Every such registration shall hold good for a period of one year only.

30. No person other than a forest officer whose duty it is to use such mark, shall use any property-mark for timber which is identical with, or nearly resembles, any Government transit-mark, or any mark with which timber belonging to Government is marked; and no person shall, while any timber is in transit under a pass issued by any person or by the agent of any person authorized in this behalf under clause (d) of Rule 4, alter or efface any mark on the same.

Stoppage in transit.

31. (1) Forest-produce in transit may be stopped and examined at any place by any Forest, Police or Land Revenue officer, if such officer shall have reasonable grounds for suspecting that any money which is due to Government in respect thereof has not been paid, or that any forest offence has been or is being committed in respect thereof.

(2) If the forest-produce in transit consists or is reasonably suspected to consist, in whole or in part, of mahuda flowers, and there are reasonable grounds for suspecting as aforesaid, it may be stopped and examined by any officer of the Customs, Salt or A'bhkari Department, as well as by any of the officers aforesaid.

32. No person shall close up or obstruct the channel or any portion of the bank of any river lawfully used for the transit of forest-produce, or throw grass, brushwood, branches or leaves into any such river, or do any other act which may cause such river to be closed or obstructed.

33. (1) Any forest officer not lower in rank than a Sub-Assistant Conservator of Forests, may take such measures as he shall at any time deem to be emergently necessary for the prevention or removal of any obstruction of the channel, or of any part of a bank of a river lawfully used for the transit of forest-produce; but any such case which is not emergent shall be reported to the Collector, who may by written notice require the person whose act or negligence has caused or is likely to cause the obstruction, to remove or take steps for preventing the same within a period to be named in such notice, and, if such person fails to comply with such notice, may himself cause such measures to be taken as he shall deem necessary.

(2) The costs reasonably incurred by a forest officer or by the Collector under this rule shall be payable to Government by the person whose act or negligence has necessitated the same.

Penalties.

34. Any person who infringes any of the foregoing rules shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.
