Calcutta, the 19th January 1894.

RRAD—

The following Orders of Her Majesty in Council, dated respectively the 14th February 1883 and the 23rd November 1893, regarding the measurement of the tonnage of Italian vessels:—

AT THE COURT AT WINDSOR.

The 14th day of February 1883.

PRESENT:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by ‘The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862,’ it is enacted that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships for the time being in force under ‘The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854,’ therein called the principal Act, have been adopted by the Government of any foreign country, and are in force in that country, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to direct that the ships of such foreign country shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other national papers, and thereupon it shall no longer be necessary for such ships to be re-measured in any port or place in Her Majesty's dominions, but such ships shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificates of registry of British ships is to be deemed the tonnage of such ships:

And whereas Her Majesty, by Order in Council, dated the 30th day of September 1873, was pleased to direct that merchant, sailing, and steam ships, belonging to the Kingdom of Italy, the measurement whereof had, after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, been ascertained and denoted in the registers and other national papers of such ships testified by the dates thereof, should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their registers or other national papers, in the same manner, and to the same extent, and for the same purposes, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificates of registry of British ships is deemed to be the tonnage of such ships; provided, nevertheless, that if the owner or master of any Italian steamship should desire the deduction for engine-room in such ship to be estimated under the rules for engine-room measurement and deduction applicable to British ships instead of under the Italian rule, the engine-room should be measured and the deduction calculated according to the British rules:

And whereas the Government of His Majesty the King of Italy have, by Royal Decree, dated the 30th day of July 1882 modified the rules for engine-room measurement and deduction applicable to Italian steamships, and the said modified rules are now the same as those in force under the said principal Act, and came into operation in the said Kingdom of Italy on the 21st day of September 1882:

Her Majesty is hereby pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to direct that the steam ships of Italy, the certificates of Italian nationality and registry of which are dated on or after the 21st day of September 1882, shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in the said certificates of Italian nationality and registry.

C. L. PEEL.

AT THE COURT AT WINDSOR.

The 23rd day of November, 1893.

PRESENT:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by 'The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862,' it is enacted that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships for the time being in force under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, therein called the principal Act, have been adopted by the Government of any foreign country, and are in force in that country, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to direct that the ships of such foreign country shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other national papers, and thereupon it shall no longer be necessary for such ships to be re-measured in any port or place in Her Majesty's dominions, but such ships shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted on their certificates of registry or other papers in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes, in, to and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificates of registry of British ships is to be deemed the tonnage of such ships:

And whereas Her Majesty, by Order in Council, dated the 30th day of September, 1873, was pleased to direct that merchant, sailing, and steam ships, belonging to the Kingdom of Italy, the measurement whereof had, after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, been ascertained and denoted in the registers and other national papers of such ships testified by the dates thereof, should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their registers or other national papers, in the same manner, and to the same extent, and for the same purposes in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificates of registry of British ships is deemed to be the tonnage of such ships; provided, nevertheless, that if the owner or master of any Italian steamship should desire the deduction for engine-room in such ship to be estimated under the rules for engine-room measurement and deduction applicable to British ships instead of under the Italian rule, the engine-room should be measured and the deduction calculated according to the British rules:

And whereas Her Majesty, by Order in Council, dated the 14th day of February, 1883, was pleased to declare that (the rules for engine-room measurement and deduction applicable to the steamships of Italy, having been modified by Royal Decree of His Majesty the King of Italy, dated the 30th day of July 1882), the steamships of Italy, the certificates of Italian nationality and registry of which were dated on or after the 21st day of September 1882, should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in the said certificates of Italian nationality and registry.

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that it is expedient that certain additions should be made to the provisions of the said last recited Order in Council in regard to the mode of estimating the net registered tonnage of Italian ships.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Acts, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is further pleased to direct as follows, viz., that in the event of the net registered tonnage of Italian ships, estimated under the British rules, being denoted on their Certificates of Registry or other national papers, the same shall be deemed to be of the tonnage so denoted therein.

C. L. PEEL.

ORDER.—Ordered that the Orders in Council be published in the Gazette of India.

Also that copy be forwarded to the Governments of Madras, Bombay and Bengal, and to the Chief Commissioner of Burma, in continuation of the letters in the Revenue, Agriculture and Commerce Department Nos. 279 to 282, dated the 27th July, 1877.

BY HER MAJESTY'S HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE.

APPELLATE SIDE.

The Honourable the Chief Justice and Judges have been pleased to add the following note at page 116 of the High Court's Civil Circulars:—

Note 5.—In lieu of Pavitra Baras (Shravan Shud 12th) mentioned in Note 1 at the foot of the table of holidays at page 116 of the High Court Civil Circulars, the 11th day of the first half of the month of Magshir (Shidhnath Fair) is to be observed as a holiday in the Court of the Subordinate Judge of Olpad in the Surat District.

The Honourable the Chief Justice and Judges are pleased to direct that the following be substituted for Circular No. 56 at page 31 of the High Court Civil Circulars:—

56.—In cases in which pleaders are employed it is their duty to see that decrees and final orders are properly drawn up in conformity with the terms of the judgment, and every facility should be given them for that purpose and for being heard on the subject in cases of doubt and difficulty. Except in the Courts of Small Causes at Poona, Ahmedabad, Nadiad, Surat and Broach, the pleaders shall be required to affix their signatures to the decrees before they are signed by the Judges. Where any pleader shall not have signed the decree, the cause of his failing, or refusing to sign, shall be certified on the decree.

Under the provisions of Section 43 of Act XIV of 1869 the Honourable the Chief Justice and Judges of Her Majesty's High Court of Judicature have been pleased to sanction the closing of all the Civil Courts in the Surat District (inclusive of those in the Broach Collectorate), for the annual vacation of six weeks from 23rd April to 3rd June 1894, both days inclusive.
