No. 3612.—In exercise of the power conferred by Section 25, clause (b), of the Indian Forest Act, (VII of), 1878, as amended by Section 7 of the Forest Act (V of) 1890, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules regarding the kindling of fires or the leaving of fires burning so as to endanger a reserved forest (namely):

1. Fire shall not be kindled or left burning upon any public or private way, which lies within the boundaries of a reserved forest but is not included in the area thereof, except at such spots as may from time to time be notified locally by the Divisional Forest Officer.

Kindling, &c., of fire on roads in reserved forests prohibited.

Precautions to be taken in making ash-manure near a reserved forest.

2. No person shall ignite materials for making ash-manure in a field adjoining a reserved forest unless he has cleared a fire-path twenty-five feet in width and taken such other precautions, such as employing watchers, as are reasonably necessary to prevent fire spreading to the forest.

Kindling of fire in neighbourhood of a reserved forest prohibited.

Except for the purposes of making ash-manure, no fire shall be kindled, elsewhere than in a place used as a human dwelling or in premises appertaining to such dwelling, within a distance of two hundred yards from the boundary of a reserved forest, without the previous written permission of a Forest officer not lower in rank than a Sub-Assistant Conservator.

3. Except for the purposes of making ash-manure, no fire shall be kindled, elsewhere than in a place used as a human dwelling or in premises appertaining to such dwelling, within a distance of two hundred yards from the boundary of a reserved forest, without the previous written permission of a Forest officer not lower in rank than a Sub-Assistant Conservator.
4. Nothing in these rules shall have operation in the rainy season commencing on the 15th June and ending on the 31st October.

These rules not to operate in the rainy season.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

No. 1771.—It is hereby notified for general information that the following amended rule regarding the performance of Sunday work by the Preventive and Wharf Departments of the Custom House at Karáchi, framed under the provisions of Section 9 of Act VIII of 1878 and approved by the Government of Bombay, is substituted for the rule published in Government Notification No. 4649, dated the 19th June 1883 (vide page 432 of the Bombay Government Gazette of the 21st idem, Part I) :—

“With the written permission of the Collector of Customs, Sunday working on board steamers within the limits of the Port of Karáchi may be permitted on payment, in addition to the ordinary charges at present levied, of a fee equal to one day's demurrage, subject to a minimum charge of Rs. 50 and a maximum charge of Rs. 200 for each ship on board which work is carried on; demurrage for this purpose to be calculated at the rate of 6½ annas per ton of registered tonnage. It shall be within the discretion of the Collector of Customs to remit or reduce the fees leviable on mail steamers which cannot avoid working on Sundays: such remission or reduction shall ordinarily be made at ports of call only.”
