2. Every such steamer shall anchor before exhibiting any signal required by Rule 1, and shall remain anchored during the whole of the time that it is exhibited, unless the conditions of weather, tide, &c., should be such that the safety of the vessel or of boats approaching it would be thereby endangered.

3. No boat shall ply, whether for hire or otherwise, in or from any of the ports specified unless licensed for the purpose by the Collector of Salt Revenue or other officer authorized by him. Licenses shall be issued annually and shall remain in force from the 1st October in one year to 30th September of the year following, but shall be liable at the discretion of the Collector of Salt Revenue to suspension or revocation in case of any breach of these rules or other misconduct on the part of the licensee or his employés.

6. Every license shall specify the registered number of the boat, the port of registry, the name of the owner or agent, and the number of the crew. It shall further specify the number of passengers and the weight of goods which such boat shall be entitled to carry. It shall also prescribe the number of masts, yards, sails, oars, boat-hooks, poles, fenders and other articles which shall constitute the equipment of the boat.

7. In calculating the number of passengers and the weight of goods which a boat shall be allowed to carry, two children, unless they are both in arms, shall be reckoned as equal to one adult, and two Indian maunds weight of goods shall be reckoned as equal to one adult. Children in arms shall not be reckoned.

8. No boat shall under any circumstances ply, whether for hire or otherwise, without having on board the full crew and equipment named in the license: provided that if the boat is one propelled by sails as well as oars, it shall be optional to carry the sails, masts and yards.

9. Every boat, when actually plying, whether for hire or otherwise, under these rules between sunset and sunrise, shall show a white light above the bows.

10. No boat plying, whether for hire or otherwise, under these rules shall in any case go alongside any coasting or ferry steamer until such steamer shall have exhibited a signal, as described below, to signify that she is ready to receive and disembark passengers:—

(a) Signal between Sunrise and Sunset.

The Rendezvous Flag (blue and white chequers: letter N of the Commercial Code) at the fore or main mast head or other conspicuous position, or

(b) Signal between Sunset and Sunrise.

A red light in the same position.

11. Every license issued under these rules shall be shown on demand to any Customs Officer or to any passenger on board the boat in respect of which it has been issued.

Circular Memorandum.

In determining whether Government Promissory Notes received as security deposits should be dealt with in accordance with the procedure laid down in paragraph 1554, Army Regulations, India, Volume V, as modified by clause 142 of India Army Circulars, 1891, or forwarded to the Accountant General, Bombay, through this office, the period for which they have been tendered for deposit should be taken into account irrespective of the period for which they may, under any circumstances, actually remain in custody, the former period being invariably specified in the investment statement. For example, a promissory note tendered on 1st March 1894 as a security deposit for twelve months for a contract which runs from 1st April 1894 to 31st March 1895, may not be required to be returned to the depositor before, say, the 15th May 1895. In this case the periods from 1st to 31st March 1894 and from 1st April to 15th May 1895, during which the note has to remain in custody in excess of 12 months (the latter period being required for the settlement of the contractor's accounts) need not be taken into consideration, and the note should not be sent to this office for transmission to the Accountant General, Bombay, but dealt with in the manner prescribed in the rule quoted above.

Controller of Military Accounts."
