NOTIFICATION.

It is hereby notified for general information that in conformity with Sec: XXVII. of the Post Office Rules of the 30th August 1837, no parcel can be received at this office which bears the appearance of having been opened, and reclosed, or otherwise improperly dealt with, or packed in so insecure and careless a manner as to render it impossible to tell whether it has been so dealt with or not; and the public are particularly requested to be careful in all cases to pack parcels intended for transmission by Post in the strongest and most secure manner that circumstances will admit, affixing their private seals when possible on the joinings of the covers, as the extremely loose and careless way in which parcels are packed, affords great facilities to parties who are so inclined, to tamper with their contents.

The 24th Oct. 1846.—The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 24th October 1846.

ACT No. — OF 1846.

Concerning the binding of Apprentices.

Whereas it is expedient to facilitate the setting-out and instruction of the children of persons, inhabitants in the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, following European manners and usages, particularly orphans and destitute children brought up by public Charities, in Arts, Trades, Crafts and employments, by which when they come to mature age they may be enabled to gain a livelihood; and whereas it is considered proper for this end to promote the system of Apprenticeship, which has partially obtained hitherto, by legal provisions calculated to render the contract between Master and Apprentice effectual for the reciprocal benefit of the parties.

I. It is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for any person, inhabiting in any part of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company to take, retain, or become an Apprentice.

II. Provided that no person shall be bound as an Apprentice except by his Parent or Guardian, and it is hereby declared that an orphan or destitute person brought up by any public charity may be bound by the Governors, Directors or Managers thereof as his Guardians for this purpose.

III. And provided that no person shall be bound as an Apprentice, who is under the age of 10 years, and that no person above the age of 13 years, shall be so bound without his own consent; and that no person shall be so bound for a term to extend beyond the time at which he will attain the age of 21 years.

IV. And provided that no person shall be bound to serve as an Apprentice out of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, except on board a Ship or Vessel.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that when any person shall be bound as an Apprentice to any Officer of Government as such, for employment in the public service, in the event of the resignation or removal of such Officer, the Apprentice shall be considered as bound in the same manner to his successor.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that any boy being of the age of 13 years, may be bound as an Apprentice in the Sea Service to any of Her Majesty's subjects being the Owner or Owners of any registered Ship or Vessel, belonging to and trading from any Port in the said Territories declared to be a Registering Port under Act X. of 1841, to be employed in any such Ship or Vessel the property of such person, and while so employed to be instructed in the craft and duties of a Seaman, provided that the Master or such Ship or Vessel shall be a British Subject, or for Sea Service in any Ship or Vessel of the East India Company belonging to any such Port, commanded by a British subject, in which case the contract shall be made with the Master Attendant at such Port or any Officer appointed to represent the East India Company in this behalf, who shall appoint the Ship or Vessel in which such Apprentice is to serve from time to time.

VII. And it is hereby enacted, that the Master or Commander of any Ship or Vessel in which an Apprentice bound under the last Section shall be appointed to serve by the party to whom he is bound, shall be deemed the Agent of such party for the purposes of this Act.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that every contract of Apprenticeship shall be reduced to writing, which writing shall set forth distinctly the conditions agreed upon, particularly specifying the age of the Apprentice and the term for which he is bound, what he is to be taught, where and how he is to be employed, and whether under the immediate superintendence and direction of the Master or of an Agent for him, and what provision is to be made for his maintenance, lodging and clothing, especially whether he is to be lodged and boarded in the house, and as a member of the family of the Master, or of his Agent, or otherwise; or if the Apprentice shall be bound to serve in a Sea-going Vessel, or in a Vessel employed in river navigation where his berth is to be on board, and how and with whom he is to mess, and what provisions, clothing and bedding are to be supplied to him, and how he is to be provided for when he is not on board.

IX. And it is hereby enacted, that every such contract shall be in duplicate, and that each copy shall be signed by the person to whom the Apprentice is bound, and by the person or persons by whom he is bound, and by the Apprentice himself when he is above the age of 13 years; provided that when the Apprentice is bound by the Governors, Directors or Managers of a Public Charity, the signature of two of them, or of their Secretary or Officer on their behalf, shall be sufficient.

X. And it is hereby enacted, that no such contract shall be valid unless it be executed in the manner aforesaid nor until it has been registered in the Office of the Chief Magistrate of the Place or District where it has been executed, or if the Apprentice shall be bound to the Sea Service in the office of the person appointed under Act X. of 1841, to make Registry of Ships and Vessels at the Port where the Apprentice is to enter on the said Service.

XI. And it is hereby enacted, that when the Apprentice is bound to serve at some other place than that where the contract has been executed, out of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate in whose office it has been registered, the Master within one month after the arrival of the Apprentice at such place, by himself or by his Agent, under whom the Apprentice is to be employed according to the contract, shall apply to the Chief Magistrate of the District to Register the Contract in his office.

XII. And it is hereby enacted, that if the Master shall fail to register the contract within one month as directed in the last Section, he shall not be entitled to apply to a Magistrate to take cognizance of any cause of complaint he may have against the Apprentice in the manner hereinafter provided, but it shall nevertheless be competent to any Magistrate to take cognizance of complaints against the Master on application made to him on behalf of the Apprentice.

XIII. And it is hereby enacted, that when by the contract of Apprenticeship the Apprentice is bound to service at a certain place, or in a certain District, or in a certain trade or business, and the Master desires to remove him to some other place or District, or to employ him in some other trade or business, or in any other way than as stipulated in the contract, he shall be at liberty to do so with the consent of the person or persons by whom the Apprentice was bound, and with the consent of the Apprentice himself if he is above the age of 13 years, provided that the alterations agreed to shall be expressed in writing on each copy of the contract with the signature of the proper parties according to Section VIII of this Act; and shall be registered in the office of the Chief Magistrate of the place or District where the Apprentice shall have been employed.

XIV. And it is hereby enacted, that when an Apprentice shall be removed under the last Section, the provision of Section XI. and Section XII. shall be applicable.

XV. And it is hereby enacted, that in the case of a Sea Apprentice, when the contract of Apprenticeship is registered, as above directed, the name and description of the Vessel in which such Apprentice is to serve, and the name and description of the Master or Commander thereof as a British subject, shall be certified on each copy of the contract with the signature of the Master of the Apprentice, and shall be entered in the book of Registry: and that if the Apprentice shall be transferred to any other Vessel the transfer shall be noted and registered in like manner.

XVI. And it is hereby enacted, that a contract of Apprenticeship may be determined at any time before the expiration of the term specified in it by the consent of all the parties, provided that such consent shall be certified in writing on each copy of the contract with the signature of all the parties, according to Section IX. of this Act, and shall be registered in the office where the contract was first registered, or in that of the Chief Magistrate of the place or District where the Apprentice shall have been last employed.

XVII. And it is hereby enacted, that the Master of any Apprentice bound under this Act may with the consent of the persons by whom he was bound and with the consent of the Apprentice himself and not otherwise, assign such Apprentice to any other person, who is willing to take him for the residue of the term mentioned in the contract of Apprenticeship, and subject to the conditions thereof, provided that such person shall by endorsement under his own hand on each copy of the contract declare his acceptance of such Apprentice, and acknowledge himself bound by the agreements and covenants therein mentioned to be performed on the part of the Master, and that the consent of the other parties aforesaid shall be expressed in writing on the same and signed by them respectively. And that such assignment shall be registered in the office where the contract was first registered, or in that of the Chief Magistrate of the District where the Apprentice shall have been last employed.

XVIII. And it is hereby enacted, that upon complaint made to any Magistrate in the said Territories by or on behalf of any Apprentice bound under this Act, of misusage, or of refusal or neglect to provide for him, or to give him instruction according to the contract of Apprenticeship, or of cruelty, or other ill-treatment by his Master, or by the Agent under whom he shall have been placed by his Master, if it shall appear to the Magistrate that there is cause for the complaint, it shall be lawful for him to summon the Master, or his Agent, as the case may be, if he shall be within his jurisdiction, to appear before him at a reasonable time, to be stated in the Summons, to answer the complaint, and at such time, whether the Master or his Agent be present or not (service of the Summons being proved) to examine into the matter of the complaint, and upon proof thereof to impose upon the offender, whether he shall be the Master or his Agent, a reasonable fine not exceeding 200 Rupees; and if the offender shall not pay the fine to levy the same by distress and sale of his Goods and Chattels, and in case the offender shall not be the Master but his Agent, by distress and sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Master also. And if there shall not be found sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon to levy the same, to commit the offender to prison until the fine shall be discharged, provided that he shall not be kept in prison for a period exceeding two months; and provided that if sentence shall have been passed after an ex parte investigation the offender shall not be committed to prison until he has been brought before the Magistrate, and having been personally called upon to discharge the penalty has failed to do so.

XIX. And it is hereby enacted, that in a case in which a Magistrate shall have passed sentence upon the Master of an Apprentice or Agent under the last Section, it shall be lawful for him at his discretion to adjudge that the Apprentices shall be discharged, and if any premium shall have been paid on the binding of such Apprentice to make an order upon the Master to refund the whole or any part thereof, and in case the sum ordered to be refunded by such Master shall not be paid to the person or persons directed in any such order to receive the same, to levy the same by distress upon the Goods and Chattels of such Master with the costs and charges of such distress; and if there shall not be found sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon to levy the same, to commit such Master to prison for any term not exceeding two months, unless the sum ordered to be refunded with all costs shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

XX. Provided that when the Master of an Apprentice shall have been committed to prison in default of payment of a fine imposed under Section XVIII. of this Act, the imprisonment to which he may be subjected under the last Section in default of payment of the sum ordered to be refunded, shall not extend beyond the time which in addition to the term ordered under Section XVIII. shall make up the period of three months.

XXI. And it is hereby enacted, that when a Magistrate shall order the discharge of an Apprentice under Section XIX. of this Act, any sum that may be levied under Section XVIII., together with the whole or a part of any sum that may be levied under Section XIX., shall be applied at the discretion of the Magistrate for the purpose of binding or placing out the discharged Apprentice with a new Master, or otherwise for his use and benefit.

XXII. And it is hereby enacted, that upon complaint made by any Master of an Apprentice bound to him under this Act or by his Agent, against such Apprentice, to any Magistrate of any place or district in the said Territories where such Apprentice shall be employed, or in the case of a Sea Apprentice where he shall be in the course of his employment, of any misdemeanor, misconduct or ill behaviour of such Apprentice, or if such Apprentice shall have absconded, upon complaint made thereof by the Master or his Agent, to any Magistrate of the place or District where such Apprentice shall be found, or where he shall have been employed, it shall be lawful for any such Magistrate in the latter case to issue his Warrant for apprehending such Apprentice, and in either case to hear and determine the complaint and to punish the offender by committing him to a house of correction or to prison, there to be held to hard labour for a reasonable time not exceeding three months, or if the offender be a boy of such tender years as to make punishment in the way of School discipline more suitable, by inflicting on him corporal chastisement not exceeding ten stripes with a light ratan, provided that it shall be lawful for the Magistrate instead of committing such offender to a house of correction or to prison to be held to hard labour as aforesaid, to pass an order for his being kept in solitary confinement in any suitable place in or out of prison for a period not exceeding three weeks; or if the Magistrate deem any such punishment unfitting, to pass an order to the Master of the Apprentice or his Agent to keep the offender in close confinement in his own house or on board the Vessel to which he may belong, upon a reduced diet for a period not exceeding one month, and at his discretion to direct that at the expiration of the stated period the Apprentice shall be again brought up before him that he may satisfy himself that he has been properly dealt with.

XXIII. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Magistrate on proof of wilful and continual misconduct on the part of the Apprentice, whereby it shall appear that he is incorrigible, and on the demand of the Master, to adjudge that the contract of Apprenticeship shall be determined. Provided that it shall be at the discretion of the Magistrate on a consideration of the circumstances to order the refund of a part of any premium that may have been paid to the Master on binding such Apprentice, to the person or persons by whom it was paid on behalf of such Apprentice.

XXIV. Provided always, that no Magistrate shall entertain a complaint on the part of a Master against an Apprentice under this Act, unless it be preferred within one month after the cause of complaint shall have arisen, or if the cause of complaint shall have arisen on board a Ship or Vessel on a voyage within one month after the arrival thereof at a port or place in the said Territories. And that no Magistrate shall entertain a complaint on the part of an Apprentice against his Master or the Agent of his Master under this Act, unless it be preferred within three months after the cause of complaint shall have arisen, or if the cause of complaint shall have arisen on board a Ship or Vessel on a voyage within three months after the arrival thereof at a port or place in the said Territories.

XXV. And it is hereby enacted, that if the Master of any Apprentice shall die before the expiration of the term for which such Apprentice shall have been bound, the contract of Apprenticeship shall be considered as determined; provided that if any premium shall have been paid to such Master on the binding of the Apprentice to him, a proportionate part thereof shall be returned by the Executors or Administrators out of the Estate of the deceased to the person or persons who shall have paid the same, to be employed by such person or persons towards the binding out such Apprentice to a new Master, unless the Executor or Administrator of the deceased Master or some Member of his family living with him at the time of his death shall continue the business in which such Apprentice shall have been employed, and shall within three months from the decease of the late Master make offer in writing to retain the Apprentice on the terms of the original contract, in which case the Estate of the deceased shall be discharged from all liability on account of such premium.
