Notice

Is hereby given, that verbal offers will be received at this Office, at 12 o'clock precisely on Wednesday the 1st February next, for SUPPLYING CLEANED GRAM and MUTT to the Commissariat Department at Poona and Kirkee, from 1st March 1854 to the 28th February 1855.

The grain must be of unexceptionable quality, of the description usually furnished to this Department, and delivered daily, free of expense beyond the stipulated price, into the Commissariat Stores, or at the Cavalry or Horse Artillery Lines at Poona and Kirkee, as may be ordered. If any grain tendered is considered objectionable by the executive Commissariat Officer, or the indenting Officers, and is not immediately exchanged by the contractor, the required quantity will be purchased by this Department, without delay, at his risk and cost; and in all such cases (30) thirty per cent upon the amount of the expenses incurred, or a fine of Rupees (50) fifty, at the option of the executive Commissariat Officer, will be levied as liquidated damages for each and every such breach of contract; it being understood that the simple condemnation of any quantity of grain by a Committee constitutes such breach of contract, whether the rejected grain be replaced by the contractor or by this Department; in every such case also it is to be understood that the contract may be cancelled, at the discretion of the Commissary General; and that if the contract be so cancelled, the cash deposit below mentioned will be forfeited to Government.

Biddings for the contract will be in the Company's Rupees. No person will be permitted to bid who has not previously deposited in this Office Rupees (3,575) three thousand five hundred and seventy-five, which sum will be forfeited in the event of delay, evasion, or refusal on the part of any bidder to execute the necessary deed of contract when required to do so, in the event of his offer being accepted. Bonded security to the further amount of Company's Rupees (14,300) fourteen thousand and three hundred, in addition to the above mentioned deposit, will also be required previous to the execution of the contract, and the whole will be held as a guarantee for its due fulfilment.

Any parties whose offers are accepted will be required to produce their sureties for the approval of the Civil or Bazar Authorities, as necessary, within (15) fifteen days from the date of the acceptance of their offers, or the contract will be resold. No reason will be stated for rejecting any securities offered.

Sums retrenched by the Military Board will be recovered from the first bill subsequently presented for payment by the contractor; if such retrenchments are eventually remitted, the amount will be refunded to him.

The annual outlay on account of the contract is estimated at Rupees (71,500) seventy-one thousand and five hundred, viz :-

For Gram, Rupees (69,100) sixty-nine thousand and one hundred.

For Mutt, Rupees (2,400) two thousand four hundred.

Persons who, after offering for the contract, fail to furnish the necessary security, will be interdicted from bidding on future occasions.

No reason will be assigned for the rejection of any offer.

An Act for regulating the Sale of Spirituous Liquors, &c. in Cantonments.

Whereas it is expedient to regulate the sale of spirituous liquors, wine, and intoxicating drugs within Military Cantonments, It is enacted as follows:

I. If within any Military Cantonment, or within any limits around the same to which the Provisions of this Act shall be extended by an order of Government to be publicly notified, any person not amenable to Articles of War, or any Sutler or Camp follower, shall knowingly barter, sell, or supply, or offer or attempt to barter, sell, or supply, any spirituous liquor, wine, or intoxicating drug, to or for the use of any European Soldier, or to or for the use of any European or Eurasian, being a Camp follower or a Soldier's wife, without a written license from the Officer Commanding at the Station, or from some person having sufficient authority from the Commanding Officer to grant such license, the person so bartering, selling, or supplying, or offering or attempting to barter, sell, or supply such spirituous liquor, wine, or intoxicating drug as aforesaid, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees, or, in the discretion of the Magistrate, to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding one calendar month.

II. If any person convicted of an offence under Section I. of this Act, shall be convicted under that Section of an offence subsequently committed, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding three calendar months; and in such case any spirituous liquor, wine, or intoxicating drug, within such Cantonment or limits, which at the time of the commission of such subsequent offence shall belong to, or be in the possession of such person, shall, without further proof, be deemed to be in the possession of such person for the purpose of being supplied to European Soldiers contrary to the provisions of this Act, and shall be liable to be seized and confiscated.

III. If any Camp follower or Military pensioner, or the wife or widow of any Soldier, Camp follower, or Military pensioner, shall within such Cantonment or limits remove, convey, or have in his or her possession any quantity of spirituous liquor or wine exceeding one seer or quart, without a permit, to be signed by the Officer in Command, or such other Officer as may be appointed by him to grant permits under this Act, every such person shall be liable upon conviction to a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees, and for any subsequent offence to a fine not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three calendar months.

IV. Section III. of this Act shall not apply to any liquor brought into a Cantonment for the private use of any Commissioned Officer.

Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

FORT WILLIAM,
HOME DEPARTMENT,
LEGISLATIVE,

The 2nd December 1853.

The following Act, passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 2nd December 1853, is hereby promulgated for general information:—

Act No. XIX. of 1853.

An Act to amend the Law of Evidence in the Civil Courts of the East India Company in the Bengal Presidency.

Whereas the law of evidence administered by the Civil Courts of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, and the rules for the attendance and examination of witnesses and the production of documents in such Courts, require amendment, It is enacted as follows:

I. Sections XXXIII. and LXXIII. Regulation XXIII. 1814, of the Bengal Code, so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, Section XI. Regulation XXIV. 1814, of the same Code, except so far as it relates to the signing and issuing of any process of Court to which the signature of the Judge may not be specially required, and Section I. Act VI. 1843, so far as it authorizes the examination of witnesses according to the rules established by Section XI. Regulation XXIV. 1814, aforesaid, are hereby repealed.

II. In any regular or summary suit, appeal, or proceeding in any of the Civil Courts of the East India Company, and also in any summary suit, or other proceeding of a civil nature before any Court, Officer, or other person having by law or by consent of parties authority to examine witnesses, any party to such suit, appeal, or proceeding shall be competent and entitled to give evidence as a witness either on his own behalf, or on behalf of any other party to the suit, appeal, or proceeding, in the same manner as if he were not a party to the same. Provided that no party to a suit, appeal, or proceeding, who shall offer himself as a witness therein, shall, without the consent of all parties thereto, be examined otherwise than in open Court, in such manner as the Court may direct, having regard to the usages and customs of the country, unless such examination shall be taken under and subject to the Rules prescribed by Section XXXII. or XXXVIII. of this Act.

III. No person shall, by reason of any interest in the result of any suit or of any interest connected therewith, or by reason of relationship to any of the parties thereto, be incompetent to give evidence in any such suit.

IV. A husband or wife shall be competent to give evidence for or against the other, provided that the examination shall take place in open Court, in such manner as the Court may direct, having regard to the usages and customs of the country, or that it be taken and read under and subject to the Rules prescribed in Section XXXII. or XXXVIII. of this Act; provided also that any communication made by husband or wife to the other during their marriage shall be deemed a privileged communication, and shall not be disclosed without the consent of the person making the same, unless such communication shall relate to a matter in dispute in a suit pending between such husband and wife.

V. Any party to a suit may be compelled to give evidence as a witness therein, and also to produce any document in his possession or power, in the same manner, by the same process, and subject to the same rules as if he were not a party to the suit, except so far as is otherwise provided by this Act. Provided that no Court need to compel the attendance of any party to such suit, for the purpose of giving evidence therein, if such party shall satisfy the Court that he has no personal knowledge of any material subject of inquiry in the suit, and that he cannot give any material evidence therein. Nothing in this Clause shall exempt any party to a suit from being summoned to produce a document.

VI. After the parties in a suit in which, according to the practice of the Court, a day is fixed for the hearing, shall have filed their exhibits and lists of witnesses, the Court shall, by an order in writing, appoint a day, not less than fifteen days after the date thereof, for the examination of witnesses and the hearing of the suit.

VII. The list of witnesses required to be furnished in any suit shall include the names of all the witnesses, whether parties to the suit or not, whom the party filing the list may intend to call as witnesses, or whom he may require to be summoned to give evidence or produce any document, also a list of the documents which he may require to be produced.

VIII. If any party to a suit shall require the attendance of any other party thereto as a witness to be enforced, he shall by himself or his pleader make a special application to the Court for an order for a summons to compel the attendance of the party, and shall show to the satisfaction of the Court sufficient grounds in support of such application, otherwise a summons shall not be issued. In cases in which, according to the practice of the Court, a day is fixed for the hearing, the application shall be made before such day shall be fixed.

IX. The Court, upon the application of the pleader of any party to a suit whose attendance as a witness is required, or without such application, if the Court think fit so to do, may, before making such order, cause notice to be given to the party or his pleader, fixing a day for such party to show cause why he should not attend and give evidence, and may also, from time to time, if necessary, for good and sufficient cause, enlarge the time for such purpose.

X. Clause 1. In support of the cause shown, the Court shall receive a declaration in writing of the party, if signed by him, and delivered into the Court by himself or his pleader.

Clause 2.—If the party making such declaration shall wilfully and corruptly make any false statement therein, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be proceeded against, and upon conviction punished accordingly.

XI. If no sufficient cause be shown on the day fixed or upon any subsequent day to which the Court shall enlarge the time for that purpose, the Court shall cause a summons to be issued for compelling the party to attend and give evidence.

XII. The Court, on the requisition of any party to a suit, or his pleader, may cause a summons to be issued to every person who shall be required to produce any material document. Previously to the issuing of any summons for the attendance of any person to give evidence or produce a document, the party requiring the same shall pay into Court such sum as shall appear to the Court to be reasonable, to defray the travelling and other expenses of such person in passing to and from the Court in which he may be required to attend and give evidence, and for one day's attendance thereat. In fixing the sum to be paid into Court, regard shall be had to the rules, if any, established by the Court or Board, if any, to which such Court shall be subordinate. The sum so paid into Court shall be tendered to the witness at the time of serving the summons, if it can be served personally. In addition to the sum so paid into Court, the Court before whom any person who may attend in pursuance of a summons or proclamation to give evidence or produce any document may order such further sum to be paid to the person so attending by the person causing the summons or proclamation to be issued, as may appear to be necessary to defray his travelling and other expenses, and also the expenses of his detention under the summons or proclamation, and in case of default in payment, may order such sum to be levied by attachment and sale of the goods of the person ordered to pay the same; and the witness shall not be bound to give evidence or produce any document until such sum shall be paid.

XIII. Every summons for the attendance of a witness to give evidence, or to produce a document, shall require the intended witness to attend at a time and place to be named in the summons, and shall also state whether the attendance of the witness is required for the purpose of giving evidence, or producing a document, or for both purposes. If a witness, whether a party to the suit or not, is required to attend, and to produce before the Court any document alleged by the party summoning him to be in his possession or power, a direction to attend the Court with such document shall be inserted in the summons, and the document which the witness may be so called upon to produce shall be described in the summons with convenient certainty.

XIV. Every such summons shall, if possible, be served personally upon the person thereby required to attend, by showing the original to such person, and at the same time delivering or tendering to him a copy thereof.

XV. Such service must be made a sufficient time before the time specified therein for his attendance, to allow the witness a reasonable time for preparation, and for travelling to the place at which his attendance is required.

XVI. Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, may be summoned to produce a document without being summoned to give evidence, and any person summoned merely to produce a document shall be deemed to have complied with the summons if he cause such document to be produced, instead of attending personally to produce the same.

XVII. Any person who shall be summoned to appear and give evidence shall be bound to attend at the time and place named for that purpose.

XVIII. Any person attending to produce a document may be called upon to produce the same without being sworn or examined as a witness.

XIX. A witness not a party to the suit or proceeding in which he is summoned shall not be bound to produce his own title deeds, unless he shall have agreed in writing with the party requiring the production thereof, or with some person through whom he claims to produce such deeds.

XX. A witness, whether a party or not, shall not be bound to produce any document relating to affairs of State, the production of which would be contrary to good policy, nor any document held by him for any other person who would not be bound to produce it if in his own possession.

XXI. A witness being a party to the suit shall not be bound to produce any document in his possession or power which is not relevant or material to the case of the party requiring its production, nor any writing or correspondence which may have passed between him and any legal professional adviser. If any party, however, offer himself as a witness, he shall be bound to produce any such writing or correspondence in his custody, possession, or power, if relevant or material to the case of the party requiring its production.

XXII. Every witness summoned to produce a document shall, if the same be in his custody, possession, or power, be bound to produce it, or cause it to be produced to the Court, although there be a valid objection to the right of the party calling for it to compel its production, or to the reading, or putting it in as evidence, or to the disclosure of the contents thereof; the validity of any such objection made by the person producing the document shall be determined by the Court, and for the better determination thereof it shall be lawful for the Court to receive any admissible evidence which the person producing the document may give respecting it, and it shall also be lawful for the Court to inspect the document, and if necessary to call to its assistance any person whom it may appoint to interpret the same. Such person, however, shall be previously sworn truly to interpret the same to the Court alone, and not to disclose the contents thereof except to the Court, unless the Court shall order the document to be given in evidence. If the Court shall be of opinion that such document should not be produced, the Court shall not disclose the contents thereof to the parties, or take any note, or make any mention of the contents or effect thereof in its judgment or proceedings, but shall return the document at once to the party producing the same, having previously marked the same for the purpose of identification, and shall record in its proceedings that a document, identifying it by the mark put upon it, was called for by the person, naming him, who shall call for its production, that the person having the possession of the document, naming him, objected to its production, and the reasons, if any, for such objection, together with the reasons of the Court for refusing to compel its production. If the Court shall refuse to enforce the production of a document, or to receive the same in evidence, the Court of appeal may, upon a regular appeal, compel the production of such document, and if such Court shall think that the production of the same ought to have been enforced, or that it ought to have been received in evidence, may themselves enforce its production, and receive it in evidence, and decide the case upon such document, coupled with the other evidence given in the suit.

XXIII. A barrister, attorney, or vakeel shall not, without the consent of his client, disclose any communication made by the client to him in the course of his professional employment, nor any advice given by him professionally to his client, nor the contents of any document of his client, the knowledge of which he shall have acquired in the course of his professional employment. The privilege, however, is that of the client, and if any party to a suit shall give evidence therein at his own instance, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived his privilege, and to have consented to the disclosure by such barrister, attorney, or vakeel of any such matter as aforesaid, which may be relevant, and which the barrister, attorney, or vakeel would have been bound to disclose but for the privilege of his client, and the barrister, attorney, or vakeel shall be bound, upon examination, to disclose any such matter.

XXIV. If any witness, whether a party to a suit or not, to whom any summons to give evidence or produce a document shall have been personally delivered, shall, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with such summons as required by this Act, or attending, or being present in Court, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or to subscribe his deposition, or to produce any document in his custody or possession named in such summons as aforesaid, upon being required by the Court so to do, the Court shall have full power and authority to issue an order in writing to the nazir to apprehend and bring the witness before the Court; or, if he be already before the Court, to take him into custody. And such Court may impose on such witness a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees for his default, or refusal, realizable by attachment and sale of his property, and may commit him to close custody until he shall consent to give his evidence, or to sign his deposition, or to produce the document, and any such fine as aforesaid shall be levied and recovered by attachment and sale of the property of such person. Provided that no fine imposed under the provisions of this section shall exceed the amount of the property in dispute in the suit. If any such person shall abscond, or keep out of the way, so that he cannot be seized or brought before the Court, his property tion put to a witness be objected to by either of the parties, or their vakeels, and the Court shall allow the same to be put, the question and answer shall be taken down, and the objection and the name of the party making it shall be noticed in taking down the depositions, together with the decision of the Court upon the objection. The Judge shall also record such remarks as he may think material respecting the demeanor of any witness whilst under examination.

XXXII. In cases where the evidence is needed of females who, according to the custom of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear as witnesses in a Court of Justice, and in which the Court shall be of opinion that the ends of justice require and justify it, such Court may issue a commission to any Officer of the Court or other person, to be named in such commission, for the examination of such females in the hearing of the parties to the suit, or their vakeels, in such manner as the Court may direct, having regard to the custom and usage of the country, and with liberty to the parties or their vakeels to cross-examine, anything in Section V. Act VII. 1841 to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIII. On or before the day appointed for trial, the Court may, for any sufficient reason, such as the unavoidable absence of any material witness, or for other good cause, on the application of either party, postpone the hearing to another day, to be named, on such terms as to the payment to the opposite party of his costs occasioned by the postponement and otherwise as to the Court shall seem reasonable. In such case notice in writing shall be given to each of the witnesses to attend and give evidence, or to produce a document on the substituted day, instead of the day mentioned in their summonses, if there be time to do so, and the Judge shall so order. The notice shall be served in the same manner as a summons. The service of such notice shall have the same effect as if the substituted day had been originally named in such summonses as the day for the appearance in Court to give evidence or produce a document, and all the provisions in this Act relating to summonses to give evidence or produce documents shall extend to such notices in the same manner as if such notices had been expressly mentioned in such provisions. If the application be too late to serve such notices, the Court may order that the examination of any witness who may be present, or shall attend in pursuance of a summons, shall be proceeded with, and that the further hearing of the case, after the examination of such witness, shall alone be postponed.

XXXIV. Unless the hearing be postponed in manner aforesaid, it shall commence on the day appointed, or as soon afterwards as the business which may be pending before the Court and may be entitled to priority will allow, and the recording of evidence on the trial of any suit when begun under the rules above enacted, shall, unless there be good and sufficient reason to the contrary, (which reason shall be recorded,) continue on the same day, or on consecutive business days, until the whole of the evidence of the witnesses present shall be heard. The parties or such of them as desire it shall then be heard, either by themselves or their pleaders, orally, on the merits of the cases a regards the issues both of fact and law, and, after considering the argument and evidence, the Judge shall record his judgment under Act XII. 1843.

XXXV. If the Court, after the evidence of all the witnesses shall have been heard, and before hearing the pleaders or recording the judgment, shall think it necessary for the ends of justice to inspect any document, or to examine any party to the suit, or any other person whose evidence may appear to be material, the Court, of its own accord, may cause such party or person to be summoned to attend as a witness, to give evidence, or to produce such document, if in his possession, on a day to be appointed, and may examine such party or person as a witness in open Court, or in such other manner as the Court may direct, upon any question which the party or witness may be bound to answer, and the Court may think necessary, and may also compel the production of any document mentioned in such summonses, which any such person may have in his possession or power, and be bound to produce. Any witness so called shall be subject to the cross-examination of either party, or his vakeel. If such person, whether a party or not, shall be a female who, according to the custom of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear as a witness in a Court of Justice, the Court may order such person to be examined in the manner provided by Section XXXII. of this Act, upon such questions as it may direct. The Commissioner or other person authorised to take the examination in such case may put such further questions as in his judgment may be necessary, or may arise out of the answers to be given to the questions directed by the Court.

XXXVI. The Judge may cause public notice to be given in Court, either before or during the examination of any witness, requiring all or any other witnesses, whether parties or not, who have been summoned or inserted in the list of witnesses in the same cause, to leave and to remain out of Court until further order. Any witness in a cause who without lawful excuse shall wilfully remain in, or come into Court, contrary to such notice, shall be punishable in the same manner as for a contempt of Court in open Court. Whenever such notice shall be given, the consequence of disobedience thereto shall be publicly explained at the time of giving the notice.

XXXVII. Any party to a suit, appeal, or proceeding, who may be examined as a witness therein, shall, except as otherwise provided by this Act, be examined according to the rules for the time being in force as to the examination of witnesses not being parties to the suit, and shall be punishable for any false evidence given by him in the same manner as if he were not a party.

XXXVIII. The words "witness" and "witnesses" in Act VII. 1841 shall respectively include any party or parties to a suit, and the said Act shall be read as if the words "or party" "or parties" had been used in such Act in conjunction with the words "witness" or "witnesses" respectively. Provided that the deposition of a party taken under the provisions of this Section at the instance of any opposite party may be read in evidence by or on behalf of such last-mentioned party, without the proof required by Section V. of the said Act. Provided also that no deposition of any party taken under the provisions of this Section shall be read or used in evidence unless taken and read at the instance of some opposite party, or unless it shall be proved that the deponent is unable, from sickness or infirmity, to attend to be personally examined, or is, without collusion, or any reference to the suit, at so great a distance from the Court, that, in the judgment of the Court, it would be unreasonable to require his personal attendance in Court for the purpose of giving such evidence, in which last-mentioned case it shall be discretionary with the Court, having regard to the nature of the case and of the evidence given, either to allow or to refuse such deposition to be read.

XXXIX. No appeal shall lie from any order or decision of a Judge with respect to summoning or examining any party to a suit, or as to allowing a deposition to be read under the Section next preceding.

XL. If any party to any such suit as aforesaid shall, in any pleading or statement, refer to any document in his possession or power, as a material proof or document in support of his claim or defence, he shall file such document with the pleading or statement, unless the Court shall, for good and sufficient cause, extend the time for filing the same; and any adverse party shall be entitled, by himself or his vakeel, to inspect and take a copy of the document.

XLI. In the construction of this Act, unless where it is otherwise expressly provided, or there is something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, or which would render such construction inapplicable to the case, the word "Court" shall mean any Civil Court of the East India Company, and shall include any Judge or other Officer or person mentioned in Section II. of this Act; the word "Judge" shall be understood to mean the chief judicial authority presiding in any such Court, and shall include any Officer or person having, by law, or consent of parties, authority to examine witnesses, and to act judicially; the word "suit" shall be deemed to mean and include any suit, appeal, or proceeding mentioned in Section II.; the word "witness" shall include all persons competent and liable to give evidence, whether parties to any suit or proceeding or not. Words importing the masculine gender or singular number shall include the feminine gender or plural number, and vice versa.

XLII. This Act shall extend only to Civil proceedings, and to the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, and shall not include any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature.

XLIII. The provisions of Sections IX. X. and XI. of this Act shall not extend to the Zillah of Chittagong or Sylhet.

XLIV. This Act shall come into operation on the 1st day of January 1854.

When intending contractors will be required to specify in their tenders, both in words and in figures, the rates per cent. above or below the prices exhibited in the foregoing lists at which the supply will be made, on the understanding that the articles supplied are to be of an unexceptionable quality, or of the sort usually supplied, and to be delivered in the first instance at the Commissariat Stores, if required, and afterwards to the indenting Departments, in good condition, free of all charges beyond the stipulated price, in such numbers or quantities as may from time to time be demanded; and that the same are liable to examination and rejection by the executive Commissariat Officer, or by the indenting or receiving parties; or by a Committee of Officers appointed on the part of Government, in the event of the contractors being dissatisfied with the decision of the above Officers, or either of them, it being understood that the decision of such Committee is to be final, and binding on all parties.

3. No persons will be allowed to submit their tenders, or to bid for the contracts, unless they previously deposit in this Office, in cash, the sums exhibited opposite to each of the following schedules, which sums will be forfeited in the event of delay, evasion, or refusal on the part of the contractors to execute the necessary deeds of contract, whenever required to do so, on their offers being accepted; in which latter case they must be prepared to give unexceptionable bonded securities, to the further amount shown opposite each schedule, which, together with the amount previously deposited, will be held as guarantee for the due fulfilment of their contracts:—

4. Contractors must comply immediately with all emergent demands, and meet others of less urgency within the periods stated in the requisitions made upon them; in failure whereof, or if any supply be condemned by a Committee of Officers as aforesaid, the articles, or such others as may be required in lieu thereof, shall be purchased by this Department without delay, at their risk and cost, if it be considered expedient to do so; and in all such cases thirty (30) per cent. upon the amount of expenses incurred, or a fine of Rupees (50) fifty, or a sum exceeding that amount, shall be levied, (in proportion to the importance of the service contracted for by them, and to the extent of any injury likely to result from a breach of it, as causing inconvenience to the Public Service, in not immediately complying with emergent requisitions,) at the option of the executive Commissariat Officer, as liquidated damages for each and every such breach of contract; it being understood that the simple condemnation of any article by a Committee constitutes such a breach of contract, whether the rejected articles be replaced by the contractors or by this Department; in every such case, also, it is to be understood that the contracts may be cancelled, at the discretion of the Commissary General; and that if the contracts be so cancelled, the cash deposits mentioned in paragraph 3 of this Notice will be forfeited to Government.

5. It is also to be distinctly understood, that any negligence, evasion, or refusal on the part of contractors to make supplies, or obey orders, or any attempt on their part, or that of their agents, to pass off articles of an inferior quality in lieu of those they are bound to supply, or any neglect to deliver them at the time and place, will subject them in every instance to be fined to the extent of Rupees (25) twenty-five, at the option of the executive Commissariat Officer, from whose order an appeal may be made to the Commissary General, whose decision is to be final; but in cases when it may be deemed fit to exact any of the penalties provided for in the preceding clause, no further penalty shall be leviable under this clause.

6. It is further to be understood, that the contractors, or accredited agents on their part, approved of by the executive Commissariat Officer, are to attend at this Office during the usual hours of business, i. e. from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. daily (Sundays excepted), also at such other time or place as may be indicated by the executive Commissariat Officer, when he may consider it desirable for the public service to require such attendance.

7. Parties desirous to undertake the contracts are required to submit with their tenders certificates from parties of unexceptionable character and of sufficient means as their sureties for the amount specified opposite each schedule, but in case any of the sureties are not approved of by the Civil or Bazar Authorities at this Station, others to be immediately substituted, or otherwise the contracts will be resold at their risk and loss, and in that case the decision of the Commissary General is final.

8. Bills for articles supplied under the contracts above stated must be preferred within one month from the date of the delivery of the articles, in default of which the contractors will forfeit the full value of the supplies for which bills have not been so preferred, unless it clearly appears to the satisfaction of the Commissary General, that the delay was unavoidable.

9. The amount of retrenchments made by the Military Board on contractors' bills will be recovered from the first bills preferred for payment; but in the event of such retrenchments, or any portion thereof, being remitted, the amount remitted will be refunded.

10. Parties who, after offering for the contracts, fail to furnish the necessary security, as provided for in Clause 7th of this Notice, will be interdicted from bidding on future occasions, unless they produce a certificate from individuals of unexceptionable character and sufficient means, guaranteeing the due execution and performance of the contract, on their offers being accepted.

11. The annual outlay on the above contracts is estimated as follows:—

Notice to the Public,

MASTERS.

London, General Post Office, October 1853.

In consequence of the great difficulty and expense attending the transmission of heavy Packets across the Isthmus of Suez, it has become necessary to rescind the Regulations under which Printed Books, Magazines, Reviews, and Pamphlets addressed to the East Indies, Ceylon, Mauritius, and New South Wales are at present forwarded via Egypt, and to restrict the conveyance of such Books, &c. to the direct Mail Packets proceeding to those places.

In future, therefore, all Books and other Printed Publications, addressed to India, Ceylon, or Mauritius, intended to be forwarded through the Post, under the privileges of the Colonial Book Post, will be conveyed by the Contract Mail Packets via the Cape of Good Hope, leaving Plymouth on the 15th of each month, and Books, &c. for New South Wales will be sent by the Contract Packets despatched from this country once in two months, of the sailing of which notice is issued from time to time.

With reference to the above, the Post Master General hereby notifies, that Printed Books, &c. for the United Kingdom, posted on the terms published on the 4th May last, will be forwarded via Ceylon and the Cape of Good Hope after the 14th April 1854, up to which date they will be despatched, as at present, Overland.

No. 774 of 1853.—Lieutenant R. Litchfield, of the 21st Regiment N. I., is allowed a furlough to Europe for three years, on Medical certificate.

Bombay Castle, 2nd January 1854.

No. 1 of 1854.—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to republish the following Extract from the Honorable Court's letter in the Military Department, dated the 16th December 1807:—

"The frequent applications that have been made to us by Officers of our several Military Establishments in India, when in Europe, for advances of money, on loan, under the plea of their being otherwise unable to return to their duty, have not only caused much trouble and inconvenience, but, in some instances, the Company have sustained loss by the death of the parties to whom such advances have occasionally been made; and this practice has of late years increased.

"As under the Regulations of 1796, the Military Officers are allowed to come home on furlough, and to receive their Pay, and, in regard to Subalterns, are further indulged with Passage-money home, their situations have been considerably improved, and they cannot reasonably expect any additional indulgences of the nature above mentioned. To prevent, therefore, all expectation of the like, in future, we direct that you publish in General Orders to the Army, that we have been under the necessity of coming to the resolution of declaring that Officers at home are not hereafter to expect that applications for advances of money, beyond what they are allowed by the existing Regulations of the Service, will be attended to.

"This Regulation is to be considered as extending to the Marine Officers of your Establishment."

No. 2 of 1854.—The following appointments are made on the Personal Staff of the Right Honorable the Governor:—

Lieutenant Hugh Hislop Elliot, of the 1st Regiment Light Cavalry (Lancers), to be Aide-de-Camp.

Lieutenant Robert Edward Henry, of Her Majesty's 86th Regiment, to act as Aide-de-Camp from the 26th ultimo, subject to the approval of His Excellency the Commander in Chief in India.

No. 3 of 1854.—The following General Order by the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council, No. 1017, dated Fort William, the 6th December 1853, is published:—

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

The following Extract from the Proceedings of the Governor General of India in Council, containing a Despatch from the Honorable the Court of Directors relating to the grant of Pensions, under the Rules of 1831, to Officers in the Educational Department, is published for general information:—

No. 2422.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council, in the Financial Department, under date the 2nd September 1853.

Read the following Despatch from the Honorable the Court of Directors, No. 23 of 1853, dated the 20th July, admitting the Servants of Government employed in the Educational Department to the benefit of the General Pensionary Regulations of 1831:—

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

No. 23 OF 1853.

Our Governor General of India in Council.

1. In the year 1846 you recommended the admission of the Servants of Government employed in the Educational Department to the benefits of the General Pensionary Regulations of 1831.

2. Before deciding upon the question, we required to be furnished with Returns of the Educational Institutions at the several Presidencies, to enable us to ascertain the expense of the measure which you had submitted to us. These Returns were rendered in your letter of the 30th May 1848, and it appeared from them that the probable charge to the State for Pensions would amount to about Rupees 20,000 per annum on the strength of the Educational Establishment as existing at that time. Your financial position was then so unpromising that, viewing the proposal, as we were compelled to do, solely on financial grounds, we felt it necessary to postpone the boon which, on all other considerations, we should willingly have conceded to the Educational Servants.

3. In our Despatch in this Department dated 17th September 1851, No. 50, in reply to a Memorial from the body of Educational Servants employed in the North-Western Provinces, we expressed our regret that we were still prevented, by financial considerations, from complying with their request for the grant of Pensions on retirement.

4. Our attention has again been given to the subject, and we have resolved now to withdraw the restriction as respects this valuable class of Public Servants, and to sanction their being admitted to participate in the privileges of the Pension Rules of 1831. We have also determined, with a view of showing our estimation of the importance of their services, that the Principals and Head Masters of Colleges or Schools shall be ranked in the same Class with Law Officers and Native Judges, and, in like manner with them, be qualified, if incapacitated by age or infirmity, to receive Pensions equivalent to one-third of their average monthly Salary after fifteen years' service, and to one-half after a service of twenty-two years or upwards. This privilege must be confined to Principals and Head Masters. With regard to all other Educational Servants, a service of twenty years will be a necessary qualification for the minimum rate of Pension.

5. The Pensions are to be granted only to Servants attached to those Institutions that are wholly or for the greater part supported by our respective Governments, and not to those supported from other sources; and Pensions are not to be conceded to any class of persons inferior to those embraced in the Abstract contained in your letter of 30th May 1848, above referred to, the total number of which was at that time 559 persons.

We desire that a copy of the foregoing paras. be transmitted to the Governments of Madras and Bombay, and to the Lieutenant Governor North-Western Provinces, for their information and guidance.

We are, &c.

Ordered, that a copy of the Despatch above adverted to be forwarded to the Governments of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, and to the Lieutenant Governor of the North-Western Provinces, for their information and guidance, with the intimation that Superannuation Pensions are to be granted only to those Servants attached to the Educational Department who receive Salaries above Ten Rupees per mensem, as laid down in the Pension Regulations of 1831, which are adverted to by the Honorable Court in their Despatch above mentioned; Medical and Military Servants employed in the Educational Department being excluded from the benefits of the Pension Rules in question.

Ordered also, that a copy of the same Despatch be transmitted to the Civil Auditor, for his information and guidance.
