a report may be furnished to this office.

I have the honour to be,

My Lord Marquis,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble Servant,

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

Bombay Castle, 14th February 1893.

No. 320.—The following Notification by the Government of India in the Home Department is republished for general information :—

" EDUCATION.

Calcutta, the 3rd February 1893.

No. 47.—The following Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India and its enclosures are published for general information :—

No. 119 Public (Educational), dated India Office, London, the 22nd December 1892.

From—The Right Honourable the Earl of KIMBERLEY, K.G., Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India,

To—His Excellency the Most Honourable the GOVERNOR GENERAL of India in Council.

Having considered in Council your letter in the Home Department No. 12 (Education) of the 26th October last, in which you renew a proposal to hold at Calcutta the intermediate examination in Arts and the B.A. Examination of the London University, I arrived at the conclusion that the circumstances which existed in 1881, when my predecessor was not disposed to ask the University to hold any examination in India except that for matriculation, have been materially modified by the increased number of European children who are now being educated in India.

2. I accordingly caused your application to be forwarded for the favourable consideration of the Senate of London University, who has acceded thereto (by the enclosed letter from the Registrar) subject to the usual conditions applicable to examinations held at centres out of Great Britain.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) KIMBERLEY.

No. J. & P. 1999, dated University of London, Burlington Gardens, W., the 3rd December 1892.

From—ARTHUR MILMAN, Esq., M.A., Registrar, University of London,

To—Sir HORACE G. WALPOLE, K.C.B., Assistant Under Secretary of State for India.

I have the honour to state, for the information of the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India, that your letter of the 19th instant, and the accompanying Despatch from the Government of India, requesting that the intermediate and Bachelor's Degree Examination in Arts may be held at Calcutta, were on Wednesday last laid before the Senate, who acceded to the application. It is understood, however, that, whenever candidates propose to offer themselves for the said examinations, the Government of India will give due notice to the University through your Department, and will otherwise observe the conditions (of which copies are enclosed) for holding Examinations at centres out of Great Britain.

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON.

Examinations in the Colonies for Matriculation and for the Degrees of B.A. and LL.B.

These examinations are appointed by the Senate from time to time, upon the application of the Governor of any Colony desiring that one or more places in the Colony may be named as a centre or centres for one or more examinations. Every such application must be forwarded to the Senate through the Colonial Office at home.

In order that the examinations may be conducted as nearly as possible in the same way as the examinations carried on at the University, it is essential that the following conditions and Regulations be strictly observed:—

- (1) Each examination shall be under the superintendence of a responsible Sub-Examiner, who shall be nominated by the Governor of the Colony, and who shall be altogether independent of the authorities of any College or Institution at which such examination may be held.
- (2) The examinations shall be open to all candidates who can prove to the Colonial Authorities that they are of proper age and character to be admitted. The Sub-Examiner is required to see that the certificates produced by the candidates are such as to satisfy the Regulations of the University: and he should be furnished with a list of the candidates who have sent in their names to the Colonial Authorities.
- (3) The examination-papers for each examination (which will be sent out through the Colonial Office to the Governor of the Colony) must be delivered unopened to the Sub-Examiner.
- (4) The examination shall be held simultaneously with the corresponding examination in London or, in the event of accident or unavoidable delay, as soon as possible after the arrival of the mail by which the papers are transmitted; and immediately on its conclusion the Sub-Examiner shall place the answers of the candidates in the custody of the Governor of the Colony, to be by him transmitted under seal, together with the candidates' fees (see 8 below), by the next mail, through the Colonial Office, to the Registrar of the University.

(5) The Registrar, on receiving the answers, will distribute them to the Examiners, who will make a supplemental report thereon, classing the candidates according to the Regulations, but in a List by themselves, and, in the case of the Matriculation Examination, indicating, as nearly as may be, the positions which those who may be entitled to places in the Honours Division would have held in the home Honours Division if they had been examined in this country.

(6) The results of each examination will be communicated, through the Colonial Office, to the Governor of the Colony in which it was held, as soon as possible after the reports of all the Examiners have been received and tabulated at the University.

(7) Neither the Honours Examinations in Arts and Laws, nor any Examinations in Science or Medicine, can be held out of England; nor are candidates who may be examined for Matriculation in the Colonies admissible to competition for the exhibitions and prizes offered by the University to candidates examined in the United Kingdom.

(8) Candidates are required to pay their fees to the Colonial Authorities at least a month before the commencement of the several examinations; and those authorities are requested to transmit the fees to the University through the Colonial Office or the Crown Agents in London immediately upon the conclusion of the examinations. (See also 4 above.)

Applications for the institution of Colonial Examinations should be forwarded through the Colonial Office so as to reach the University not less than four months before the commencement of the examinations to which the applications refer.

[Note.—Applications are not received from individual candidates. Any person desiring to be examined at a Colonial centre should apply, not to the University of London, but to the Government of the Colony wherein he resides, to ascertain (a) whether any arrangement has been already made for holding an examination in the Colony, or, if not, (b) whether the Government will make the necessary application to the Senate in order that such arrangement may be made.]

June 1st, 1892.

(Signed) C. J. LYALL,
Secretary to the Government of India."

By order of His Excellency the Right
Honourable the Governor in Council,

W. LEE-WARNER,
Secretary to Government.
