“PUBLIC.

No. 2823, dated Simla, the 30th July 1909.

The following Despatch from the Secretary of State and the Indian Councils Act, 1909 (Statute 9 Edw. 7, Ch. 4), are published for general information :

INDIA OFFICE, LONDON,
2nd July 1909.

Public,
No. 98.

To His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor General of India in Council.

MY LORD,

Indian Councils Act, 1909 (Statute
9 Edw. 7, Ch. 4).

I forward for your information a copy of the Indian Councils Act, 1909, which has now received the Royal Assent and become law.

2. As the measure during its progress through Parliament was the subject of frequent communications between Your Excellency's Government and myself, it is unnecessary for me to review its provisions. You are no doubt already engaged in considering the action to be taken under it; and I await your proposals, which I hope will be expedited as much as possible.

I have the honour to be,

MY LORD,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble Servant,

MORLEY OF BLACKBURN.

INDIAN COUNCILS ACT, 1909.

[CH. 4.]

CHAPTER 4.

An Act to amend the Indian Councils Acts, 1861 and 1892, and the Government of India Act, 1833.

A. D. 1909.

25th May 1909.]

Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1.—(1) The additional members of the councils for the purpose of making laws and regulations (hereinafter referred to as Legislative Councils) of the Governor-General and of the Governors of Fort Saint George and Bombay, and the members of the Legislative Councils already constituted, or which may hereafter be constituted, of the several Lieutenant-Governors of Provinces, instead of being all nominated by the Governor-General, Governor, or Lieutenant-Governor in manner provided by the Indian Councils Acts, 1861 and 1892, shall include members so nominated and also members elected in accordance with regulations made under this Act, and references in those Acts to the members so nominated and their nomination shall be construed as including references to the members so elected and their election.

Amendment of constitution of Legislative Councils.

A. D. 1909.

24 & 25 Vict. c. 67. 55 & 56 Vict. c. 14.

(2) The number of additional members or members so nominated and elected, the number of such members required to constitute a quorum, the term of office of such members and the manner of filling up casual vacancies occurring by reason of absence from India, inability to attend to duty, death, acceptance of office, or resignation duly accepted, or otherwise, shall, in the case of each such council, be such as may be prescribed by regulations made under this Act:

Provided that the aggregate number of members so nominated and elected shall not, in the case of any Legislative Council mentioned in the first column of the First Schedule to this Act, exceed the number specified in the second column of that schedule.

2.—(1) The number of ordinary members of the councils of the Governors of Fort Saint George and Bombay shall be such number not exceeding four as the Secretary of State in Council may from time to time direct, of whom two at least shall be persons who at the time of their appointment have been in the service of the Crown in India for at least twelve years.

Constitution and procedure of Executive Councils of Governors of Fort Saint George and Bombay.

(2) If at any meeting of either of such councils there is an equality of votes on any question, the Governor or other person presiding shall have two votes or the casting vote.

3.—(1) It shall be lawful for the Governor-General in Council, with the approval of the Secretary of State in Council, by proclamation, to create a council in the Bengal Division of the Presidency of Fort William for the purpose of assisting the Lieutenant-Governor in the executive government of the province, and by such proclamation—

Power to constitute provincial executive councils.

(a) to make provision for determining what shall be the number (not exceeding four) and qualifications of the members of the council; and

(b) to make provision for the appointment of temporary or acting members of the council during the absence of any member from illness or otherwise, and for the procedure to be adopted in case of a difference of opinion between a Lieutenant-Governor and his council, and in the case of equality of votes, and in the case of a Lieutenant-Governor being obliged to absent himself from his council from indisposition or any other cause.

(2) It shall be lawful for the Governor-General in Council, with the like approval, by a like proclamation to create a council in any other province under a Lieutenant-Governor for the purpose of assisting the Lieutenant-Governor in the executive Government of the province: Provided that before any such proclamation is made a draft thereof shall be laid before each House of Parliament for not less than sixty days during the session of Parliament, and, if before the expiration of that time an address is presented to His Majesty by either House of Parliament against the draft or any part thereof, no further proceedings shall be taken thereon, without prejudice to the making of any new draft.

(3) Where any such proclamation has been made with respect to any province the Lieutenant-Governor may, with the consent of the Governor-General in Council, from time to time make rules and orders for the more convenient transaction of business in his council, and any order made or act done in accordance with the rules and orders so made shall be deemed to be an act or order of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

(4) Every member of any such council shall be appointed by the Governor-General, with the approval of His Majesty, and shall, as such, be a member of the Legislative Council of the Lieutenant-Governor, in addition to the members nominated by the Lieutenant-Governor and elected under the provisions of this Act.

4. The Governor-General, and the Governors of Fort Saint George and Bombay, and the Lieutenant-Governor of every province respectively shall appoint a member of their respective councils to be Vice-President thereof, and, for the purpose of temporarily holding and executing the office of Governor-General or Governor of Fort Saint George or Bombay and of presiding at meetings of Council in the absence of the Governor-General, Governor or Lieutenant-Governor, the Vice-President so appointed shall be deemed to be the senior member of Council and the member highest in rank, and the Indian Councils Act, 1861, and sections sixty-two and sixty-three of the Government of India Act, 1833, shall have effect accordingly.

5.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in the Indian Councils Act, 1861, the Governor-General in Council, the Governors in Council of Fort Saint George and Bombay respectively, and the Lieutenant-Governor or Lieutenant-Governor in Council of every province, shall make rules authorising at any meeting of their respective legislative councils the discussion of the annual financial statement of the Governor-General in Council or of their respective local Governments, as the case may be, and of any matter of general public interest, and the asking of questions, under such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed in the rules applicable to the several councils.

(2) Such rules as aforesaid may provide for the appointment of a member of any such council to preside at any such discussion in the place of the Governor-General, Governor, or Lieutenant-Governor, as the case may be, and of any Vice-President.

(3) Rules under this section, where made by a Governor in Council, or by a Lieutenant-Governor, or a Lieutenant-Governor in Council, shall be subject to the sanction of the Governor-General in Council, and where made by the Governor-General in Council shall be subject to the sanction of the Secretary of State in Council, and shall not be subject to alteration or amendment by the Legislative Council of the Governor-General, Governor, or Lieutenant-Governor.

6. The Governor-General in Council shall, subject to the approval of the Secretary of State in Council, make regulations as to the conditions under which and manner in which persons resident in India may be nominated or elected as members of the Legislative Councils of the Governor-General, Governors and Lieutenant-Governors, and as to the qualifications for being and for being nominated or elected, a member of any such council, and as to any other matter for which regulations are authorised to be made under this Act, and also as to the manner in which those regulations are to be carried into effect. Regulations under this section shall not be subject to alteration or amendment by the Legislative Council of the Governor-General.

7. All proclamations, regulations, and rules made under this Act, other than rules made by a Lieutenant-Governor for the more convenient transaction of business in his council, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament as soon as may be after they are made.

8.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Indian Councils Act, 1909, and shall be construed with the Indian Councils Acts, 1861 and 1892, and those Acts, the Indian Councils Act, 1869, the Indian Councils Act, 1871, the Indian Councils Act, 1874, the Indian Councils Act, 1904, and this Act may be cited together as the Indian Councils Acts, 1861 to 1909.

(2) This Act shall come into operation on such date or dates as the Governor-General in Council, with the approval of the Secretary of State in Council, may appoint, and different dates may be appointed for different purposes and provisions of this Act and for different councils.

On the date appointed for the coming into operation of this Act as respects any Legislative Council, all the nominated members of the Council then in office shall go out of office, but may, if otherwise qualified, be re-nominated or be elected in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(3) The enactments mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent mentioned in the third column of that schedule.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Bombay Castle, 4th August 1909.

No. 4-Ry.—It is hereby notified that an application has been made by the Agent of the Indian Railway Feeder Lines Company, Limited, of Bombay, to the Local Government for a further Order to effect certain amendments in the Násik Tramway Order, 1888, rendered necessary by the permission granted under the Násik Tramway Further Order, 1908, for the carriages used on the Trambay being moved by steam or such other motive power as the Local Government may authorize from time to time, and by the fact that many additions have been made since 1888 to the list of dangerous articles specified in clause 22 of the Násik Tramway Order, 1888; and the District Local Board of Násik have given their consent to the said further amendments being made, And Whereas it appears to the Local Government expedient and proper that the said application should be granted, the following draft of a proposed further Order under section 8 of the Indian Tramways Act, 1886 (XI of 1886), authorizing the same is published for the information of all persons interested.

Any objection or suggestion which any person may desire to make with respect to the proposed Order, if submitted to the Local Government under cover addressed to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, on or before the 5th September 1909, will be received and considered.

Draft of proposed Further Order.

Further Order made under section 8 of the Indian Tramways Act, 1886 (XI of 1886), by the Governor of Bombay in Council, to effect certain amendments in clauses 5, 10, 14 and 22 of the Násik Tramway Order, 1888.

Preliminary.

Short title.

1. This further Order may be cited as the Násik Tramway Further Order, 1909.

2. The following amendments in the Násik Tramway Order, 1888 (as published at pages 21 @ 25 of Part I of the Bombay Government Gazette of January 10, 1889), shall be made, that is to say:—

(i) In clause 5, for the word "stables" substitute the words "Engine houses"; and in clauses 10 and 14, for the word "stable" substitute the words "Engine house".

(ii) In clause 22 delete the words commencing with "Provided that" and ending with "all other explosives" and substitute the following proviso in their place:

"Provided that the goods listed in Rule 14 of Chapter III, Part II, of the General Rules for open lines of Railway in British India administered by the Government, promulgated with the Railway Board's Circular No. R.T.-89 A/5, dated 8th September 1906, and published in the Railway Board's Notification No. 183, dated 8th September 1906, at pages 1923 to 1983 of the Supplement to the Gazette of India, dated the 8th September 1906, with the additions to, and alterations in, that list made subsequently from time to time, and that may be made hereafter, shall be considered dangerous goods, and similarly, the goods specified in Rule 15 of Chapter III, Part II of the same General Rules, shall be considered offensive goods, within the meaning of section 16 of the Act."

Dangerous and offensive Goods.

By order of His Excellency the Honourable the Governor in Council,

W. L. CAMERON,
Secretary to Government.
