|---|---|
| 7 Arthur Charles John Bailey, Superintendent of Police. | This officer did exceptionally well in dealing with an incipient rising among a criminal tribe of the Kaira District in August 1918. He took successful measures to prevent dacoities and other serious crime from spreading. He accomplished the pacification of the affected tracts under very difficult circumstances and it was due to his personal ability and zeal that the district was kept generally quiet. |
| 8 Mahomed Hussain Shah, son of Syed Sujayat Ali Shah, Inspector of Police in Sind. | This officer joined the Police Service on the 9th August 1907 as Head Constable, First Grade, on Rs. 20. He was promoted to the Grade of Sub-Inspector on the 1st May 1908 and promoted again to that of Inspector on the 13th March 1919. During his service of 11 years and 8 months he has received in all 37 rewards for good detective work in dacoities, robberies and murders, etc. During 1918 shortly after the Marri-Khetran trouble on the frontier, this officer worked with energy, fearlessness and ability at great personal risk in arresting and successfully prosecuting the local and trans frontier badmashes and the members of the gang of the notorious murderer and outlaw Mahomed Khan Burdi who was eventually shot dead in an encounter with the Police of the Upper Sind Frontier District. |
| 9 Llewellyn Charles Francis O'Brien, Inspector, Bombay City Police. | This officer joined the Bombay City Police as a Sub-Inspector in May 1905. He rose to the Deputy Inspector's grade in 1910 and became Inspector in 1915. He has earned no fewer than 17 commendatory entries and rewards for good work and his conduct throughout his service has been exemplary. During the past few years he has held charge of one of the most difficult and criminal charges in the City of Bombay. His administration of this section has been deserving of the highest praise. By devoting the closest personal attention to his work, he obtained an insight into his charge such as is rarely achieved by a European Police Officer, with the result that his efforts met with a remarkable need of success. He was personally responsible for the investigation and successful prosecution of the Duncan Road Cross Lane murder case in 1917, in which a prostitute was murdered in the most revolting circumstances by a Pathan brothel keeper, his wife and daughter. The case attracted the widest attention in the City and led to vigorous action which has resulted in ameliorating the lot of Indian prostitutes. In view of his success as an investigation officer, Inspector O'Brien has now been transferred to the Criminal Investigation Department and has been placed in charge of the Crimes Branch of that Department. |

Name of officer and rank.	Statement of services for which in particular the decoration has been conferred.
10 Charles Robert Jeffereis, Inspector, Bombay City Police.	This officer joined the Bombay Police Force as a Third Grade Constable in 1902, rising in ten years to the rank of Inspector. His services were then transferred to the City Criminal Investigation Department where for four years he was in charge of the confidential records, earning the Commissioner's praise for his work during the heavy rush in the early stages of the war. His record contains 19 commendatory entries and his conduct throughout his service has been exemplary. He has received monetary rewards in several cases which gave proof of his capacity and detective ability. He has made a special study of the European criminal of India and his skill in handling such cases has been of the greatest value to the Criminal Investigation Department. For the past two and a half years Inspector Jeffereis has been on special duty under Captain Judge, an officer on special duty under the Director of Central Intelligence. Captain Judge speaks in the highest terms of his work which he describes as having been of a very high order, performed with extraordinary tact and resourcefulness. His labours in connection with this special duty have resulted in enormous savings to Government by the exposure of frauds connected with Army contracts.
11 Jiwa Pirbhai, Second Grade Head Constable, Agency Police, Kathiawar.	He has shown personal bravery in support of public authority during an attempt by prisoners to escape from the Rajkot State Jail on the 1st and 2nd December 1916. He was detailed for duty in front of the main gate of the jail and was but poorly protected by the trunk of a young nimb tree from the fire of the convicts. By his steady concentrated fire on the main gate of the jail from 11 P.M. on the 1st of December to about 3 A.M. on the 2nd December 1916, the convicts were prevented from rushing the gate and making a dash for freedom under cover of darkness. The trunk of the nimb tree from behind which the head constable kept up his steady fire was riddled with bullets.
12 Rupert Learoyd McCulloch, Superintendent of Police in Sind.	This officer joined the service on the 30th November 1900. From March 1904 to July 1908 he served in the Jacobabad District, Upper Sind Frontier, and made a reputation there for thoroughness and efficiency. He had considerable personal influence over the Baluchi tribesmen of the district. He has been selected for important appointments such as Personal Assistant to the Inspector General of Police and Superintendent of Police at Karachi which has a very heavy charge and the work during his time has been heavy and responsible. He was responsible for the arrangements during the visit of the Viceroy, Lord Hardinge, and again in 1917 during the visit of the present Viceroy, Lord Chelmsford. Throughout his service he has maintained a reputation for thoroughness and he has displayed marked ability in dealing with dacoity and other serious crime and has been conspicuously successful in securing good work from officers subordinate to him.

NOTICES TO MARINERS.

No. 84-M. of 1919.

PERSIAN GULF—SHATT-AL-ARAB RIVER.

Tidal Constants.

The following method of finding H. W. at various places between the Outer Bar and Basrah has been found to be approximately correct.

Time of H. W. at—

Outer Bar	=	Time of H. W. Bushire	+ 4 hours.
Fao	=	Do.	+ 5 hours.
Abadan	=	Do.	+ 6 hours.
Mahommerah	=	Do.	+ 7 hours.
Basrah	=	Do.	+ 8 hours.

In calculating time of H. W. from above only the higher tide of the day at Bushire should be used.

If a Shamal is blowing about 50 minutes should be added to, and if a Kans about 15 minutes should be subtracted from above times.

For H. W. Springs about 1 hour should be deducted, and for H. W. Neaps about 1 hour should be added to the above times.

It has been found on an average that ships at anchor in the river between Fao and Basrah swing to the flood about 2 hours before H. W. and to the ebb about 2 hours after H. W., except in summer when ships rarely awing to the flood.
