8. Bills for articles supplied under the contracts above stated must be preferred within one month from the date of the delivery of the articles, in default of which the contractor will forfeit the full value of the supplies for which bills have not been so preferred, unless it clearly appears to the satisfaction of the Commissary General that the delay was unavoidable.

9. The amount of retrenchments made by the Military Board on contractors' bills will be recovered from the first bills preferred for payment; but in the event of such retrenchments, or any portion thereof, being remitted, the amount remitted will be refunded.

FORT WILLIAM,
HOME DEPARTMENT,
LEGISLATIVE,

The 30th December 1853.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 30th December 1853 :—

ACT No. — OF 1853.

An Act relating to Railways in India.

Whereas it is expedient that all Railways which have been or shall be opened by any Railway Company under the superintendence and control of the East India Company, for the public conveyance of passengers or goods in any part of the territories in the possession and under the government of the said Company, should be subject to the same regulations; It is enacted as follows :—

I. No person shall enter any carriage used on any such Railway for the purpose of travelling therein, without having first paid his fare, and obtained a ticket. Every person desirous of travelling on such Railway shall upon payment of his fare be furnished with a ticket, specifying the class of carriage and the distance for which the fare has been paid, and shall, when required, show his ticket to any servant of the said Company duly authorised to examine the same, and shall deliver up such ticket upon demand to any of the Company's servants duly authorised to collect tickets. Any person not producing or delivering up his ticket, as aforesaid, shall be liable to pay the fare from the place whence the train originally started, unless he can prove that he has travelled a less distance only, and has paid his fare for such less distance.

II. At the intermediate stations the fare shall be deemed to be accepted, and the tickets furnished only upon condition that there be room in the train for which the tickets shall be furnished. In case there shall not be room for all the passengers to whom tickets shall have been furnished, those who shall have obtained tickets for the longest distance shall have the preference, and those who shall have obtained tickets for the same distance shall have the preference according to the order in which they shall have received their tickets. Provided, that all officers and troops of Her Majesty, or of the East India Company, on duty, and all other persons on the business of the East India Company, who by virtue of any contract with the East India Company shall be entitled to be conveyed on such Railway in preference to or in priority over the public, shall be entitled to such preference and priority without reference to the distance for which, or the order in which, they shall have received their tickets.

III. Any person who shall defraud or attempt to defraud any such Railway Company by travelling, or attempting to travel, upon such Railway without having previously paid his fare; or by riding in or upon a carriage of a higher class than that for which he shall have paid his fare; or by continuing his journey in or upon any of the carriages of the Company beyond the place for which he shall have paid his fare without previously paying the fare for the additional distance, and with intent to avoid payment thereof; or who shall knowingly and wilfully refuse or neglect, on arriving at the point to which he shall have paid his fare, to quit such carriage; or who shall in any other manner whatever attempt to evade the payment of his fare, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees for each offence.

IV. Any passenger who shall get into or upon, or attempt to get into or upon, or shall quit or attempt to quit any carriage upon any such Railway, while such carriage is in motion; or who shall ride or attempt to ride upon any such Railway on the steps or any other part of a carriage except on those parts which are intended for the accommodation of passengers, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees for each offence.

V. Any person other than the engine-man and fire-man, and assistant fire-man, if any, who without the special licence of the superintendent of locomotives shall ride or attempt to ride upon any locomotive engine or tender upon any such Railway; and any person other than the guard or breaks-man, who without such licence as aforesaid shall ride or attempt to ride upon such Railway upon any luggage-van, or goods-waggon, or other vehicle not appropriated to the carriage of passengers, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees for each offence.

VI. If any person shall smoke, either on the premises or in or upon any of the carriages belonging to any such Railway Company, except in places or carriages which may be specially provided for the purpose, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees for each offence; and if any person persist in infringing this regulation after being warned to desist by any of the servants of the Company, such person, in addition to incurring the liability above mentioned, may be removed by any of the servants of the Company from any such carriage, and from the premises of the Company, and shall forfeit his fare.

VII. Any person who shall be in a state of intoxication, or shall commit any nuisance or act of indecency in any Railway carriage, or upon any part of the premises of any such Railway Company; or who shall wilfully and without lawful excuse interfere with the comfort of any passenger on such Railway, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees; and in addition to such liability the offender may be removed by any of the servants of the Company from any such carriage, and also from the premises of the Company, and shall forfeit his fare.

VIII. If any special carriage or portion of a carriage, or any private room or apartment, shall be provided by any such Railway Company for the exclusive use of females, any male person who without lawful excuse shall enter such carriage, or portion of a carriage, or any such room or apartment, knowing the same to be exclusively appropriated as aforesaid, or shall remain therein after having been informed of its exclusive appropriation, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees, and may be removed therefrom, and also from the premises of the Company, by any of the servants of the Company, and shall forfeit his fare.

IX. No such Railway Company shall in any case be answerable for passengers' luggage, unless it shall have been booked and separately paid for.

X. If any person shall fail to pay on demand any sum due to any such Railway Company for the conveyance of any goods, it shall be lawful for the Company to detain all or any part of such goods, or if the same shall have been removed from the premises of the Company, any other goods of such person which shall then be on their premises, or shall thereafter come into their possession; and also to sell by public auction sufficient of such goods to realize the sum payable as aforesaid, and all charges and expenses of such detention and sale, and out of the proceeds of the sale to retain the sum so payable, together with the charges and expenses aforesaid, rendering the overplus, if any, of the money arising by such sale, and such of the goods as shall remain unsold, to the person entitled thereto; or the Company may recover any such sum by action at law.

XI. The owner or person having the care of any goods which shall have been carried upon any such Railway, or shall be brought on to the premises of any such Railway Company for the purpose of being carried on their Railway, shall, on demand by any servant of the Company appointed to receive goods to be carried on that part of the Railway on which such goods shall have been carried, or shall be about to be carried, deliver to such servant an exact account in writing signed by him of the number or quantity of such goods.

XII. If any such owner or person as aforesaid shall wilfully fail to give such account to such servant of the Company, or if he shall wilfully give a false account thereof, he shall for every such offence be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for every ton of goods, or for any parcel exceeding one hundred weight.

XIII. No person shall carry upon any such Railway any dangerous goods, or be entitled to require any such Railway Company to carry upon such Railway any luggage or goods which in the judgment of the Company or any of their servants shall be of a dangerous nature; and if any person shall carry upon such Railway any dangerous goods, or shall deliver to such Railway Company any such goods for the purpose of being carried upon such Railway, without distinctly marking their nature on the outside of the package containing the same, or otherwise giving notice in writing of the nature thereof to the book-keeper, or other servant of the Company to whom the same shall be delivered for the purpose of being so carried, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees for every such offence; and it shall be lawful for any such Company or any of their servants to refuse to carry any luggage or parcel that they may suspect to contain goods of a dangerous nature, and to require the same to be opened to ascertain the fact previously to carrying the same; and in case any such luggage or parcel shall be received by the Company for the purpose of being carried on the Railway, it shall be lawful for the Company or any of their servants to stop the transit thereof until they shall be satisfied as to the nature of the contents of the baggage or parcel.

XIV. Any person who shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Company in the discharge of his duty on such Railway, or any of the works, stations, or premises connected therewith, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

XV. Any person who shall trespass upon any such Railway, or upon any of the lands, stations, or other premises belonging to the Company, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees; and if any such person shall refuse to leave such Railway or premises on being requested to do so by any officer or servant of the Company, or by any other person on behalf of the Company, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, and may be immediately removed from such Railway or premises by such officer, servant, or other person as aforesaid.

XVI. No. 90 of 1854.—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to declare, in accordance with the practice obtaining under the Bengal Presidency, that the non-performance of duty by a Mustered Follower, whether arising from his illness, or his departure on leave, must put the State to no extra expense.

Accordingly, Mustered Followers of every description, when absent on leave, are to furnish substitutes, (failing which, the Officer under whose immediate Command or Charge they serve, will provide them,) who are to be regularly Mustered, and pay drawn for them, the absentee not being entitled to any. The Muster Rolls must show the parties for whom the substitutes are serving, and the cause of absence.

Followers when "sick present," are entitled to their pay, so long as it may be considered unnecessary to entertain substitutes to perform their duties.

Regimental Pundits are so far exempted from the operation of the above rule as not to be required to furnish substitutes, unless their absence exceeds a month.

Notice

Is hereby given, that persons desirous of entering into a contract for SUPPLYING COFFINS, &c. to this Department, for the term of one year from the 1st day of April next, may, on application at this Office from 11 A. M. till 5 P. M. daily (Sundays excepted), obtain copies of the schedule or list of prices, and such information relating thereto as they may require.

2. Verbal offers for the contract will be received at this Office on Tuesday the 28th instant, at 2 P. M. precisely, when intending contractors will be required to bid a per-centage above or below the prices exhibited in the above list at which the supply will be made, on the understanding that the articles supplied are to be of unexceptionable quality, or of the sort usually supplied; and are to be delivered, in the first instance at the Commissariat Stores, if required, and afterwards to the indenting departments, in good condition, free of all charges beyond the stipulated price, in such number as may from time to time be demanded, and that the same are liable to examination and rejection by the executive Commissariat Officer, or by the indenting or receiving Officer; or by a Committee of Officers appointed on the part of Government, in the event of the contractor being dissatisfied with the decision of the above Officers, or either of them; it being understood that the decision of such Committee is to be final, and binding on all parties.

3. No person will be allowed to bid for the contract unless he previously deposits in this Office, in cash, the sum of Rupees (16) sixteen, which sum will be forfeited in the event of delay, evasion, or refusal on the part of the contractor to execute the necessary deed of contract, whenever required to do so, on his offer being accepted; in which latter case he must be prepared to give unexceptionable bonded security to the further amount of Rupees (66) sixty-six, which, together with the amount previously deposited, will be held as a guarantee for the due fulfilment of his contract.

4. A contractor must comply immediately with all emergent demands, and meet others of less urgency within the periods stated in the requisitions made upon him; in failure whereof, or if any supply be condemned by a Committee of Officers as aforesaid, the articles, or such others as may be required in lieu thereof, shall be purchased by this department without delay, at his risk and cost, if it be considered expedient to do so; and in all such cases (30) thirty per cent. upon the amount of expenses incurred, or a fine of from Rupees (25) twenty-five to (50) fifty, at the option of the executive Commissariat Officer, will be levied as liquidated damages for each and every such breach of contract, it being understood that the simple condemnation of any article by a Committee constitutes such a breach of contract, whether the rejected articles be replaced by the contractor or by this Department; in every such case, also, it is to be understood that the contract may be cancelled, at the discretion of the Commissary General, and that if the contract be so cancelled, the cash deposit of Rupees (16) sixteen, mentioned in para. 3 of this Notice, will be forfeited to Government.

5. It is also to be understood that any negligence, evasion, or refusal on the part of a contractor to make supplies, or obey orders, or any attempt on his part, or that of his agents, to pass off articles of an inferior quality in lieu of those he is bound to supply, or any neglect to deliver them at the time and place ordered, will subject him, in every instance, to be fined to the extent of Rupees (25) twenty-five, at the option of the executive Commissariat Officer, from whose order an appeal may be made to the Commissary General, whose decision is to be final; but in cases when it may be deemed fit to exact any of the penalties provided for in the preceding clause, no further penalty shall be leviable under this clause.

6. It is further to be understood, that the contractor, or an accredited agent on his part, approved of by the executive Commissariat Officer, is to attend at this Office during the usual hours of business, i. e. from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. daily

(Sundays excepted), also at such other time or place as may be indicated by the executive Commissariat Officer, when he may consider it desirable for the public service to require such attendance, under penalty in every instance, at the option of the executive Commissariat Officer, to the extent of Rupees (15) fifteen, should he (the contractor) or his agent act contrary to this rule.

7. Any party whose offer is accepted will be required to produce his sureties, for the approval of the Honorable Company's Solicitor, within fifteen days from the date of the acceptance of his offer, or the contract will be resold. No reason will be stated for rejecting any security offered.

8. Bills for articles supplied under this contract must be preferred within one month from the date of the delivery of the articles, in default of which the contractor will forfeit the full value of the supplies for which bills have not been so preferred, unless it clearly appear, to the satisfaction of the Commissary General, that the delay was unavoidable.

9. The amount of retrenchments made by the Military Board on the contractors' bills will be recovered from the first bills preferred for payment; but in the event of such retrenchments, or any portion thereof, being remitted, the amount so remitted will be refunded.

10. Any party who, after offering for the contract, fails to furnish the necessary security, as provided for in clause 7 of this Notice, will be interdicted from bidding on future occasions, unless he produces a certificate from individuals of unexceptionable character and sufficient means, guaranteeing the due execution and performance of the contract, on his offer being accepted.

11. The annual outlay on the above contract is estimated at Rupees 333.

12. No reason will be assigned for the rejection of any offer.

Acting Deputy Commissary General.

No person will be allowed to bid for the contract unless he previously deposits in this Office, in cash, the sum of Rupees (2,112) two thousand one hundred and twelve, which sum will be forfeited in the event of delay, evasion, or refusal on the part of the contractor to execute the necessary deed of contract, whenever required to do so, on his offer being accepted; in which latter case he must be prepared to give unexceptionable bonded security to the further amount of Rupees (8,449) eight thousand four hundred and forty-nine, which, together with the amount previously deposited, will be held as a guarantee for the due fulfilment of his contract.

4. A contractor must comply immediately with all emergent demands, and meet others of less urgency within the periods stated in the requisitions made upon him; in failure whereof, or if any supply be condemned by a Committee of Officers as aforesaid, the articles, or such others as may be required in lieu thereof, shall be purchased by this Department without delay, at his risk and cost, if it be considered expedient to do so; and in all such cases (30) thirty per cent. upon the amount of expenses incurred, or a fine of from Rupees (30) thirty to (200) two hundred, at the option of the executive Commissariat Officer, will be levied as liquidated damages for each and every such breach of contract, it being understood that the simple condemnation of any article by a Committee constitutes such a breach of contract, whether the rejected articles be replaced by the contractor or by this Department; in every such case, also, it is to be understood that the contract may be cancelled, at the discretion of the Commissary General, and that if the contract be so cancelled, the cash deposit of Rupees (2,112) two thousand one hundred and twelve, mentioned in para. 3 of this Notice, will be forfeited to Government.

5. It is also to be understood, that any negligence, evasion, or refusal on the part of a contractor to make supplies, or obey orders, or any attempt on his part, or that of his agents, to pass off articles of an inferior quality in lieu of those he is bound to supply, or any neglect to deliver them at the time and place ordered, will subject him, in every instance, to be fined to the extent of Rupees (25) twenty-five, at the option of the executive Commissariat Officer, from whose order an appeal may be made to the Commissary General, whose decision is to be final; but in cases when it may be deemed fit to exact any of the penalties provided for in the preceding clause, no further penalty shall be leviable under this clause.

6. It is further to be understood, that the contractor, or an accredited agent on his part, approved of by the executive Commissariat Officer, is to attend at this Office during the usual hours of business, i. e. from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. daily (Sundays excepted), also at such other time or place as may be indicated by the executive Commissariat Officer, when he may consider it desirable for the public service to require such attendance, under penalty, at the option of the executive Commissariat Officer, in every instance, to the extent of Rupees (15) fifteen, should he (the contractor) or his agent act contrary to this rule.

7. Any party whose offer is accepted will be required to produce his sureties for the approval of the Honorable Company's Solicitor, within fifteen days from the date of the acceptance of his offer, or the contract will be resold. No reason will be stated for rejecting any security offered.

8. Bills for articles supplied under this contract must be preferred within one month from the date of the delivery of the articles, in default of which the contractor will forfeit the full value of the supplies for which bills have not been so preferred, unless it clearly appear, to the satisfaction of the Commissary General, that the delay was unavoidable.

9. The amount of retrenchments made by the Military Board on the contractor's bills will be recovered from the first bills preferred for payment; but in the event of such retrenchments, or any portion thereof, being remitted, the amount so remitted will be refunded.

10. Any party who, after offering for the contract, fails to furnish the necessary security, as provided for in clause 7 of this Notice, will be interdicted from bidding on future occasions, unless he produces a certificate from individuals, of unexceptionable character and sufficient means, guaranteeing the due execution and performance of the contract on his offer being accepted.

11. The annual outlay on the above contract is estimated at Rupees 42,246.

12. No reason will be assigned for the rejection of any offer.

J. B. RAMSAY, Captain,

Acting Deputy Commissary General.

Bombay, Depy. Commy. Genl's Office,

8th February 1854.

Notice

Is hereby given, that verbal offers will be received at this Office, on Monday the 27th February 1854, at 12 o'clock precisely, for SUPPLYING the following ARTICLES to the Commissariat Department at Sholapoor, for a period of one year, viz :—

Gram, cleaned, 1st sort, from 15th April 1854 to 14th April 1855.

Kurbee, without roots, from 1st April 1854 to 31st March 1855.

2. The Gram and Kurbee must be of unexceptionable quality, of the description usually furnished to this Department, and delivered daily, free of all expense beyond the stipulated price, into the Commissariat Stores, or at the Cavalry, Artillery, or Cattle Lines. If any Gram or Kurbee tendered is considered objectionable by the executive Commissariat Officer or by the indenting Officers, or is condemned by a Committee of Officers appointed on behalf of Government, in the event of the contractor being dissatisfied with the decision of the above-mentioned Officers, and is not immediately exchanged by the contractor, the required quantity will be purchased by this Department without delay, at his risk and cost; and in all such cases (30) thirty per cent. upon the amount of the expenses incurred, or a fine of Rs. (50) fifty, at the option of the executive Commissariat Officer, will be levied as liquidated damages for each and every such breach of contract, it being understood that the simple condemnation of any quantity of Gram or Kurbee by a Committee constitutes such breach of contract, whether the rejected articles be replaced by the contractor or by this Department; in every such case, also, it is to be understood that the contract may be cancelled, at the discretion of the Commissary General, and that if the contract be so cancelled, the cash deposits below specified will be forfeited to Government.

3. It is to be distinctly understood, that any negligence, evasion, or refusal on the part of the contractor to make supplies, or obey orders, or any attempt on his part or that of his agents to pass off articles of an inferior quality to what they are bound to supply, or any neglect to deliver them at the time or place named, will subject him in every instance to a fine to the extent of Rs. (25) twenty-five, at the option of the executive Commissariat Officer, from whose order an appeal may be made to the Commissary General, whose decision is to be final; but in cases when it may be deemed necessary to exact any of the penalties provided for in the preceding clause, no further penalty shall be leviable under this clause.

4. The probable annual consumption of the above articles is—

Kurbee.....	1,277	8	0

5. The person whose offer for the Gram contract may be accepted will be required to keep, in the Commissariat Godowns in the Fort, a supply equal to at least the estimated consumption for three months.

6. The contracts for supplying Gram and Kurbee will be sold separately, and parties bidding must state the number of pounds per Company's Rupee which they are willing to give. No person will be allowed to bid for the Gram contract who has not previously deposited in this Office Rupees one thousand and two hundred, or for the Kurbee contract who has not deposited Rupees sixty-four, which sums will be forfeited in the event of delay, evasion, or refusal on the part of any bidder to execute the necessary deed of contract when required to do so, in the event of his offer being accepted. Bonded security to the further amount of Rupees four thousand eight hundred for the Gram contract, and Rupees two hundred and fifty-six for the Kurbee contract, in addition to the above-mentioned deposits, will also be required previous to the execution of the contracts, and the whole will be held as a guarantee for its due fulfilment.

7. The parties whose offers may be accepted will be required to produce their securities for the approval of the Civil or Bazar Authorities within six days from the date of the acceptance of their offers; should they fail to do so, the contracts will be resold, and they will not be allowed to bid for any contract on future occasions.

8. Sums retrenched by the Military Board will be recovered from the first bill subsequently presented for payment by the contractor; if such retrenchments are eventually remitted, the amount will be refunded to him.

9. No reason will be assigned for the rejection of any offer.

10. All further particulars may be learnt on application at this Office, any day between the hours of 10 and 4 o'clock, Sundays excepted.
