Miscellaneous Notifications, Appointments, &amp;c.

BY HER MAJESTY'S HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE.

APPELLATE SIDE.

The Honourable the Chief Justice and Judges have been pleased to issue the following rules in supersession of Circulars Nos. 12, 13, and 14 at pages 4 and 5 of the High Court Civil Circulars. Circulars Nos. 12, 13, and 14 are cancelled and the new rules are placed under new Circular No. 14:—

- 14.—1. All documents produced with the plaint or during the hearing shall be accompanied by a list in Form X, page 182, which will be given free of charge to parties wishing to tender documents in evidence. Each list shall be numbered at the time of presentation with the current number of the roznáma.
2. When a document included in the list is tendered in evidence, it shall be detached from the list. If rejected, it shall at once be endorsed, as prescribed by Section 142, Civil Procedure Code, and returned. If admitted, it shall, after being endorsed in accordance with Section 141, be numbered with the current number of the roznáma and filed in the record and all references to it in the depositions and judgment shall bear that number.
3. When the hearing is concluded, all documents which have not been detached from their list, or lists, and tendered in evidence, or which having been tendered did not prove themselves, or were not admitted by the opposite party, and no evidence was offered in support of them, shall be returned to the parties producing them. Any documents which may not have been given back, owing to the refusal or omission of the party or his pleader to take them, shall be filed separately as a supplement to the record. Great care should be taken that documents not admitted in evidence should not be mixed up with the exhibits in the case.

4. The provisions of Sections 142—142A, Civil Procedure Code, do not apply to vaká-lítnámas, summonses and other formal documents. All such shall, when filed, be endorsed with the number and name of the case, and shall be numbered with the current number of the roznáma and placed on the record.
5. When, in an inquiry on remand, or by order of the Appellate Court, fresh evidence is taken by the Court of first instance, all exhibits brought on the record shall be numbered with the current number of the roznáma in the original suit.
