EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

RESOLUTION OF GOVERNMENT.

Bombay Castle, 4th November 1885.

No. 1971.—In a programme of the proceedings to be held at the prize distribution ceremony of the Poona High School for Girls, forwarded to a Member of Council on the day of the ceremony, the singing of the National Anthem appeared as part of those proceedings.

At the ceremony the Honourable Member received a programme in which the words "The National Anthem" were erased, and it appears that other copies of the programme with a similar erasure were distributed among the assembly.

Such an ostentatious change of the programme in a very important particular naturally caused the Government to institute an enquiry into its cause.

The minutes of a meeting of the Managing Committee of October 8th contain the statement that "it was thought impossible to secure the whole audience rising since it was well known from previous experience of such mixed assemblies that Natives being unacquainted with the practice were not accustomed to rise, and there was no time to arrange that the audience on the present occasion should do so."

Government are aware that it would not necessarily imply disrespect on the part of a Native audience to remain seated whilst a hymn was being sung in praise of a person or of an idea entitled to homage. To make a grievance of the non-observance of Western customs on the part of a mixed assembly would be as unfair as to make a grievance of the fact that European officials in the absence of a programme have not risen because a Maráthi adaptation of the National Anthem was unknown to them.

Government could not therefore, in case a mixed audience as a whole should not rise, as a rule attach any importance to this circumstance.

On this occasion however His Highness the Gáikwád was present and presiding, and as it cannot be supposed that one of the most enlightened and courteous Indian Princes would have refrained from rising when the Members of Council rose on the proceedings reaching the last item of the programme, and as their example would naturally and spontaneously have been followed by the audience, Government cannot admit that there was the slightest ground for apprehending any departure from the natural course by an educated audience such as attends at a distribution of school prizes.

Besides, a request to the audience to rise, addressed to them before the performance of the National Anthem, would undoubtedly have been at once complied with, and was the simplest way of preventing the difficulty from arising.

Government cannot, therefore, accept this explanation, and are obliged to express disapproval of the voluntary erasure of the National Anthem after its voluntary insertion, and of the voluntary distribution of copies with the words "The National Anthem" erased by the School Committee.

As Oriental Society justly prides itself on the extreme courtesy which pervades all classes, it is natural that this proceeding should provoke unfavourable comments, and give offence to the Authorities who had been invited, and who were placed in a false position.

Government regret this all the more as they are well aware that the Committee are grappling with great difficulties in initiating a most creditable reform of female education on which the welfare of the country so much depends. The energetic and intelligent assistance given by the Committee in promoting the success of a Government school is fully appreciated by Government.

Though Government have thought it essential to record their opinion on an important breach of the rules which are invariably prescribed by Government officers in drawing up programmes of ceremonies, and observed by them, they are pleased to put on record the expression of "deep regret" by the Committee at their meeting of October 11th, and their assurance that "nothing could be more remote from their intentions than to defend the action of erasing the National Anthem," and also the fact that at the ceremony notwithstanding the intended omission the National Anthem was actually sung.

*By order of His Excellency the Right
Honourable the Governor in Council,*

JOHN JARDINE,

Acting Chief Secretary to Government.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

Bombay Castle, 9th November 1885.

No. 4248.—In exercise of the power conferred by Act I. of 1870, the following Rules for Quarantine against Cholera have been made by the Government of Bombay, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council: they will take effect from the 4th instant in the Port of Aden and at Perim as a temporary measure :—

- I.—The Commander of every vessel, including buggalows or other native craft, arriving from Tonquin shall, before entering the harbour, indicate by signal the port from which such vessel has come.
- II.—Such Commander shall not, except as hereinafter provided, allow any communication, either with the pilot boat, except orally, or with the shore, or with any other vessel or boat in the harbour.

III.—Immediately on arrival the Commander shall cause the letter R of the Commercial Signal Code to be hoisted, and shall keep the said flag flying during his stay in port or until authorized by the Health Officer to haul it down. If communication with the shore is not desired, the vessel shall anchor at such place as may be pointed out by the Port authorities, having regard to the season of the year. If communication with the shore is desired, the Health Officer shall go alongside the vessel, and, after all necessary enquiries, shall direct the Commander to take the vessel to the quarantine anchorage duly appointed and notified in that behalf by the Resident, there to remain for a period of seven days from the date of arrival, or for the shorter period prescribed in Rule IV., and undergo disinfection, which should apply as well to crew, passengers, effects, and susceptible goods.

IV.—If the Health Officer of the Port has sufficient evidence that no cases of a suspicious nature have taken place on board during the voyage, and if the vessel is besides in good hygienic condition, the duration of the quarantine will be diminished according to the following scale:—

After eight days of voyage	...	...	six days of quarantine.
Do. nine do.	...	...	five do.
Do. ten do.	...	...	four do.
Do. eleven do.	...	...	three do.
Do. twelve do.	...	...	two do.
Do. thirteen do. and upwards	...	...	twenty-four hours of quarantine.

V.—If during the period a vessel is at the quarantine anchorage aforesaid, any case or cases of cholera should occur on board, the said vessel shall remain in quarantine for a period of seven days from the date of the last case occurring, and be subject to all the prohibitions provided for in Rule III.

VI.—When any vessel has been placed in quarantine as aforesaid, the Health Officer may direct the removal of so many of the passengers and crew as may not be suffering from illness, and whose services may not be required on board the vessel, to such particular spots as may from time to time be selected by the Resident as places of quarantine, there to remain for a period of seven days. If a case of cholera occurs among such passengers and crew during any such period, they shall remain in a place of quarantine for a period of fifteen days from the date of the occurrence of the last case of such illness.

VII.—Any mails or cargo which may be brought by any vessel so arriving shall be landed under such precautions as the Health Officer may deem necessary to prevent the spread of the disease.

VIII.—It will be the duty of the Port Officer to facilitate the conveyance to all vessels in quarantine of such supplies of provisions, stores and other articles as may be required by those on board. Such supplies will be placed on the boats of the vessels in quarantine to be subsequently removed by members of their crews.

IX.—All vessels arriving at Aden and Perim which may have communicated with vessels coming from Tonquin shall be subjected to the same quarantine as vessels arriving at Aden and Perim from that Port.

X.—All vessels which have undergone quarantine in the manner above prescribed should have the fact clearly stated on their Bills of Health.
