Notice

Is hereby given, that the contracts for the exclusive privilege of SELLING ARRACK and COUNTRY LIQUOR, and INTOXICATING DRUGS (Ganjah, Opium, Khushkus, and Tobacco), to the Troops and Camp Followers at Baroda, for one year, from 1st November 1854 to 31st October 1855, will be put up to competition, at the Office of the Superintendent of Bazzars at Baroda, at noon on the 18th September 1854.

But the contracts will be sold for the actual number of Troops that may be present on the day of sale, which will be duly notified to the bidders at the time, and the amount of the monthly payment shall not be increased or decreased on account of Troops arriving at or departing from the Cantonment, unless the strength of such Details exceeds one-fourth the number of men for whom the contracts have been entered into. It is, however, to be distinctly understood, that any alteration in the number of Camp Followers will not entitle the contractors to claim any remission in the payment of the stipulated monthly amount of their respective engagements: the departure of Troops from the Cantonment, as above specified, will alone give claim for remission.

5. The conditions of the contracts shall not be considered binding, or in force in any respect, until the same are confirmed by the superior authority.

6. The person or persons whose tenders may be accepted will be required, ere entering on the performance of their contracts, to deposit with the Superintendent of Bazzars the amount of one month's stipulated payment, as his or their personal security for the due execution of the agreement. The following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 21st July 1854, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XV. of 1854.

An Act to facilitate the Proceedings of the Commissioners appointed to Inquire into certain Matters connected with the Position of Sir James Brooke, Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul General in Borneo.

Whereas the Governor General of India in Council has, by a Commission bearing date the Seventh day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-four, nominated and appointed Charles Robert Prinsep, Esq., Barrister-at-Law and Advocate-General of Fort William in Bengal, and the Honorable Humphrey Bohun Devereux, in the Civil Service of the East India Company on their Bengal Establishment, to inquire into certain matters connected with and arising out of the position of Sir James Brooke, Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul General in Borneo; and whereas it is expedient that the Commissioners aforesaid should be invested with certain legal powers within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, It is enacted as follows:—

1. Each of the said Commissioners shall, before beginning to act in the execution of the Commission aforesaid, take and subscribe, before one of the Judges of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, the following oath, that is to say:—

“I do swear, that I will truly and faithfully, according to the best of my knowledge and judgment, execute the powers and trusts vested in me by the Governor General of India in Council, by a Commission bearing date the Seventh day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Forty-four, and by Act No. XV. of 1854. So help me God.”

And the Judge of the Supreme Court, before whom such oath shall be taken, shall transmit the same to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign Department, to be filed among the records of his office.

2. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners aforesaid, by a summons under their hands, or under the hand of either of them, to require the attendance before them, at a time and place to be mentioned in such summons, of any person or persons whomsoever, residing or being within the Jurisdiction of the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, whose evidence shall, in the judgment of the Commissioners aforesaid, be material to any of the matters directed by the Governor General of India in Council to be inquired of, and to require the person or persons so summoned to bring and produce before them all such books, papers, deeds, and writings, as to them, the said Commissioners, shall appear necessary for arriving at the truth of the matters directed to be inquired into by the said Commissioners, all which persons shall accordingly attend the said Commissioners, and shall produce such books, papers, deeds, and writings as shall be required of them and shall be in their custody and control, or in the custody and control of any one of them, according to the tenor of the summons. Provided always, that no person shall be compellable to answer any question, or to produce any book, paper, deed, or writing, the answer to which or the production of which may criminate or tend to criminate such person, or to expose such person to any pains or penalties.

3. And whereas it may appear to the Commissioners aforesaid desirable to examine as witnesses several persons touching the matters directed to be inquired into, the evidence of which persons may tend to expose them to penal consequences, every person who shall be examined as a witness and give evidence before the Commissioners aforesaid touching the matters in question, and who shall, upon such examination, make a true discovery to the best of his knowledge touching all matters to which he or she shall be so examined, shall be freed from all penal actions, forfeitures, punishments, disabilities, and incapacities, and all criminal prosecutions to which he or she may have been, or may become, liable or subject within any part of the said territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company for any thing done by such person in respect of any acts relating to which he shall be examined. Provided, that where any witness shall be so examined as aforesaid, such witness shall not be indemnified under this Act, unless or until he or she shall receive from the Commissioners aforesaid, under their hands, a certificate in writing, stating that such witness has upon his or her examination made a true disclosure touching all matters to which he or she has been so examined.

4. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners aforesaid, or one of them, to administer an oath, or in the case of persons allowed by law to make affirmation instead of taking an oath, an affirmation, in such form as to them, the said Commissioners, shall seem fit, to all persons who shall be examined before them touching the matters directed, or which may be directed, to be inquired into by them as aforesaid.

5. If any person, upon whom any such summons shall be served by the deans livery thereof to him or her, or by the leaving thereof at his or her usual place of abode, being a person subject to the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, or Malacca, shall, without reasonable cause (to be allowed by the Commissioners aforesaid,) fail to appear before them at the time and place mentioned in the summons, or shall refuse to be sworn or to make affirmation, (as the case may be,) or shall not make answer to such questions as shall be put to him or her touching the matters directed, or which may hereafter be directed, to be inquired into by the Commissioners aforesaid, or shall refuse or fail, without reasonable cause, (to be allowed by the Commissioners aforesaid,) to produce and show to the said Commissioners any such paper, book, deed, or writing being in their possession or under their control, as to the Commissioners aforesaid shall appear necessary for arriving at the truth of the matters directed to be inquired into by them, the Commissioners aforesaid shall have the same powers in all respects touching any such person so failing to appear, or refusing to be sworn or to make affirmation, or not answering such questions as shall be put to him or her, or refusing to produce and show any such book, paper, deed, or writing as aforesaid, as the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca may by law exercise against any person for making default of appearance, or for refusing to be sworn or to give evidence on any issue joined in any action depending in such Court.

6. Every person who, upon examination upon oath or affirmation before the Commissioners aforesaid, shall wilfully give false evidence, shall be liable to the pains and penalties of perjury.

7. No action shall be brought against the Commissioners aforesaid, or any other person or persons whomsoever, for anything done in the execution of

21. One witness, in all cases, except cases of treason, shall be sufficient in law, in any such Court or before any such person, but this provision shall not affect any rule or practice of any Court that requires corroborative evidence in support of the testimony of an accomplice or of a simple witness in a case of perjury, or as to the proof of an admission or otherwise. Provided that this shall not extend to give validity to any instrument to which the attestation of witnesses is necessary.

22. In that class of cases wherein dying declarations are evidence, they shall be received, if it be proved that the deceased was, at the time of making the declaration, and then thought himself to be, in danger of approaching death, though he still entertained, at the time of making it, hopes of recovery.

Where dying declarations are evidence, they shall be admissible, though some hope of recovery remains.

23. A party may be allowed to show before any such Court or Judge that a witness whom he produces has, at the trial or hearing, varied from a previous statement made by him, and has given unexpectedly, at the trial or hearing, evidence different from that which such person expected from him.

24. A witness on cross-examination may, with the consent of such Court or person, be asked as to the contents of a writing not produced, though such writing be in the possession of the party examining, where the object is to test the accuracy or truthfulness of the witness.

25. Where a copy is proved to have been made from an original writing, and appears on its production to have been made by any copying machine, it shall be taken without further proof to be a correct copy.

26. Where an original document is out of the reach of the process of the Court, or is at so great a distance from the Court, that the best evidence of it could not be had without serious expense, it shall be lawful for the Court, on application to it, and on notice to the opposite party at a reasonable time before the hearing, to make an order for the reception of secondary evidence of its execution and contents.

27. An attested document may be proved as if no such attestation had existed, unless it be a document to the validity of which attestation is requisite.

28. The admission of a party to an attested instrument of its execution by himself shall be as against him sufficient prima facie proof of the due execution of it, though it be an instrument which is required by law to be attested.

29. The books of any person, which are proved to have been regularly kept in the way in which such books usually are, shall be admissible as corroborative but not as independent proof of the facts which may have been stated therein when such facts become to be proved.

30. In all cases where hearsay evidence in the shape of an entry in any book, public or private, is admissible in evidence after the death of the party who made it, on the ground of its having been made in the ordinary course of business and without motive to misrepresent, such entry shall be admissible, though the party who made it be not dead, if he is incapable of being produced as a witness to the transaction, and of giving evidence as to it by reason of his subsequent loss of understanding, or where he is at the time of the trial or hearing bona fide and permanently beyond the reach of the process of the Court, or cannot, after diligent search, be found.

31. In any case where such entry is admissible, it shall be admissible, although it appear that the party who made it had not himself personal knowledge of the matter to which

Personal knowledge of the party making the entry not essential, if it were made on personal knowledge directly or indirectly conveyed.

directly conveyed to him or not, of some person whose business it was to do the thing or give the information which the entry records.

32. In all cases where hearsay evidence is received in the shape of a declaration or entry, on the ground that it was made against the interest of the party making it, it shall be admissible in evidence, though the party who made it is alive, and is capable of being produced and of giving testimony as a witness.

33. Any entry in any books, public or private, or any memorandum, so far as such entry or memorandum merely refers to and tends to identify by name, description, number, bank-notes or other securities for the payment of money, or other property, and the payer in or receiver of them, shall, in any case where such identification is necessary to be proved, be prima facie proof for that limited purpose, if it shall be proved to have been made at or about the time of the transaction to which it relates, and without any interest in falsifying the description of such notes, securities, or property, though the person who made it or he on whose information it was made is alive, and capable of being produced as a witness.

34. Certificates of shares and of registration thereof, bills of lading, invoices, account sales, receipts usually given on the payment or deposit or delivery of money, receipts usually given on the delivery of any goods, chattels, securities, letters, papers, or other things, provided such receipts be proved to have been given in the ordinary course of business, and concurrently with or near to the time of the receipt which they evidence, warrants, orders, or other documents evidencing the title to goods deposited in any public warehouse, public dock, or other such public place, shall be, on proof that they were respectively given out or received as genuine, and without proof of handwriting or authority, be received as sufficient prima facie evidence of the matters which they evidence, as well between the parties to the transaction as between other parties.

35. A witness whose memory requires to be refreshed, and who desires to refer before such Court, or before any such person as aforesaid, to any document for that purpose, shall be permitted to refresh it from any book, document, or writing or inscription, whether such book, document, writing, or inscription be an original or only a copy or extract, and whether that from which he refreshes his memory, or that from which it may have been taken, be of his own making or not, and whether it has or has not been in any manner made under his inspection or control.

36. And whereas in many instances, statements, charges, and complaints are received as evidence, so far only that it is competent to prove in certain cases that a statement, or charge, or a complaint was made, but the particulars of the statement, charge, or complaint are not permitted to be given in evidence; it is enacted that in all such cases the particulars shall be allowed to be received in evidence, and may be acted on as corroborative proof, but not in themselves as sufficient proof of the facts embodied in such complaint, charge, or statement respectively.

37. The declarations in cases of pedigree of mem-were intimately acquainted with its members and state, shall be admissible in evidence of their decease, in the same manner and to the same extent as those of deceased members of the family.

38. When hearsay evidence is admissible on subjects of public right, it shall extend to declarations of particular acts done in assertion or derogation of, or inconsistent with, the right, and to declarations of particular facts which tend to prove or disprove the right.

39. When a will is disputed on any ground which supposes that the will does not describe correctly the intended and free and intelligent disposition of a Testator, evidence may be received of the Testator's declarations as to his intentions, or actual disposition, provided it be proved that they were made about the time or subsequent to the time of making the will.

40. On an inquiry whether a signature, or writing, or seal is genuine, any undisputed signature, writing, or seal of the party whose signature, writing, or seal is under dispute, may be compared with the disputed one, though such signature, writing, or seal be on an instrument which is not, and cannot be, for general or for other purposes, evidence in the cause.

41. And whereas the proof of the execution of powers of attorney is often attended with difficulty and expense, where they are executed at places remote from that of trial, and whereas the proof of the despatch of letters is often attained with much difficulty, and the law of evidence may with advantage be altered and rendered less strict as to such matters, it is hereby enacted that any power of attorney which has been executed at a place distant more than 100 miles from the place wherein the action, suit, or proceeding is depending, may be proved by the production of it, without further proof, where it purports, on the face of it, to have been executed before a notary public, or any Court, Judge, or other public Officer, and such power of attorney may, where it does not purport on the face of it to have been so executed, be proved by producing it, and proving that it has been acted on, or remitted to be acted on by competent authority, and by proving the instructions as to it.

42. Where the instructions are contained in a letter or letters, the handwriting of which cannot, by reason of the absence of necessary witnesses, be proved, still if such letters are proved to be genuine, according to the best of the knowledge and belief of a witness having reasonable grounds for his opinion, they may be received as sufficient proof of such instructions. In all the cases aforesaid the witness or witnesses must depose that he or they believe or believe the instrument to be genuine and authorized, and that it has not been revoked.

43. Whenever it is proved that a letter-book is kept, and that, according to the usual course of business, letters are copied into such book and despatched, and the letter-book is produced, and it is proved that the letter was despatched according to the usual practice, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the witness, having reasonable ground for forming that belief, the Court may presume the despatch of that letter according to the usual course of business.

44. Any peon's-book or other book purporting to contain a receipt of a letter, and proved to have been kept as a book for marking the receipt of letters, shall also be sufficient prima facie proof that such letter was received.

45. If the letter be described in such book, it shall be also prima facie proof of the identity of the letter.

46. If the book do not describe the letter, still the identity of the letter may be inferred from circumstances.

47. And whereas by the Act XV. of 1852, Section 6, a power was given in any action or other legal proceeding pending in any of Her Majesty's said Supreme Courts, for such Court, and each of the Judges thereof respectively, on application for such purpose by either of the litigants, to compel the opposite party to allow the party making the application to inspect all documents in the custody or under the control of such opposite party, relating to such action or other legal proceeding, and if necessary to take examined copies of the same, or to procure the same to be duly stamped in all cases in which, previous to the passing of that Act, a discovery might have been obtained by filing a Bill, or by any other proceeding in a Court of Equity, at the instance of the party so making application as aforesaid to the said Court or Judge, provided always that every such application should be made as aforesaid before issue joined in any such action, and twenty-one days before the trial or hearing of any other legal proceeding.

48. And whereas the preceding proviso has been found inconvenient, it is therefore hereby repealed, and it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge to grant any such inspection at any time before the trial or hearing, provided a proper case be made out for granting the same, and the application has been made under the circumstances of the case without any unreasonable delay, and in any case where the Court or Judge shall think fit to grant such inspection, such terms may be imposed as to payment of costs or otherwise, as may be expedient and just.

49. And whereas by the 16th Section of the Act VI. of 1854, it is provided that affidavits of particular witnesses, or affidavits as to particular facts or circumstances, may, by consent of the parties, or by leave of the Court, obtained upon notice, be used in the hearing of any cause, and the same enactment is limited to proceedings on the Equity side of such Supreme Court; it is therefore enacted that the same shall extend to all Civil actions, suits, and proceedings on all sides of the Court.

50. And whereas by the 17th Section of the same Act, it is provided, that upon the hearing of any suit depending in any of the said Supreme Courts, whether commenced by Bill or Claim, and also upon the hearing of any motion, petition, or other proceeding in any of the said Courts, the Court may, upon the application of any of the parties thereto, or of its own accord, require and enforce the attendance and oral examination before itself of any witness, or of any party to the suit, and may also require and enforce the production of any document or documents, and may direct the costs of the attendance and examination of such witness or party to be paid by such of the parties to the suit, or in such manner as it may think fit, and it is desirable to extend this provision to all sides of the Court; it is therefore enacted, that the said provisions shall extend to all sides of the Court, but that they shall not authorize or empower the Court to direct the examination of any accused person at the trial for any purpose, but shall extend only to authorize his examination as to collateral matters arising on matter unconnected with the question of his guilt or innocence.

51. And it is further enacted, that the 33rd Section of the said Act No. VI. of 1854, which applies only to proof of accounts on the Equity side of the Court, shall extend to and embrace all accounts directed to be taken on any side of the said Court.

52. And whereas it is desirable to extend to this country certain of the provisions of the Act 8 and 9 Victoria, Cap. 113, entitled "An Act to facilitate the admission in evidence of certain official and other documents," it is therefore enacted, that whenever, by any Statute or Act, Regulation or Ordinance now in force, or any Statute or Act to be hereinafter in force, any certificate, certified copy, or other document, shall be receivable in evidence of any particular, in any Court of Justice, the same, if it is substantially in the form, and purports to be executed in the manner directed by the Statute, Act, Regulation, or Ordinance which makes it evidence, shall be prima facie evidence where it is rendered admissible without proof of any seal, stamp, signature, character or authority, which it is directed to have, or from which it is directed to proceed.

53. The provisions in this Act contained shall apply to extend but not to restrict the law and practice of the Courts of the East India Company, or other Courts, as to the reception of evidence. In no Court shall the improper admission or rejection of evidence be ground of itself for a new trial, or reversal of any decision in any case, if it shall appear to the Court before which such objection is raised, that independently of the evidence admitted and objected to, there was sufficient evidence to justify the decision, or that if the rejected evidence had been received, it ought not to have varied the decision.

No release executed after the time when this Act comes into operation shall operate so as to release more than the right of the releasing party, provided that this shall not extend to the release by one or more members less than the whole of any commercial or trading partnership of any debt, claim, or right of action, which it would be within the scope of the ordinary authority of a partner in such firm to release.

16. From the time this Act comes into operation, it shall not be necessary in any deed to be executed after such time, as to immoveable property situate in India, to add words of limitation to heirs, when the intention is to give the absolute interest to a person and his heirs general, but a gift, grant, or other conveyance of immoveable property to, or in favor of any person, shall be taken to give him the entire and absolute interest in the nature of an estate in fee simple, unless such construction is rendered inadmissible by the other contents of the deed; and when in any deed, or will, executed as aforesaid, any property is given to a person for life or for other freehold interest, and afterwards in the same deed, or will, is limited to his heirs or heir special, the estates shall not unite, but the limitation to the heirs shall be a limitation of an estate to be taken by the heirs by purchase; and it shall descend as if such estates had united.

17. When any property is sold, the proceeds of which are subject to any trust, the bona fide purchaser of the property shall not in any case be bound to see to the application of the purchase-money to the purposes of the trust.

18. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any case to which the English Law is not applicable.

I. The general superintendence and control of the education of every male minor, whose property has been or shall be brought under the management of the Court of Wards, in and for any part of the Presidency of Fort William by virtue of any Act or Regulation which now is or hereafter shall be in force, is hereby vested in the Collector of Revenue, acting under the said Court of Wards in the zillah or district wherein the principal portion of such minor's estate is situate.

II. It shall be lawful for every Collector of Revenue, in whom the superintendence of the education of any minor is vested by this Act, to direct that such minor shall reside either with or without his guardian at the sudder station of the district, or at any other place either within or beyond the limits of the district, and shall attend, for the purposes of education, such school or college as to the said Collector may seem expedient; and to make such provision as may be necessary for the proper care and suitable maintenance of the said minor whilst attending such school or college.

III. If it shall appear to the Collector inexpedient to place any such minor at a school or college, he shall cause such minor to be educated by a private tutor, properly qualified, either at the family residence of such minor, or at the sudder station or elsewhere, and in that case also the Collector shall have power to determine from time to time the place of residence of such minor, and to make such provision as may be necessary for his proper tuition and maintenance during the period of his education.

IV. All charges and expenses which may be incurred on account of any male minor ward under the provisions of this Act, for college or school fees, or for other charges of tuition or education, or by reason of his residence in any place other than his own home or otherwise, shall be defrayed from the profits of his estate, in the same manner as other expenses incurred under the authority or with the sanction of the Court of Wards.

V. It shall be lawful for the Court of Wards, on the application of a Collector, to remove from office any guardian who shall neglect or refuse to obey or shall evade compliance with any orders passed, or directions given by such Collector under the provisions of this Act, and to cause a new guardian to be appointed in his place, whether the person so removed shall have been first invested with the guardianship of the minor upon the nomination of a Collector acting under the Court of Wards, or by a testamentary appointment confirmed by the Court of Wards, and if in any such case the guardian to be removed shall be also the manager of the minor's estate, it shall be lawful for the Court of Wards, at its discretion, either to remove him from both the said offices, or to continue him in that of manager only.

VI. The guardian so removed shall, notwithstanding ing his removal, continue liable to account to the Collector for his receipts and disbursements during the period of his guardianship; and every guardian appointed in the place of a guardian so removed, shall be chosen in the same way, and shall have the same rights and powers, and be subject to the same responsibilities as persons originally appointed to be guardians of minors by a Collector of Revenue acting under the Court of Wards.

VII. If a question shall arise in any Court of Justice within the territories of the East India Company touching the right to the custody of the person of any male minor whose property is under the management of the Court of Wards, the person appointed with the sanction of the Court of Wards, either originally or upon the removal of a former guardian, to be the guardian of such minor, or in the absence of any such person, the Collector of Revenue having the superintendence of the education of such minor under the provisions of this Act, shall have and be deemed entitled to the same rights and powers as would be possessed by a guardian appointed by a Court of Justice of competent jurisdiction.

VIII. All orders and proceedings of a Collector under the provisions of this Act shall be subject to the revision of the Court of Wards, and every person aggrieved by any such order or proceeding may prefer an appeal therefrom to the Commissioner of Revenue acting as a Court of Wards and for the division to which such Collector belongs.

A Bill to provide Compensation to Families for Loss occasioned by the Death of a Person, caused by Actionable Wrong.

I. It is enacted, that whenever the death of a person shall be caused by wrongful act, neglect, or default, and the act, neglect, or default is such as would (if death had not ensued) have entitled the party injured to maintain an action, and recover damages in respect thereof, then, and in every such case, the party who would have been liable if death had not ensued, shall be liable to an action or suit for damages, notwithstanding the death of the person injured, and although the death shall have been caused under such circumstances as amount in law to felony. II. And it is further enacted, that on the institution

Plaintiffs shall deliver particulars, &c. of such action or suit, or as soon after as the Court shall direct, the plaintiff shall deliver to the defendant, or to his Attorney or Vakeel, or person by the practice of the Court authorised to appear and act for him, a full particular of the person or persons for whom and on whose behalf such action or suit shall be brought, and of the nature of the claim in respect of which damages shall be sought to be recovered.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 5th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 9th November 1854:—

A Bill to improve the English Law in force in India, by extending to this Country, with some enlargement thereof, the Provisions of Statute 3rd and 4th William IV. Cap. 42, Section 2.

Whereas by the English Law in force in India, many Actions for wrongs to survive to and against personal representatives in certain cases.

actions for wrongs do not survive against the Executor or Administrator of the wrong-doer, or in favour of the Executor or Administrator of the injured person, and it is desirable to extend to this country, with some enlargement thereof, certain provisions contained in a certain Act of Parliament which has been passed for remedying these defects in the law, that is to say, the Statute 3rd and 4th William IV. Cap. 42, Section 2; It is therefore enacted that

An action may be maintained by the Executors, Administrators, or Representatives of any person deceased for any wrong committed in the life-time of such person towards him, which has occasioned pecuniary loss to his estate, for which wrong an action might have been maintained by such person, but which, before the passing of this Act, would not have survived to his Representatives, so as such wrong or injury shall have been committed within one year, or have been without his neglect first known to him within one year before the death of such deceased person, and provided such action shall be brought within one year after the death of such person, and the damages when recovered shall be part of the personal estate of such person; and further, an action may be maintained against the Executors, Administrators, or Representatives of any person deceased for any such wrong committed by him in his life-time, and which would not have survived against his Representatives, so as such injury shall have been committed within one year before such person's death, and so as such action shall be brought within six calendar months after such Executors or Administrators shall have taken upon themselves the administration of the estate and effects of such person; and the damages to be recovered in such action shall be payable in like order of administration as the simple contract debts of such person. And when any action or suit has been commenced by the injured party in his life-time, it shall not abate by his death or be lost, whatever be its nature, but the Executors, Administrators, or Representatives may continue it for the purpose of recovering the costs and expenses of suing, or any special or consequential or other loss or damage included in the action which the injury has occasioned, or may occasion, to the estate of the deceased.

Instances having recently occurred of applications to allow PACKAGES, stated to contain FREE GOODS or PERSONAL BAGGAGE, to pass WITHOUT EXAMINATION, being written and signed by Pass-note Writers or Dulals, the Deputy Commissioner hereby gives notice that applications so signed will not be attended to. Permission to pass unexamined Packages is granted from trust in the good faith of the party or firm making the application, and the application for such permission must therefore be signed by such party or firm. By Order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council, Bombay Castle, 18th August 1854.

Notice

Is hereby given, that verbal offers will be received at this Office, at 12 o'clock precisely on Monday the 11th September next, for SUPPLYING cleaned GRAM and MUTT to the Commissariat Department at Poona and Kirkee, from 1st October 1854 to the 28th February 1855.

The Grain must be of unexceptionable quality, of the description usually furnished to this Department, and delivered daily, free of expense beyond the stipulated price, into the Commissariat Stores, or at the Cavalry or Horse Artillery Lines at Poona and Kirkee, as may be ordered. If any Grain tendered is considered objectionable by the executive Commissariat Officer, or the indenting Officers, and is not immediately exchanged by the contractor, the required quantity will be purchased by this Department, without delay, at his risk and cost; and in all such cases (30) thirty per cent. upon the amount of the expenses incurred, or a fine of Rupees (50) fifty, at the option of the executive Commissariat Officer, will be levied as liquidated damages for each and every such breach of contract; it being understood that the simple condemnation of any quantity of Grain by a Committee constitutes such breach of contract, whether the rejected Grain be replaced by the contractor or by this Department; in every such case, also, it is to be understood that the contract may be cancelled, at the discretion of the Commissary General; and that if the contract be so cancelled, the cash deposit below mentioned will be forfeited to Government.

The contract will only extend to Poona and Kirkee, but in the event of any of the mounted Corps or public cattle moving, the contractor must supply one month's Grain for use on the march, if required, as well as for any Troops temporarily stationed at the above Stations.

Biddings for the contract will be in the Company's Rupees. No person will be permitted to bid who has not previously deposited in this Office Rupees (1,500) one thousand and five hundred, which sum will be forfeited in the event of delay, evasion, or refusal on the part of any bidder to execute the necessary deed of contract when required to do so, in the event of his offer being accepted. Bonded Security to the further amount of Company's Rupees (6,000) six thousand, in addition to the above-mentioned deposit, will also be required previous to the execution of the contract, and the whole will be held as a guarantee for its due fulfilment.

Any parties whose offers are accepted will be required to produce their sureties for the approval of the Civil or Bazar authorities, as necessary, within (15) fifteen days from the date of the acceptance of their offers, or the contract will be resold. No reason will be stated for rejecting any securities offered.

Sums retrenched by the Military Board will be recovered from the first bill subsequently presented for payment by the contractor; if such retrenchments are eventually remitted, the amount will be refunded to him.

The annual outlay on account of the contract is estimated at Rupees (71,500) seventy-one thousand and five hundred, viz :—

For Gram, Rupees (69,100) sixty-nine thousand and one hundred.

For Mutt, Rupees (2,400) two thousand and four hundred.

Persons who, after offering for the contract, fail to furnish the necessary security, will be interdicted from bidding on future occasions.

No reason will be assigned for the rejection of any offer.

Further particulars will be made known on application at this Office, any day from 10 to 5 o'clock (Sundays excepted).

Notice

Is hereby given, that persons desirous of entering into a contract for SUPPLYING TALLOW, as per Schedule No. 4, to the Commissariat Department at the Presidency, to last until 30th day of April 1855 from the date of the acceptance of the offer, may, on application at this Office from 11 A.M. till 5 P. M. daily (Sundays excepted), obtain copies of the schedule or list of prices, and such information relating thereto as they may require.

2. Verbal offers for the contract will be received at this Office on Friday the 8th proximo, at 2 o'clock precisely, when bidders will be required to bid a per-centage above or below the prices exhibited in the above list at which the supply will be made, on the understanding that the articles supplied are to be of unexceptionable quality, according to musters which may be seen in this Office, or of the sort usually supplied, and are to be delivered, in the first instance at the Commissariat Stores at the Presidency if required, and afterwards to the indenting Departments, in good condition, free of all charges beyond the stipulated price, in such quantities as may from time to time be demanded, and that the same are liable to examination and rejection by the executive Commissariat Officer, or by the indenting or receiving Officers; or by a Committee of Officers appointed on the part of Government, in the event of the contractor being dissatisfied with the decision of the above Officers, or either of them; it being understood that the decision of such Committee is to be final, and binding on all parties.

3. No person will be allowed to bid for the contract unless he previously deposits in this Office in cash the sum of Rs. (87) eighty-seven, which sum will be forfeited in the event of delay, evasion, or refusal on his part to execute the necessary deed of contract whenever required to do so, on his offer being accepted, in which latter case he must be prepared to give unexceptionable bonded security to the further amount of Rupees (350) three hundred and fifty, which, together with the amount previously deposited, will be held as a guarantee for the due fulfilment of his contract.

4. A contractor must comply immediately with all emergent demands, and meet others of less urgency within the periods stated in the requisitions made upon him; in failure whereof, or if any supply be condemned by a Committee of Officers as aforesaid, the articles, or such others as may be required in lieu thereof, shall be purchased by this Department, without delay, at his risk and cost, if it be considered expedient to do so; and in all such cases (30) thirty per cent. upon the amount of expenses incurred, or a fine of from Rs. (30) thirty to (75) seventy-five, at the option of the executive Commissariat Officer, will be levied as liquidated damages for each and every such breach of contract, it being understood that the simple condemnation of any article by a Committee constitutes such a breach of contract, whether the rejected articles be replaced by the contractor or by this Department; in every such case, also, it is to be understood that the contract may be cancelled, at the discretion of the Commissary General, and that if the contract be so cancelled, the cash deposit mentioned in para. 3 of this Notice will be forfeited to Government.

5. It is also to be understood that any delay, negligence, evasion, or refusal on the part of a contractor to make supplies or obey orders, or any attempt on his part, or that of his agents, to pass off articles of an inferior quality in lieu of those he is bound to supply, or any neglect to deliver them at the time and place ordered, will subject him, in every instance, to be fined to the extent of Rupees (25) twenty-five, at the option of the executive Commissariat Officer, from whose order an appeal may be made to the Commissary General, whose decision is to be final; but in cases when it may be deemed fit to exact any of the penalties provided for in the preceding Clause, no further penalty shall be leviable under this Clause.

6. It is further to be understood, that the contractor, or an accredited agent on his part, approved of by the executive Commissariat Officer, is to attend at this Office during the usual hours of business, i. e. from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. daily (Sundays excepted), also at such other time or place as may be indicated by the executive Commissariat Officer, when he may consider it desirable for the public service to require such attendance.

7. Any party whose offer is accepted will be required to produce his sureties for the approval of the Honorable Company's Solicitor, within fifteen days from the date of the acceptance of his offer, or the contract will be resold. No reason will be stated for rejecting any security offered.

8. Bills for articles supplied under this contract must be preferred within one month from the date of the delivery of the articles, in default of which the contractor will forfeit the full value of the supplies for which bills have not been so preferred, unless it clearly appear, to the satisfaction of the Commissary General, that the delay was unavoidable.

9. The amount of retrenchments made by the Military Board on the contractors' bills will be recovered from the first bills preferred for payment; but in the event of such retrenchments, or any portion thereof, being remitted, the amount remitted will be refunded.

10. Any party who, after offering for the contract, fails to furnish the necessary security, as provided for in Clause 7 of this Notice, will be interdicted from bidding on future occasions, unless he produces a document from some person or persons of unexceptionable character and sufficient means, guaranteeing the due execution and performance of the contract, on his offer being accepted.

11. The annual outlay on the above contract is estimated at Rs. (1,752) one thousand seven hundred and fifty-two.

12. No reason will be assigned for the rejection of any offer.
