under date Simla, the 21st April 1892.*

Read—

The Report of the Public Service Commission and the opinions expressed thereon by Local Governments and Administrations.

The Despatch of the Government of India to the Secretary of State, No. 58, dated the 9th October 1888, reviewing and stating its conclusions on the principal questions discussed in the Report.

The Despatch of the Secretary of State, No. 104, dated the 12th September 1889, communicating His Lordship's decision upon the recommendations made in the Report and by the Government of India, so far as they deal with the higher branches of Executive and Judicial work throughout India.

Letters to Local Governments and Administrations, dated the 14th February 1890, forwarding a copy of the Secretary of State's Despatch, and making suggestions as to the manner in which its decisions may best be given effect to.

Replies from the Local Governments and Administrations consulted.

The Despatch of the Government of India to the Secretary of State, No. 9, dated the 10th February 1892, stating the conclusions arrived at by the Governor General in Council on the subject.

The reply of the Secretary of State, No. 30, dated the 24th March 1892, concurring in the conclusions set forth by the Government of India.

RESOLUTION.

In his Despatch No. 104, dated 12th September 1889, the Secretary of State for India in Council announced the decision at which he had arrived on the recommendations made in the Report of the Commission appointed in 1886 to consider the question of the admission of Natives of India to higher and more extensive employment in the Civil Administration of the country.

2. The Secretary of State's Despatch having been communicated to the Local Governments and Administrations for consideration, and their replies having been received, the Governor General in Council is now in a position to pass orders upon the most important points calling for determination.

3. The following appointments in each province shall for the present be entered in the list as open to the Provincial Service :—

4. Before passing orders as to the Central Provinces, His Excellency will await a further expression of Mr. MacDonnell's views on the question. And the Government of India is constrained to agree in the opinion expressed by successive Chief Commissioners of Assam that that province is not yet ripe for the admission of provincial officers to any of the reserved posts. It appears that the Provincial Service in Assam is largely recruited from Bengal, and that it would be almost, if not quite, impossible, in view of the progress in education and the administrative aptitudes of the people, to find within any time which can now be foreseen an indigenous officer who could be utilized in one of these posts. Assam must therefore, like Burma, for the present remain outside the scope of the present orders.

5. Dealing in the first instance only with the superior appointments, and reserving for the next paragraph the case of Joint and Assistant Magistrates and Collectors, the following are the rates of pay for officers of the Provincial Service in each grade, which the Secretary of State has sanctioned:—

		sioner ...	600

These rates of pay will, of course, be liable to alteration at any time should the interests of the public service require it.

6. The Government of India have determined, with the approval of the Secretary of State, to amalgamate the scheduled posts on the Executive side subordinate to the headship of a district with the existing grades of Deputy Magistrates and Collectors.

These posts are the following :—

Madras ...	7
Bombay...	9
Bengal ...	8
North-Western Provinces and Oudh	9
Punjab ...	3

In all these Provinces the majority of them are at present held by Statutory Civilians appointed under the rules of 1879, while in some they are still occupied by officers of the Civil Service of India or Commissions appointed before 1882. Until these Statutory Civil Servants are provided for, either by promotion or by amalgamation with the new Provincial Service, the posts which they hold cannot be thrown into the general cadre of the latter service; but when that happens, and when the prior claims of officers of the Civil Service of India and Commissions have been satisfied, the posts now specified should be distributed as follows among the existing grades of Deputy Magistrates and Collectors and Extra Assistant Commissioners :—

Madras.

	Rs.
2 posts in the 1st grade on ...	700
(corresponding to Sub-Collector.)
4 posts in the 3rd grade on ...	500
(corresponding to Head Assistant.)
1 post in the 5th grade on ...	300
(corresponding to passed Assistant.)

Bengal.

2 posts in the 3rd grade on ...	600
(corresponding to Joint Magistrate, 1st grade.)
2 posts in the 4th grade on ...	500
(corresponding to Joint Magistrate, 2nd grade.)

Bengal—continued.

	Rs.
2 posts in the 5th grade on ...	400
2 posts in the 6th grade on ...	300
(corresponding to Assistant Magistrates on Rs. 500 and Rs. 450 respectively.)

Bombay.

3 posts in the 3rd grade on ...	600
(corresponding to First Assistant.)
4 posts in the 4th grade on ...	500
(corresponding to Second Assistant.)
2 posts in the 6th grade on ...	300
(corresponding to passed Assistant.)

North-Western Provinces and Oudh.		Punjab.
	Rs.		Rs.
4 posts in the 5th grade on ...	600	1 post of Extra Assistant Commissioner, 3rd grade, on ...	600
(corresponding to Joint Magistrates and Assistant Commissioners, 1st grade.)		(corresponding to Assistant Commissioner, 1st grade.)
5 posts in the 3rd grade on ...	400	1 post of Extra Assistant Commissioner, 5th grade, on ...	400
(corresponding to Joint Magistrates and Assistant Commissioners, 2nd grade.)		(corresponding to Assistant Commissioner, 2nd grade.)
		1 post of Extra Assistant Commissioner, 6th grade, on ...	300
		(corresponding to Assistant Commissioner, 3rd grade.)

7. The addition of these posts to the cadre of the Provincial Service will necessitate recruitment in the lower grades to supply the place of those who will be moved up to fill them; and this can take place at once where the condition of the Service demands it. Those Statutory Civilians who were appointed in the various provinces in 1889 and 1890 on the understanding that they would be transferred to the Provincial Service when it was constituted should now be gazetted to their appropriate places in that Service. In accordance with the decision of the Secretary of State they will, like other Statutory Civil Servants who join the Provincial Service, be understood to have a preferential claim for promotion to the scheduled posts (subject, of course, to the special claims of members of the Civil Service of India and officers of the Commissions appointed before 1882) over the other members of that Service.

8. The Statutory rules of 1879 now require the approval and sanction of the Governor General in Council to all nominations made by Local Governments. These nominations are at present ordinarily to offices in the subordinate ranks of the Covenanted Civil Service. The subordinate posts included in the list being thrown open to the Provincial Service, the Local Government will no longer require the sanction of the Government of India to appointments to them. His Excellency in Council, however, thinks that for the present it will be necessary to retain the rule requiring such sanction in the case of appointments (whether permanent or officiating for a period exceeding three months) under the Statute to Headships of Districts and District Judgeships in Madras, Bombay, Bengal, and the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, and to Headships of Districts, Divisional Judgeships, and Settlement Collectorships in the Punjab. He is willing that in the case of all other scheduled appointments the Local Government should nominate without reference to him. He is also willing that in the case of officiating appointments of Provincial Officers for short vacancies, not exceeding three months at a time, to Headships of Districts and the other posts mentioned above, such reference should be dispensed with. Such short vacancies will afford the means of testing an officer's fitness for more extended employment in those posts; and, in reporting for sanction nominations for longer periods, it should always be stated whether an officer has been tried in this manner, and with what result. As a general rule the Governor General in Council thinks that it will be prudent to take every suitable opportunity of thus ascertaining an officer's capacity before proposing to employ him permanently in these important and responsible posts. His Excellency in Council also desires to correct the impression which appears to have prevailed in some quarters that it will be necessary for a Provincial Civil Servant to go through the whole succession of subordinate grades in the Executive or Judicial Service before he can be selected for a scheduled post. On the contrary, it will always be desirable to select persons for higher executive office who, while they have given proof of distinguished ability by sufficiently long service, are still comparatively young, and possess that bodily activity which is a sine qua non for such employment. Every appointment of the kind must be based wholly upon fitness and merit, seniority being regarded only when the claims of two or more officers who are equally fit come into competition. Nor does the Governor General in Council intend that selection should be less absolute or more restricted to the higher grades of the Provincial Service in the case of judicial appointments. It has been too much the custom to regard promotion from grade to grade of the Subordinate Executive and Judicial Services as a mere matter of seniority; and it should be made publicly known that every Government and Administration reserves liberty to make promotions in these grades without regard to seniority.

9. In Appendix A attached to this Resolution will be found an example of the form in which the Government of India think that the list of appointments open to the Provincial Service should be published by the Local Government. Each Local Government should frame and issue its list accordingly. In the Quarterly Provincial Civil List this form should, with the omission of the last paragraph, be prefixed to that division of the list which exhibits the appointments held by members of the Provincial Service. In lieu of the last paragraph a note should be entered in the list of subordinate offices against each grade to which additions have been made referring to the notification, and stating that "To this grade appointments have been added as representing the same number of appointments of Civil Service."

10. The Government of India recently directed that each Statutory Civilian appointed before the close of 1889 might be called upon to choose whether he would retain his present position or be transferred to the Provincial Service with an acknowledgment of his preferential claims to promotion to scheduled appointments before other members of the Provincial Service. As regards Bengal, Madras, the North-West Provinces, and Central Provinces, only one Statutory Civilian has elected to enter the Provincial Service. In Bombay and the Punjab they have not yet made their election. But as it is not improbable

INDIA—BAY OF BENGAL—BURMA.

Arakan Coast. Intended alteration in the character of Oyster Island Light.

It is intended to alter the character of Oyster Island Light on or about the 20th May 1892. The new light will be dioptric occulting of the first order with an occulting period of 28 seconds light and 2 seconds dark.

The apparatus will illuminate all round the horizon, 345 degrees to be of white light and 15 degrees of red light, the latter covering Oyster Reef, on which the overturned Pile light-house stood prior to 1884, or between the bearings of N. 50° W. and N. 35° W. Magnetic from seaward.

The new light-house, 141 feet high and circular, is constructed of iron and will be painted in alternate bands of black and white. The tower is a true frustum of a cone, i.e., it decreases in diameter gradually and evenly from base to top.

The focal plane of the light will be 130 feet above high water and the range of visibility will be 16 to 18 miles.

The new light-house is situated in Latitude 20° 11' 50" N., Longitude 92° 31' 51" E.

The existing light-house, which is a temporary wooden structure, will be removed and the old light discontinued.

The blue light which is burnt at present every half hour, will be discontinued as soon as the new light is exhibited.

By order of His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor in Council,
