RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF DEPOSITORS IN POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS IN INDIA.

DEFINITIONS.

1. For the purposes of these rules—

Deposit means money paid into a Post Office Savings Bank by, or on behalf of, a depositor.

Depositor means the person by whom, or on whose behalf, money is deposited.

Account means the account of a depositor in a Post Office Savings Bank.

Balance means the balance at credit of an account.

Minor means a person who has not completed the age of eighteen years.

Guardian includes a father, or, if the father be dead, a mother, or, if both parents be dead, and no guardian of the minor has been appointed by will or deed or under any enactment for the time being in force in British India, any adult relation of the minor with or by whom the minor is residing or being maintained.

Director General means the Director General of the Post Office of India.

Postmaster General means the chief postal authority in any province or place to which the system of Post Office Savings Bank is extended.

OBJECT OF GOVERNMENT IN ESTABLISHING POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS.

2. The object of Government in establishing Post Office Savings Banks is to provide a ready means for the deposit of savings, and so to encourage thrift. Savings Banks are not to be used for the purpose of keeping a current account, and the Comptroller, Post Office, is empowered to close an account should he have reason to believe that the depositor has used the Savings Bank for a purpose for which it was not intended.

BUSINESS HOURS.

3. Post Office Savings Banks will be open for the transaction of business between the hours of noon and 4 P.M. every day, with the exception of Sundays, Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday, and the Queen's Birthday. These hours may, under the authority of the Postmaster General, be altered to suit local circumstances.

POSTAL OFFICIALS BOUND TO SECRECY.

4. The officers of the Postal Department engaged in the receipt or payment of deposits are not allowed to disclose the name of any depositor, or the amount deposited or withdrawn by him, except to the Postmaster General or other officers of the Department engaged in carrying out the provisions of these rules.

PERSONS WHO MAY DEPOSIT MONEY.

5. Any person may deposit money in a Post Office Savings Bank (a) on his own behalf, or (b) on behalf of any minor relative, or (c) on behalf of any minor of whom he is the guardian.

Exception.—A Government official may not open an account on behalf of a minor of whom he is the official guardian.

Explanation.—Minors are allowed to deposit money in their own names and, women, whether married or single, are allowed to deposit money in their own names, but subject, in the case of married women, to the limitation laid down in Rule 6 (iii).

LIMITATIONS AS TO OPENING ACCOUNTS AND DEPOSITS.

6. (i) Any person may open an account in his own name, but may not have more than one such account open.

(ii) In addition to the account which a person may open in his own name, he may open any number of separate accounts on behalf of any minors who are related to him or of whom he is the guardian, provided that he shall not open more than one account on behalf of each such minor.

(iii) The fact that an account has been opened on behalf of a minor shall not prevent such minor from opening an account in his own name; nor shall the fact that a married man has an account in his own name prevent his wife from opening a separate account in her own name, provided the money to be deposited by her is her own property or earning.

Note.—Warrant and Non-Commissioned Officers and men serving in British Regiments can open accounts in Post Office Savings Banks, even though already depositors in Military Savings Banks.

7. Deposits in trust are not allowed, and cannot be recognised.

8. Money cannot be deposited in the name of two or more persons jointly, provided that nothing in this rule shall prevent the deposit of money in the name of a known firm.

9. The smallest sum of money that can be deposited at any time is four annas; and no sum can be deposited that includes a fraction of an anna.

10. A depositor may not deposit a larger sum than two hundred rupees in all during any one official year, April 1st to March 31st inclusive, and may not have at any time more than two thousand rupees at his credit exclusive of interest. The total amount of an account opened by a relative or guardian on behalf of a minor may not exceed one thousand rupees exclusive of interest.

Note A.—The annual limit of Rs. 200 is to be reckoned irrespective of withdrawals, that is, withdrawals are not to be deducted in applying it.

Note B.—When an account is transferred from one Savings Bank (whether Post Office or Presidency) to another, only such portion of it as was deposited in the current year shall be included in calculating the limit of Rs. 200.

Note C.—Sums deposited for the purpose of immediate investment in Government Securities through the Post Office under Rule 43 are not reckoned in calculating the annual limit of Rs. 200 or the maximum limit of Rs. 2,000 (or Rs. 1,000 in the case of an account on behalf of a minor).

Explanation.—When the balance of an account has reached the maximum limit of Rs. 2,000 (or Rs. 1,000 if the account was opened on behalf of a minor), no further deposit will be allowed except for the purpose of immediate investment. The balance may, however, be increased by the addition from year to year of interest calculated on the maximum limit of Rs. 2,000, or Rs. 1,000, as the case may be.

POWERS TO WITHDRAW MONEY AND LIMITATIONS AS TO WITHDRAWALS.

11. A depositor may withdraw money from his account only once a week. By the term 'week' is meant the period from Monday to Saturday, both days inclusive. A depositor may, therefore, withdraw money from his account on Saturday and again on the following Monday.

12. A minor may only withdraw money deposited by him in his own name. Money deposited on behalf of a minor may only be withdrawn during his minority by his guardian.

13. Women, whether married or single, may withdraw money deposited by them in their own names; and married women may also withdraw money deposited by them as single women, in their own names, their marriage notwithstanding. The fact that a female minor, on whose behalf money has been deposited, is married, or becomes married after the account has been opened on her own behalf, shall not prevent her from withdrawing the money so deposited on attaining majority.

14. A depositor may not withdraw a smaller sum than four annas, and he may not withdraw any sum which includes a fraction of an anna unless it be to close his account, in which case he may withdraw the whole balance at his credit.

HOW TO OPEN AN ACCOUNT.

15. Any person wishing to open an account should apply to the nearest Post Office that is a Savings Bank. Application need not necessarily be made in person; but the applicant must state his name, his occupation or profession, and his place of residence. If he be a native, he must also state his father's name and caste.

16. The intending depositor must sign a declaration, in the following form, that he has read and accepted the Post Office Savings Bank rules. If he be unable to write, he must attend personally, and, in the presence of a witness, affix his mark or seal to the declaration, to be attested by the signature of the witness. If he should apply in person, a copy of these rules will be given to him to read, or they will be read and explained to him, should he be unable to read. If he should not apply in person, a copy of these rules with the form of declaration will be sent to him, and he must present the declaration, duly signed, with the first deposit.

Form of Declaration to be signed by depositor on making first deposit.

'I hereby declare that the Post Office Savings Bank rules have been read <sup>(by me)</sup><sub>(to me)</sub>, and that I accept them as binding upon me.

'I further declare that I have no account in my own name at any Post Office or Presidency Savings Bank.*'

17. Women may open accounts in their own names through their agents, or, if they are married women, through their husbands or agents. The agent or husband will be required to produce a letter of authority from the depositor and to sign a declaration that the depositor understands and accepts the rules. No postal official may under this rule be the agent of any woman, except his own wife, in respect of an account held in the Post Office in which he is employed.

18. When the declaration is presented, duly signed, with the amount of the first deposit, or when it has been signed by a depositor attending in person to make a deposit, the amount of the deposit will be entered in a pass-book which will be supplied to the depositor, and the entry will be initialled by the Postmaster and stamped with the office stamp. The depositor will be required to sign a receipt for the pass-book, and to give a specimen of his signature in a book which will be kept in the Post Office. If the depositor does not attend in person, he must send a specimen of his signature on a slip of paper to the Post Office.

19. If the account be opened at a Sub or Branch Post Office, the pass-book for the depositor will have to be obtained from the Head Office. A preliminary receipt for the amount of the first deposit will, therefore, be given to the depositor, who will be informed of the date on which he should call to receive the pass-book. When the pass-book is handed over to the depositor, he will be required to return this preliminary receipt and to sign a receipt for the pass-book, in addition to leaving a specimen of his signature on record in the Post Office. The amount of the original deposit will be entered in the pass-book by the Head Office, and the depositor will therefore have a guarantee that the sum has been received in that office. He should be careful to see that the entry in the pass-book corresponds with the amount entered in the preliminary receipt before giving up the latter.

PASS-BOOK AND ITS IMPORTANCE.

20. The pass-book will show, in the vernacular of the district or in English, as the depositor may wish, the number of his account, with the name of the office from which the book is issued, his own name, occupation or profession, and address. No deposit can be made and no money can be withdrawn from an account without its production, and the Post Office will not be responsible for any sum not acknowledged in the pass-book. Depositors should carefully examine their books before leaving the office, and ascertain that the entries are correct. They should also be careful to keep their pass-books in their own possession, as the Post Office does not accept responsibility for any loss caused to a depositor, if, through his negligence, any person shall obtain possession of the book and fraudulently obtain the payment of any sum belonging to the depositor.

Note.—In the case of an account opened at a Sub or Branch Post Office, the pass-book will be sent to the Head Office twice in each year, first, as soon as possible after the 15th June, when the pass-book is presented for entry of interest under Rule 29; and, secondly, on the first occasion on which the account is operated upon during the quarter ending 31st December. The depositor will obtain a receipt in exchange for his pass-book, and he must give up this receipt when his pass-book is returned to him.

LOSS OF PASS-BOOK.

21. No charge will be made for the pass-book at first supplied to a depositor, or for any book issued to him in continuation of the original book which will be retained by the Post Office. But if a pass-book be lost or spoiled (except under circumstances over which the depositor has no control), or if any account be re-opened with the permission of the Comptroller, Post Office (under Rule 33), before the expiration of three months from the date of closure, the depositor will have to pay one rupee for a fresh book.

MODE OF DEPOSITING MONEY AFTER AN ACCOUNT HAS BEEN OPENED.

22. A depositor may deposit money at the Post Office at which his account stands as often as he wishes, so long as the prescribed yearly and maximum limits are not exceeded. All that he is required to do is to take or send the amount to be deposited, with his pass-book, to the Post Office. The amount of

**Note.*—The latter sentence is to be scored through in the case of an account opened on behalf of a minor, in which case the person opening the account must make the following further declarations:—

'I declare that I have no account on behalf of the minor at any Post Office or Presidency Savings Bank.

'I declare that the minor was born on (date by Christian era as nearly as can be ascertained).'

his deposit will be entered in the pass-book, and the balance struck as shown below. The entry will then be initialled by the Postmaster and stamped with the dated stamp of the office, and the pass-book will be returned to the depositor or his messenger :

NOTE 1.—No deposit may be made to an account which has been ordered to be closed.

NOTE 2.—No deposit may be made to an account opened on behalf of a minor after he has attained the age of 18 years.

23. If the amount be deposited at a Sub or Branch Post Office, the depositor will receive, in addition to the receipt in his pass-book, an acknowledgment from the Head Office, which will generally be the office at the head-quarters station of the district. This acknowledgment will be delivered to him in ordinary course through the Post Office. If it should not reach the depositor in proper time, or if, when it reaches him, it should show any signs of erasure, or should not agree with the entry in the pass-book, the depositor should immediately apply to the Postmaster of the Head Office, the name of which is in the pass-book, and renew his application again and again until he receives a satisfactory reply.

MODE OF WITHDRAWING MONEY.

24. When a depositor wishes to withdraw money, he must present his pass-book personally or by agent (whose name and signature must be entered in the application for withdrawal at the Post Office at which his account stands, with a printed form of application for withdrawal), which can be obtained at the Post Office, signed by himself, and showing the balance at his credit and the amount which he wishes to withdraw. If the depositor is unable to write, he must attend personally and affix his mark or seal to the application. Should he be absolutely unable to attend personally, he must have his mark or seal affixed to the application and attested by some respectable witness, and the Postmaster will make payment to the person presenting this application with the pass-book, after satisfying himself, by such enquiry as he may think proper, of the inability of the depositor to attend and of the genuine character of the application. The mark or seal of a depositor or messenger who cannot write must, at the time he receives payment of a withdrawal, be attested by the signature of a respectable witness (other than the paying officer) who is personally acquainted with the depositor or messenger (as the case may be) and also known to the Postmaster or some member of the Post Office establishment.

25. Should any person other than the father, or, if the father is dead, the mother, wish to withdraw money from an account opened on behalf of a minor and claim to do so as guardian of such minor, he will be required to fill in, on a form prescribed by the Director General, answers to the following questions and such other questions as may be considered necessary, and will only be allowed to withdraw money on the order of the Postmaster General in accordance with Rule 38 :

- (a) What is your relationship to the minor ?
- (b) Is the father or mother of the minor dead, or are both parents dead? What near relatives of the minor are alive ?
- (c) Have you been appointed guardian of the minor by will or deed or under any enactment in force in British India? (If the reply to this question is in the affirmative, the applicant should produce the documents on which he relies to support his claim.)
- (d) Are you an adult relative of the minor, and does he reside with you, or is he maintained by you ?

Note.—In the case of withdrawals made from accounts opened on behalf of minors, the father or other guardian of the minor must sign the following certificate on the application for withdrawal :

‘Certified that the amount sought to be withdrawn is required for the use of the minor.’

26. The amount to be withdrawn will be entered in the pass-book and a fresh balance struck, as in the case of a deposit, under the initials of the Postmaster and the dated stamp of the office. The amount will then be paid to the depositor or to the person presenting the pass-book and application, and his receipt taken, in all cases without a receipt stamp, on the Warrant of Payment.

27. If the amount be withdrawn at a Sub-Post Office, payment cannot be made until a Warrant of Payment is received from the Head Office, except in the case of certain selected Sub-Offices, which are authorised to grant Warrants of Payments. If the amount be withdrawn at a Branch Office, payment cannot be made until a Warrant of Payment is received from the Head Office or from the Sub-Office to which the Branch Office is subordinate when that Sub-Office is authorised to grant Warrants of Payment. The depositor, therefore, or other person presenting the pass-book and application will, except when the account is at one of the selected Sub-Offices, be informed of the date on which he should come to the Post Office to receive payment, and will retain his pass-book. On presentation of the pass-book on the date mentioned or any subsequent date after the arrival of the Warrant of Payment, the amount will be paid to the depositor or other person presenting the pass-book, and his receipt will be taken, in all cases without a receipt stamp, upon the warrant. The necessary entries will then be made in the pass-book, under the initials of the Sub or Branch Postmaster, and attested by the stamp of the office.

INTEREST.

28. Interest will be allowed at the rate of  $3\frac{1}{4}$  per cent. per annum, until further orders, on all deposits, subject to the condition of this rule. This interest will be allowed for each calendar month on the lowest balance at credit of an account between the close of the fourth day and the end of the month: provided that interest shall only be calculated at the rate of three pies a month on every complete sum of six rupees: provided also that no higher monthly interest than Rs. 5-3-3 shall be allowed on the balance of an account.

NOTE 1.—When an order has been issued to close an account, interest ceases to accrue from the first day of the month in which the order is issued (see end of Rule 32).

NOTE 2.—Interest on the account of a deceased depositor ceases to accrue from the date of issue of notice to the person or persons recognised by the Postmaster General as entitled to receive the balance of the account.

29. The interest calculated as above for each month will be added each year to the balance of each account. Depositors should present their pass-books as soon as possible after the 15th June, in order that the necessary entries may be made in them. If the pass-book be not presented for this purpose, the entry will be made on the next occasion when a deposit is made or when money is withdrawn.

NOTE.—Pass-books of depositors in Sub and Branch Post Offices will be sent to the Head Office for the entry of interest under this rule.

TRANSFER OF ACCOUNTS.

30. A depositor may have his account transferred, free of charge, to any Post Office that is a Savings Bank, provided that the account shall have been in existence for three months previous to the transfer. If he should wish to transfer his account, he must present his pass-book personally, or send it to the Post Office, and must in either case make a written application for transfer. The pass-book will be returned to the depositor, who should present it as soon as possible at the Post Office to which his account has been transferred. A depositor in a Presidency Savings Bank may, by application to the Presidency Savings Bank, have his account transferred, free of charge, to any Post Office Savings Bank.

NOTE 1.—Accounts cannot be transferred from one Head Post Office to another between the 16th and 31st March, both days inclusive.

NOTE 2.—Accounts ordered to be closed cannot be transferred.

CLOSING AN ACCOUNT.

31. When a depositor wishes to close his account, he must present his pass-book with a form of application for withdrawal of the amount shown at his credit in the pass-book. The amount of interest due on his account up to the end of the calendar month preceding the date of presentation will be entered in the pass-book, and a final balance struck. The amount will then be paid to the depositor, and his receipt taken on the Warrant of Payment. The pass-book will be retained in the Post Office. If the application to close an account be presented at a Sub or Branch Office, the same procedure will be followed as in the case of an ordinary withdrawal, except that the pass-book will be retained, and that the application and pass-book will, when interest is due, be in all cases sent to the Head Office for the Warrant of Payment, even when the Sub-Office is itself authorized to grant Warrants of Payments for ordinary withdrawals.

32. If an order to close an account be issued by the Postmaster General or the Comptroller, Post Office, under these rules, notice in writing will be sent to the depositor requiring him to present his pass-book and receive payment of the balance at his credit as soon as convenient. After the date of such notice, no deposit will be accepted on the account, and no interest will be allowed upon the balance after the end of the calendar month preceding such date.

NOTE.—An account opened on behalf of a minor must, if still open, be closed by the person on whose behalf it was opened on his attaining the age of 18 years. When the late minor is not in India and delay would cause substantial hardship, the Postmaster General may allow the late guardian to close the account (on behalf of the late minor) on his indemnifying the Post Office against loss from any future claim. If a minor after attaining the age of 18 years still remains a minor by law or order of a court of justice, his guardian must close the account on the minor completing 18 years of age.

RE-OPENING AN ACCOUNT.

33. A depositor who has once closed an account cannot open another account until after the expiration of three months from the date of closure, without the permission of the Comptroller, Post Office: and a depositor whose account has been closed by order cannot open a fresh account in any case without the permission of the authority which ordered it to be closed.

DEAD ACCOUNTS.

34. Accounts in respect of which no transactions have taken place for the periods specified below will be treated as 'dead,' and no subsequent deposit or withdrawal will be allowed in the case of such accounts without the previous orders of the Comptroller, Post Office:

And when no sum has been deposited or withdrawn and no interest added for—

When the balance of the account does not exceed Rs. 10	3 complete years.
” ” ” ” ” Rs. 100	6 ” ”
” ” ” ” ” Rs. 100	12 ” ”

NOTE 1.—By 'transaction' in this rule is meant not only a deposit or withdrawal, but also the presentation of the pass-book for the entry of interest.

NOTE 2.—A dead account does not lapse to Government, but may be re-opened at any time on the application of the depositor, and the interest that has accumulated will be added to the principal when the account is revived.

PROCEDURE TO BE FOLLOWED IN CASES OF SUCCESSION AND GUARDIANSHIP.

35. If a depositor should die, leaving in a Post Office Savings Bank a balance, whether in cash or in Government securities, or both, not exceeding one thousand rupees, and if probate of his will or letters of administration of his estate, or a certificate granted under Act VII of 1889, be not produced to the Postmaster General within three months of the death of the said depositor, the Postmaster General may pay the said sum of money to any person appearing to him to be entitled to receive it or to administer the estate of the deceased.

36. Balances, whether in cash or Government securities, or both, in excess of Rs. 1,000 may only be paid on production of probate, letters of administration, or a certificate under Act VII of 1889, unless otherwise ordered by the Director General of the Post Office, who has discretionary power to dispense with such evidence in cases where he is of opinion that to require it would cause hardship, and that to dispense with it would involve no appreciable risk. If the balance in excess of Rs. 1,000 be that of a cash deposit account opened on behalf of a deceased minor—the balance of which, excluding interest, cannot under these rules exceed Rs. 1,000—the discretionary power may be exercised even if the condition of hardship be not established.

37. If any depositor become insane or otherwise incapable of managing his affairs, and if such insanity or incapacity be proved to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General, then the Postmaster General may, from time to time, make payment out of the deposits to any proper person. Where a committee or manager has been duly appointed to administer the depositor's estate, nothing in this rule authorises payments to any persons other than such committee or manager.

38. When any person other than the father, or, if the father is dead, the mother, claims to withdraw money from an account opened on behalf of a minor as being the guardian of such minor, the Postmaster General may authorise the applicant to withdraw money from the account for the minor's use, in accordance with the following rules:

- (a) Where the applicant claims as guardian duly appointed by will or deed, on production of the documents supporting the claim.
- (b) Where the amount of the account does not exceed Rs. 250 and the applicant does not claim to have been appointed guardian by will or deed, upon his giving evidence to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General that he (the applicant) is the guardian of the minor.
- (c) Where the amount of the account exceeds Rs. 250 and the applicant does not claim to have been appointed guardian by will or deed, upon the applicant producing a certificate of administration granted under Act VIII of 1890.
- (d) In any case of doubt the applicant (not being the father or mother of the minor) may be required to produce a certificate of administration, under Act VIII of 1890, before payment is made to him.

NOTE.—An authority given by the Postmaster General under (b) will not hold good for a subsequent withdrawal if the balance of the account then exceeds Rs. 250.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS.

39. The following special conditions govern the opening of 'Public accounts' and their transactions:—

- (a) Accounts may be opened by secretaries, treasurers, or managers of the funds of any dispensary, church or other religious institution, school, orphanage, asylum or library, or of any other funds contributed for purposes other than the private or personal advantage or amusement of the contributors. Race, racquet, billiard, mess and similar funds, the objects of which are of a private or personal nature, cannot be allowed accounts.

Illustration.—The funds of regimental and public bands, which are maintained for purposes other than private advantage or amusement, are admissible.

- Explanation* (1)—A library fund is admissible, even though the library is open only to subscribers.
- (2) If an institution has two or more distinct funds which cannot, under their constitution and in accordance with the conditions imposed by the donors, be amalgamated, an account is admissible for each such fund.
- (3) The prohibition of current accounts when applied to a public account extends only to the use of the account for full details of the income and expenditure of the fund, and does not prevent the periodical credit of subscriptions or other receipts, or the periodical withdrawal of money for expenditure; e. g., a building fund raised for the erection of a church or charitable institution is admissible.
- (b) Secretaries and managers of benevolent funds (that is, funds formed by mutual subscription as an insurance against domestic misfortune) may be allowed accounts.
- (c) Officers of Government or of public institutions, such as railway and steamer companies, and the like, who collect subscriptions, voluntary or departmental, from their subordinates for departmental purposes, may be allowed accounts.
- (d) Public accounts of the kinds specified above must be designated by names indicating the objects to which the money is devoted, as A—pore Dispensary Fund, Workmen's Sick Fund, etc., and information must be given in writing regarding the object and source of income of the fund.
- (e) Each new public account must be authorised by the Postmaster General before it is opened. The Postmaster General is empowered to direct that a public account be closed should its object at any time be such that the account could not under the rules be opened as a public account.
- (f) In every case in which the holder of a public account, other than a public account held by an officer of Government in his official capacity, is changed, a fresh declaration (see Rule 16) must be filled up.
- (g) The limitations laid down in Rule 6 are not meant to prevent any person from opening more than one ex-officio or public account.
- (h) The prohibition against deposits in the name of two or more persons jointly (see Rule 8) does not apply to public accounts.
- (i) The annual limit of Rs. 200 and maximum limit of Rs. 2,000 for deposits (see Rule 10) and the limit of Rs. 5-3-3 for monthly interest (see Rule 28) do not apply to public accounts.
- (j) The amount of withdrawals within twelve consecutive months from a public account is limited to Rs. 2,000, unless the person who holds the account gives notice to the Post Office at which the account stands of his intention to make additional withdrawals. The notice must specify the amount to be withdrawn and be given six months in advance.
- (k) In the form of declaration (see Rule 16), which every intending depositor is required to sign, the words 'I further declare that I have no account in my own name at any Post Office or Presidency Savings Bank' should be scored through in the case of a public account.
40. No account may be allowed for money—
- (1) which is the property of Government, or
  - (2) which has been received for credit of Government, or
  - (3) which has been drawn from the Treasury for expenditure on account of Government, or
  - (4) which is raised by taxation, either local or municipal, or
  - (5) which is collected or received or held in trust by any public officer or court in accordance with any law.

NOTE.—Nothing in this rule prevents the opening of an account for a judicial deposit in accordance with a special order passed by a court of law in a particular case directing the investment of the money in the Post Office Savings Bank. Such an account, when admitted, is subject in every respect to the rules and limitations which govern ordinary private accounts.

REGIMENTAL, POLICE, AND OTHER CONJOINT ACCOUNTS.

41. The following special conditions govern the opening of regimental, police, and other conjoint accounts and their transactions:
- (a) The Commanding Officer of a native regiment may open a single account with the Post Office Savings Bank on account of the men of his regiment, making his own arrangements about the separate accounts of the individuals, and about the distribution to them of the interest credited upon the conjoint account. In other respects the account shall, except when the contrary is stated, be subject to the general rules for other accounts. The Commanding Officer must, when opening the account, sign a certificate that, to the best of his belief, the money is the property of the men of the regiment.
  - (b) District Superintendents of Police may have similar accounts on account of men in the Police force.

- (c) Chairmen of District Boards and Municipalities are also allowed to have similar accounts on account of servants of such boards and municipalities, in accordance with rules which may be sanctioned from time to time by Local Governments.

NOTE.—This rule shall not be held to prevent any native soldier, or any member of the police force, or any servant of a district board or municipality opening an account of his own in his individual capacity.

- (d) The annual limit of Rs. 200 and maximum limit of Rs. 2,000 for deposits (see rule 10) and the limit of Rs. 5-3-3 for monthly interest (see Rule 28) do not apply to accounts opened under this rule.
- (e) Except with the special sanction of the Director General, the amount of withdrawals within twelve consecutive months from an account opened under this rule is limited to Rs. 2,000, unless the person who holds the account gives notice to the Post Office at which the account stands of his intention to make additional withdrawals. The notice must specify the amount to be withdrawn and be given one month in advance.
- (f) In the form of declaration (see Rule 16), which every intending depositor is required to sign, the words "I further declare that I have no account in my own name at any Post Office or Presidency Savings Bank" should be scored through in the case of accounts opened under this rule.

SECURITY DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS.

42. The following special conditions govern the opening of security deposit accounts and their transactions:—

- (a) Government servants and servants of local authorities who are required by Government or by such authorities to deposit security, and contractors who are required by Government or local authorities to deposit security, may be allowed separate accounts for the security deposits only.

NOTE.—Local authority means any body corporate, municipal committee, or other persons legally entitled to the control or management of any local or municipal fund, or legally entitled to impose any cess, rate, duty, or tax upon any persons within any local area.

- (b) A person undertaking more than one work or contract at the same time may be allowed a separate account in respect of each.
- (c) The maximum limit for each separate account is Rs. 500, and the amount may be deposited in a single sum or by instalments.
- (d) A person may open a security deposit account either in his own behalf or on behalf of another person.
- (e) A security deposit account may be opened in the joint names of the persons undertaking the same work or contract.
- (f) The depositor will be required to sign a letter (in a form prescribed by the Director General) addressed to the Postmaster, undertaking not to make any claim on the Savings Bank for the principal of the sum deposited, except with the express written sanction of the person referred to in the letter to whom the security is pledged, not to object to the payment by the Bank of the whole or part of the principal to such person on his claiming it, and not to make any claim for interest from the date on which interest has ceased to accrue owing to the payment of the principal to such person or from the date on which such person has sanctioned the repayment of the deposit.
- (g) The officer to whom the security is pledged as above may, with the consent of the person pledging the security, open an account for such security in his own name, e. g., 'Executive Engineer, A—pore, on account of security of A. B.' In this case the deposit will be received from the officer to whom the security is pledged and the pass-book will be issued to him.
- (h) Interest on security deposits will accrue and be paid in the usual manner, subject to the conditions specified in the letter mentioned in clause (f) of this rule.
- (i) The prohibition against the transfer of an account until it has been in existence for three months (see Rule 30), does not apply to security deposit accounts.
- (j) In the form of declaration (see Rule 16), which every intending depositor is required to sign, the words 'I further declare that I have no account in my own name at any Post Office or Presidency Savings Bank' should be scored through in the case of a security deposit account.

PURCHASE OF GOVERNMENT SECURITIES.

43. Any depositor may invest the amount of his balance, or a portion of it, in Government securities through the Post Office. Any person, whether previously a depositor or not, may also purchase, through the Post Office, Government securities of the nominal value of Rs. 100 or any multiple thereof not exceeding Rs. 1,000 in one year and Rs. 3,000 in all, by tendering in cash the amount necessary for the purchase. An application on the form prescribed by the Director General should be presented, together with his pass-book, by a depositor desiring to make an investment under this rule. The application will then be forwarded to the Comptroller, Post Office, who will take the necessary steps for the purchase through the Comptroller General:

- (a) The paper purchased will be of the  $3\frac{1}{2}$  per cent. loan of 1893-94, or of one of the guaranteed  $3\frac{1}{2}$  per cent. loans as stated in the application; but if no loan is specified in the application, the investment will be made in one of the  $3\frac{1}{2}$  per cent. guaranteed loans.
- (b) The investor may also specially apply that the paper remain in the custody of the Comptroller General. In this case the Comptroller General will, if necessary, transfer the paper to any other loan bearing the same rate of interest and subject to the same general conditions. The investor may at any time apply through the local Post Office for the delivery to him of paper thus held by the Comptroller General. If application is not made under this clause, the paper purchased by the Comptroller General will be enfaced for payment of interest at the local Treasury and forwarded to the Post Office for delivery to the investor.

NOTE 1.—The annual limit of Rs. 1,000 and the maximum limit of Rs. 3,000 for investments through the Post Office do not apply to investments in connection with public accounts, regimental, police, or other conjoint accounts under Rule 41, or security deposits.

NOTE 2.—When a first deposit is made for the purpose of immediate investment, the pass-book will not be presented with the application, but will be prepared and delivered to the depositor under the rules applicable to cash deposit accounts.

NOTE 3.—The limits of investments made on behalf of, and in the names of minors, are the same as for investments by depositors on their own accounts.

SALE OF GOVERNMENT SECURITIES.

44. Any depositor may apply for the sale, through the Post Office, of Government securities which have been purchased for him through the Post Office, whether held by himself or held for him by the Comptroller General. The application must be made on the form prescribed by the Director General; and if the securities are presented with the application, they must be endorsed in favour of the Comptroller General.

NOTE.—Securities purchased in the name and on behalf of a minor cannot be sold during the minority except by the minor's legally constituted guardian, and the definition of guardian in Rule 1 of these rules does not apply to the sale of such securities.

SAFE CUSTODY OF GOVERNMENT SECURITIES.

45. A depositor may tender at a Post Office Savings Bank, for safe custody by the Comptroller General, Government securities which have been purchased for him through the Post Office. The tender must be made on the form prescribed by the Director General, and the securities tendered must be endorsed to the Comptroller General.

INTEREST ON GOVERNMENT SECURITIES.

46. So long as the Government securities remain in the custody of the Comptroller General, interest, when due, will be drawn and advised to the local Post Office Savings Bank through the Comptroller, Post Office, for credit to the depositor's account.

FEEs.

47. The following fees will be charged:

On purchase: 4 annas per cent.

On realisation and remittance of interest: 4 annas per cent. on the amount of the interest.

On delivery out of custody: 4 annas per cent. unless the application for delivery is made within a year of the purchase.

On sales: 4 annas per cent. and any actual outlay upon brokerage.

POWER OF GOVERNMENT TO ALTER RULES.

48. The Governor General in Council reserves the right to alter or add to these rules at any time.

No. 3402.—The following Notification by the Government of India in the Military Department is republished for general information:—

" Simla, the 3rd May 1895.

JUDICIAL.

No. 460.—In continuation of the Notification of the Government of India in the Military Department No. 309, dated the 22nd March 1895, and in supersession of the rules published in G. G. O. No. 617, dated the 4th July 1890, and of any rules hitherto issued which are inconsistent with the rules hereby published, the Governor General in Council has been pleased to make the following rules under Sections 26 and 27 of the Cantonments Act (XIII of 1889), and to direct that they be put in force in all cantonments in British India:

1. As many hospitals as may be necessary, within or without the limits of the cantonment, as the cantonment authority with the concurrence of the District Magistrate may determine, shall be maintained at the expense wholly or in part of the cantonment fund.
2. A medical officer, to be appointed in such manner as the local Government may direct, shall be in charge of every such hospital.
3. A person admitted to such a hospital shall be treated gratuitously, and if such person is without means of support and is either a resident of the cantonment or was admitted to the hospital on the request of the cantonment authority or of any officer of that authority, shall receive from the cantonment fund such subsistence allowance not being less than the lowest allowance for the time being fixed by the local Government under section 338 of the Code of Civil Procedure, as the cantonment authority may determine.
4. Every such hospital shall have attached to it one or more wards for the treatment of persons suffering from infectious or contagious disorders.
5. If the medical officer for the time being in charge of any such hospital is informed upon testimony which he believes to be credible that any person living in the cantonment is suffering from cholera, small-pox, diphtheria, or typhoid fever, he may by notice require such person to attend at the hospital at a time to be mentioned in such notice, and if upon the attendance of such person in pursuance of such notice or otherwise, he shall ascertain that such person is in fact suffering from any of the above-mentioned disorders, he may require such person to remain in the hospital until he shall have been pronounced free from such disorder, or may give such other direction in the matter as may seem to him most expedient for the purpose of preventing the spread of such disorder.
6. If any person upon whom any such notice as is mentioned in the last preceding rule shall have been served, shall refuse or neglect to attend at the hospital in pursuance of such notice, he shall be deemed to be suffering from such disorder as aforesaid and to have refused to go to the hospital.
7. If the medical officer for the time being in charge of any such hospital certifies in writing to the commanding officer of the cantonment that any person living in the cantonment is or is deemed to be suffering from any of the disorders mentioned in rule 5, and that such person has refused or is deemed to have refused to go to the hospital or that he, having gone to the hospital, has left it while still under the influence of such disorder, and that the continuance of such person in the cantonment is likely to be attended with danger to the health of the other inhabitants of the cantonment or some of them, the Cantonment Magistrate may, on the application of such medical officer, order such person to remove from the cantonment within twenty-four hours, and prohibit such person from remaining in or re-entering it without the written permission of such medical officer.

8. Save as aforesaid, no person shall be required to attend at or become a patient in any such hospital, nor shall any person under any circumstances be detained in any such hospital against his will, nor shall any person, except at his own request, be examined by any such medical officer as aforesaid, or any other person acting under Government authority, with a view to ascertaining whether he is or is not suffering from any infectious or contagious disease.
9. If a person having been prohibited under rule 7 from remaining in or re-entering a cantonment remains in or re-enters the cantonment without such written permission as is mentioned in that rule, such person shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to eight days, for every breach of the said prohibition.
10. No person known to be a prostitute shall, under any circumstances, be permitted to reside within the limits of any regimental bazar.

Secretary to the Govt. of India."
