FORT WILLIAM,
HOME DEPARTMENT,
LEGISLATIVE.

The 15th July, 1848.

The following Draft a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 15th of July 1848.

ACT No. — OF 1848.

An Act to provide for the expence of criminal Prosecutions at Bombay.

Whereas the fund arising from fines levied by or transmitted to the Supreme Court of Bombay which, by an Act of Parliament passed in the 9th Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, are applicable toward the reasonable costs of prosecuting offences and compensating prosecutors, (whether before the said Court or any Justices of the Peace,) is inadequate, and other provision must be made for these purposes, It is enacted as follows:

I. The Justices of the Peace for the Town and Island of Bombay in Quarter Session assembled shall from time to time prepare tables, of fees to be paid to Counsel and Attornies employed in prosecutions in the said Supreme Court, and of allowances to be made for the costs of prosecuting offenders and of compensating prosecutors and witnesses, in the said Supreme Court, and in the Court of Petty Sessions, and before either of the Magistrates of Police.

II. Every such table shall be submitted for approval to the said Supreme Court, which may alter and amend the same; and every such table, when finally settled and approved by the Supreme Court, shall be published for general information, and shall be binding on all persons.

III. The fees and allowances, authorized by the tables in use, for any prosecution in the Supreme Court, shall be taxed by the Deputy Clerk of the Crown, and in the Court of Petty Sessions by the Clerk of the Peace, and for any proceeding before either Magistrate of Police by the Magistrate's Clerk; and upon the Certificate of the Taxing Officer shall be charged upon and paid out of the Municipal Fund established by Act No. XI. of 1845.

IV. When any allowance is made for attendance before a Justice of the Peace on examination before committal of a prisoner for trial in the Supreme Court or Court of Petty Sessions, the committing Justice shall give to the person entitled thereto a certificate under his hand of the attendance of such person, and of the allowance to which he is entitled, which shall be included in the costs allowed to such person on the trial, and shall not be paid until after the trial, or discharge of the prisoner.

V. In special cases, and for reasons to be openly stated, the Supreme Court and Court of Petty Sessions respectively may make orders for the payment of higher fees and allowances, to any person and in any proceeding in that Court, than are authorized by the tables in use; and thereupon such higher fees and allowances shall be substituted on taxation, and shall be charged upon and paid out of the said Municipal Fund.

VI. In special cases, and for reasons to be openly stated, the Supreme Court, Court of Petty Sessions, and either Magistrate of Police, may disallow the payment of all or any of the said fees and allowances: and thereupon the fees and allowances so disallowed shall be struck out on taxation, and shall not be chargeable on the said Municipal Fund.

VII. After the publication of the first table of fees and allowances under this Act, the full amount of all fines levied by the Supreme Court, or Court of Petty Sessions, or either of the Magistrates of Police, and the balance of such fines at that time in the possession of the Accountant General of the Supreme Court, shall be paid, quarterly or otherwise as shall be directed by the Governor of Bombay in Council, to the credit of the said Municipal Fund, by the Clerk of the Crown, Clerk of the Peace, or other Officer in receipt thereof, and shall be applicable to the general purposes of that fund.

FORT WILLIAM,
HOME DEPARTMENT,
LEGISLATIVE.

The 22nd July, 1848.

The following extract from the proceedings of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council in the Legislative branch of the Home Department, under date the 22d July 1848, is published for general information.

Read a second time the Draft of a proposed Act, dated the 25th March 1848, and published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 1st April 1848, to repeal Section IV. Regulation XI. 1827, of the Bombay Code, and to provide for the trial of Native Subjects of the Bombay Government for offences committed out of the Zillahs of the Bombay Presidency.

Resolution.—The Governor General of India in Council resolves, that the following Amended Draft on the subject be published for general information.

ACT No. — OF 1848.

An Act to provide more effectually for the punishment of offences committed in Foreign States.

Whereas divers Regulations of the Bengal, Madras, and Bombay Codes have been made from time to time for the trial of Native Subjects of the British Government, committing criminal offences beyond the limits of the British Provinces, and it is expedient to make the same more effectual and uniform, It is enacted as follows:

I. The undermentioned Regulations and parts of Regulations are rescinded, that is to say:

Regulation V. of 1809, Regulation VIII. of 1813, Section VI. of Regulation I. and the whole of the Regulation IX. of 1822, and Regulation VIII. of 1829, of the Bengal Code; Regulation II. of 1829, and Regulation XII. of 1832, of the Madras Code: Section IV. of Regulation XI. of 1827, of the Bombay Code; except so far as any of them rescinds any former Regulation.

II. All British subjects, and also all persons in the Civil or Military service of the British Government in India, while actually in such service, and for six months afterwards, and also all persons who shall have dwelt for six months within the British Territories under the Government of the East India Company, subject to the laws of the said Territories, who shall be found within the said Territories, or who shall be brought within the said Territories, by leave of the Native Prince or State within whose Territory they are found, shall be amenable to the law for all offences committed by them within the Territory of any Native Prince or State; and may be bailed or committed for trial as hereafter provided, on the like evidence as would warrant their being held to bail or committed for the same offence, if it had been committed within the British Territories.

III. The Committing Magistrate, immediately and before the trial, shall report every such case to the Government of the Presidency to which he belongs, and shall obey the orders which he shall receive thereon.

IV. The said Government may order the trial to be had before one of the established Courts of Criminal Judicature within the same Presidency, competent to try the person charged for the offence.

V. When the offence is charged to have been committed in the Territory of any Native Prince or State, administered by Officers acting under the authority of the East India Company, in which Territory a Court, competent to try the person charged for the offence, is established with the consent of such Native Prince or State, by authority of the Governor General of India in Council, the Government of the Presidency may order such person to be conveyed in custody, out of the British Territories, for the purpose of delivering him up for trial before such Court.

VI. When the person charged is committed, the form of the warrant shall specify the commitment to be until the orders of Government can be received and acted on; when he is bailed, the form of the bail-bond shall be, in the first instance, to appear before the Magistrate on a certain day assigned, allowing reasonable time for receipt of the orders of Government, and on such subsequent days as the Magistrate from time to time shall require; and if Government shall order the person charged to be tried within the Presidency, the Magistrate may cause the bail-bond to be renewed in the usual form, to appear and take his trial at the Court, appointed for the purpose.

VII. In either case, the special order of the Government shall be deemed full authority, either for the trial and punishment of the person charged within the British Territories, or for conveying him in custody, out of the British Territories, as aforesaid.

Ordered, that the Draft be re-considered at the first meeting of the Legislative Council of India, after the 22d day of October next.

FORT WILLIAM,
HOME DEPARTMENT.
LEGISLATIVE.

The 29th July, 1848.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 29th of July 1848.

ACT No. — OF 1848.

An Act for the Safe Custody of Criminal Lunatics.

Whereas it is expedient to declare what unsoundness of mind excuses the commission of criminal acts, and to provide for the safe custody of persons found to have committed such acts, but acquitted by reason of unsoundness of mind, It is enacted as follows :

I. No person, who does an act which, if done by a person of sound mind, is an offence, shall be acquitted of such offence for unsoundness of mind, unless the Court or Jury, by which he shall be tried, shall find that, by reason of unsoundness of mind, not wilfully caused by himself, he was unconscious and incapable of knowing, at the time of doing the said act, that he was doing an act forbidden by the law of the land.

II. Whenever a person charged with any offence shall be acquitted, because he is within the exception made by the foregoing Section, the Court or Jury shall give a special judgment or verdict, that he did the act charged against him, being then of unsound mind, so as to excuse him according to law.

III. Whenever such special judgment or verdict as aforesaid shall have been given against any person, the Court, before which the trial was had, shall order him to be kept in safe custody, in such place and manner as to the Court shall seem fit, until the pleasure of the Government can be known thereon : and thereupon the Government may order such person to be kept in strict custody for such time and in such manner as to the Government shall seem fit.

IV. In all cases in which, before the passing of this Act, any person has been acquitted of any offence, on the ground of insanity, lunacy, idiocy, or unsoundness of mind, such person may be kept in the same strict custody in which persons may be kept, who shall be hereafter acquitted, for unsoundness of mind.

V. No person against whom any such special judgment or verdict shall have been given, shall be entitled to be discharged out of custody, on being restored to soundness of mind, unless by order and at the discretion of the Government.

VI. Whenever it shall appear to the Government that any person, imprisoned by the sentence of any Court, is of unsound mind, the Government, by a warrant directed to the Keeper of the Prison, which shall set forth the grounds of belief, that such prisoner is of unsound mind, may order the removal of such prisoner to a Lunatic Asylum, or other fit place of safe custody, there to be kept and treated as the Government shall order; and when it shall appear to the Government that such prisoner has become of sound mind, the Government, by a warrant directed to the person having charge of him, shall remand such prisoner to the prison from which he was removed, if then still liable to be kept in custody, or if not, shall order him to be discharged out of custody.

VII. The word 'Government' in this Act shall be taken to mean the Governor, or Governor in Council, or other person or persons administering the Government, of the Presidency or Place where the trial is had.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 29th day of October next.
