By order of His Excellency the Honourable the Governor in Council,

J. NUGENT,

Acting Secretary to Government.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

Bombay Castle, 1st July 1879.

The following Notification by the Government of India is republished for general information :—

"No. 1179.

HOME DEPARTMENT—PUBLIC.

Simla, the 30th June 1879.

The Governor General in Council has received with deep concern the announcement of the death of LORD LAWRENCE, late Viceroy and Governor General of India. No statesman since Warren Hastings has administered the Government of India with a genius and an experience so exclusively trained and developed in her service as those of the illustrious man whose life, now closed in the fullness of fame though not of age, bequeaths to his country a bright example of all that is noblest in the high qualities for which the Civil Service of India has justly been renowned, and in which, with such examples before it, it will never be deficient. The eminent services rendered to India by LORD LAWRENCE, both as ruler of the Punjab, in the heroic defence of British power, and as Viceroy in the peaceful administration of a rescued Empire, cannot be fitly acknowledged in this sad record of the grief which she suffers by his death, and of the pride with which she cherishes his name. The Viceroy and Governor General in Council, however, desiring to give some public expression to those feelings, and to that national gratitude which is the best reward of national services, directs that the flag of Fort William shall during to-morrow the 1st of July be lowered half-mast high, that 31 minute guns shall be fired at sunset from the Fort, and that the last gun shall be fired and the flag dropped as the sun sets. His Excellency in Council further directs that on this sorrowful occasion the same marks of national respect shall be simultaneously shown at all the other seats of Government in India, in order that throughout the length and breadth of the Empire, with whose history the fame of LORD LAWRENCE is imperishably associated, honour may be rendered to the memory of the statesman who ruled India with a wisdom strengthened in her laborious service, and whose fortitude, severely tested, was splendidly displayed throughout her fiercest trial."

By order of His Excellency the Honourable the Governor in Council,

J. B. PEILE,

Acting Chief Secretary to Government.
