REGULATIONS.

1. The Exhibition will be opened on or about the 1st May 1886, and will remain open for a period of about six months.
2. Subject to the conditions stated in Regulations 3 and 4, the objects to be exhibited are left entirely to the discretion of the Governments participating, in so far as they illustrate the resources, products, and manufactures of the Colonies and the Indian Empire. For reasons stated elsewhere, no classification has been attempted by the Royal Commission; but each Government is invited to classify its own collection.
3. All fulminating and explosive substances and all dangerous substances are absolutely forbidden to be sent, but they may be represented by models or dummies.
4. Spirits, oils, essences, corrosive substances, and generally all substances which might spoil other articles or cause inconvenience to the public, can only be received in substantial and suitable vessels of small size.
5. There will be no charge for space.
6. Motive power and water will be supplied free of cost, provided that notice by letter or cable is given before the 1st January 1886. Foundations can be laid, under the superintendence of the Secretary to the Royal Commission, upon requisition from the Executive Commissioners with their order for payment. The work will be done at the expense of the Commissions requiring it; and full particulars of the size, character, and intended position of machines should be given.
7. As the allotments of space have in most cases been already notified to the Colonial and Indian Governments, no further applications can, except under special circumstances, be entertained. Applications to exhibit from any individual or firm will be referred to the Executive Commissioners for the various Colonies and for India.
8. The Executive Commissioners appointed by their respective Governments will have the entire control of the arrangements of the goods exhibited in their respective sections, subject to the conditions stated in Regulations 9 to 16.
9. At least one main passage of not less than fifteen feet must extend throughout each Court from end to end; and, where doors or openings occur, passages of not less than ten feet in width must be provided communicating with the main central passage. The necessity of providing adequate space for allowing the proper inspection of articles exhibited need scarcely be insisted upon.
10. Signs or name-boards should be placed parallel with the main passages; that is, parallel with the frontage of the respective stands. It is suggested that they should be black with gold letters. Care should be taken to prevent any interference with the electric lighting arrangements.
11. All handbills, printed matter, &c., connected with exhibits, and intended for gratuitous distribution, should be duly authorised by the Executive Commissioners for each country, who will find the Secretary to the Royal Commission ready to co-operate with them.
12. It is specially requested that no cases or goods should exceed the height of ten feet. This rule is not intended to prevent the erection of any special trophies; but designs to scale of all trophies should, previous to their erection, be notified to the Secretary to the Royal Commission.
13. As the Exhibition Buildings are leased by the Royal Commission, no alterations affecting the structure of the buildings as regards the floor, walls, or roofing can be permitted without special application to the Secretary to the Royal Commission.
14. Executive Commissioners will be required to provide all necessary attendance for keeping the stands and exhibits in their section properly cleaned and in good order: all stands should remain uncovered during the hours the Exhibition is open to the public.
15. It is probable that the hours during which the Exhibition will remain open to the public will be from 10 A.M. to 10 P.M. on all days, except Wednesdays and Saturdays, when the hour of closing will be 11 P.M. These arrangements are, however, subject to alterations. The Exhibition will not be open on Sundays.
- *16. No Exhibit may be removed from the Exhibition Buildings until the close of the Exhibition without the permission of the Executive Commissioners, countersigned by the Secretary to the Royal Commission; and consequently no selling, with a view to removal prior to the close of the Exhibition, should be allowed.
17. No article exhibited may be photographed, drawn, copied, or reproduced in any manner whatsoever without the special sanction of the Executive Commissioner of the section: this sanction should be notified to the Secretary to the Royal Commission.
18. All packages containing goods intended for exhibition must have painted on them the distinctive mark C. I. E., together with the name of the colony from which they are sent. They must in all cases be consigned to the Executive Commissioner of the Colony from which they are sent.
19. All goods intended for exhibition should reach the Exhibition Buildings on or before the 31st January 1886, and, if convenient to Executive Commissioners, they can be received from 1st January 1886. It is hoped that everything will be reported as ready for inspection at least fourteen days previous to the end of April.
20. Cases should be unpacked with the greatest possible despatch, and when empty should be removed immediately from the buildings. The Secretary to the Royal Commission will have pleasure in recommending places of storage for empty cases; but it must be distinctly understood that all arrangements for the unpacking, removal, storage, and bringing back of cases must be made, and expenses borne, by the various Colonial and Indian Commissions.

* N.B.—A modification of Rule 16 as applied to the Private Exhibitors' Court has already been notified by me to Mr. Buck, at will be understood, however, that the rule cannot be cancelled, although a special exception or modification has been allowed in regards this Court.

21. All expenses connected with the installation and display of Exhibits will be defrayed by the Colonial and Indian Commissions.

22. The Royal Commission reserves to itself the right of refusing to admit any Exhibit.

23. The Royal Commission reserves to itself the sole right of publishing and selling a General Catalogue and General Guide and Plans of the Exhibition; and for this purpose requests that a descriptive list, duly classified of the goods intended for exhibition, may be forwarded to the Secretary to the Royal Commission by the respective Commissions not later than the 1st December 1885. Each Commission will, however, be at liberty to publish and sell through the official publishers to the Royal Commission a special Catalogue of its collection. It is hoped, for the sake of uniformity, that the size of all such publications may be the same size as that of the General Catalogue, known as Demy 8vo. (8 $\frac{3}{4}$ in, 5 $\frac{3}{4}$ in.).

24. A Colonial Dining Room will be organised, under the superintendence of the Royal Commission, to which Exhibitors are invited to send, through their Executive Commissioners, Colonial preserved food and wines for consumption by Visitors. Special Regulations have been prepared for this department.

25. Arrangements will be made for the sampling of Wines; and an Officer will be appointed to superintend this department. Cellarage accommodation will be provided.

26. No Refreshment or Tasting Bars will be allowed, beyond those arranged for by the Royal Commission.

27. It is proposed to organise a Fruit and Vegetable Market, at which Colonial and Indian produce will be on sale. Special regulations will be framed for this section of the Exhibition.

28. It is proposed to hold an Exhibition of Living Animals from the Colonies and India. Special rules will be framed for its regulation.

29. The right to add to, alter, amend, or expunge any of these rules is reserved by the Royal Commission.

30. The Royal Commission, while taking every precaution for the protection of articles in the buildings, cannot hold itself responsible for their loss or damage, from whatsoever cause arising.

31. If any damage or injury shall be caused or occasioned during the Exhibition by any exhibited machine, implement, or article to any visitor or other person, or to any officer, servant, or others then and there employed by the Royal Commission of the Colonial and Indian Exhibition, 1886, then the Executive Commissioner in whose section such machinery, implement, or article may be placed shall indemnify and hold harmless the said Royal Commission from and against all actions, suits, expenses, and claims on account or in respect of any such damage or injury which may be so caused or occasioned.

32. Only objects of British East Indian manufacture will be admitted; and under no pretence whatever will Persian, Turkish, Chinese, or Japanese Art Works be permitted to be either shown or stored in the Exhibition. The Royal Commission reserves the right of ordering the removal of any objects it considers disqualified; and the Exhibitors hereby engage to remove any such Exhibits after due notice, or to permit the removal by Officers of the Commission.

33. All communications to be addressed to the Secretary to the Royal Commission, Exhibition Buildings, South Kensington, London, S.W.,
