Fair Season.

There should be at least two feet of water under the ship to insure her steering.

State of Tide for entering Port.

Sailing vessels should enter Port on the ebb-tide. Steamers can enter either on the flood or ebb at the Pilot's discretion.

Masters of vessels should not on any account attempt to enter the harbour without a Pilot.

Time-Ball, "Merewether" Pier.

The Time-Ball is dropped daily (Sundays excepted) at one o'clock, Karáchi mean time.

Breakwater.

A breakwater runs out from Manora Point in a S. by E. direction to a distance of 1,500 feet into 5 fathoms of water and affords complete shelter to the entrance channel during the South-West Monsoon; also a channel has been opened through the entrance, and is marked in accordance with the universal system of buoyage.

Red Light.

A red light of the all-round anchor pattern of ship's light is exhibited at the extreme end of the breakwater, brightly visible in clear weather five nautical miles, and at least half that distance during the South-West Monsoon.

The height of this light is 54½ feet above mean sea level, and it is maintained throughout the year.

Electric Light.

An electric light is used for working steamers alongside the pier and wharves. The height above mean sea level is 67½ feet, and would be visible from the westward about 15 miles. The position of this light being north 1¼ miles from the light-house on Manora, Commanders of vessels are warned not to mistake it for the fixed light.

Signals for Vessels arriving off the Port.

Mail steamers arriving off the Port at night should burn two blue lights in quick succession, other vessels one or two at intervals of two minutes. During the fair season Pilots will board, but during the monsoon they must keep off the Port until daylight."

No. 64.—The following Notice to Mariners is published for general information :—

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

Bombay Castle, 22nd July 1895.

No. 3034.—In exercise of the power conferred by Act I of 1870, the following Rules for Quarantine against Cholera have been made by the Government of Bombay, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council: they have effect from the 15th instant in the Ports of Aden, Perim and the Somali Coast as a temporary measure:—

- I.—The Commander of every vessel, including buggalows or other native craft, arriving from Arabian Ports of the Red Sea shall, before entering the harbour, indicate by signal the port from which such vessel has come.
- II.—Such Commander shall not, except as hereinafter provided, allow any communication, either with the pilot boat, except orally, or with the shore, or with any other vessel or boat in the harbour.
- III.—Immediately on arrival the Commander shall cause the letter R of the Commercial Signal Code to be hoisted, and shall keep the said flag flying during his stay in port or until authorized by the Health Officer to haul it down. If communication with the shore is not desired, the vessel shall anchor at such place as may be pointed out by the Port authorities, having regard to the season of the year. If communication with the shore is desired, the Health Officer shall go alongside the vessel, and, after all necessary enquiries, shall direct the Commander to take the vessel to the quarantine anchorage duly appointed and notified in that behalf by the Resident, there to remain for a period of seven days from the date of arrival, or for the shorter period prescribed in Rule IV, and undergo disinfection, which should apply as well to crew, passengers, effects, and susceptible goods.
- IV.—If the Health Officer of the Port has sufficient evidence that no cases of a suspicious nature have taken place on board during the voyage, and if the vessel is besides in good hygienic condition, the duration of the quarantine will be diminished according to the following scale:—

After eight days of voyage	six days of quarantine.
Do. nine do.	five do.
Do. ten do.	four do.
Do. eleven do.	three do.
Do. twelve do.	two do.
Do. thirteen do. and upwards	twenty-four hours of quarantine.

- V.—If during the period a vessel is at the quarantine anchorage aforesaid any case or cases of cholera should occur on board, the said vessel shall remain in quarantine for a period of seven days from the date of the last case occurring, and be subject to all the prohibitions provided for in Rule III.

- VI.—When any vessel has been placed in quarantine as aforesaid, the Health Officer may direct the removal of so many of the passengers and crew as may not be suffering from illness, and whose services may not be required on board the vessel, to such particular spots as may from time to time be selected by the Resident as places of quarantine, there to remain for a period of seven days. If a case of cholera occurs among such passengers and crew during any such period, they shall remain in a place of quarantine for a period of fifteen days from the date of the occurrence of the last case of such illness.
- VII.—Any mails or cargo which may be brought by any vessel so arriving shall be landed under such precautions as the Health Officer may deem necessary to prevent the spread of the disease.
- VIII.—It will be the duty of the Port Officer to facilitate the conveyance to all vessels in quarantine of such supplies of provisions, stores and other articles as may be required by those on board. Such supplies will be placed on the boats of the vessels in quarantine to be subsequently removed by members of their crews.
- IX.—All vessels arriving at Aden, Perim and the Somáli Coast which may have communicated with vessels coming from Arabian Ports of the Red Sea shall be subjected to the same quarantine as vessels arriving at Aden, Perim and the Somáli Coast from Arabian Ports of the Red Sea.
- X.—All vessels which have undergone quarantine in the manner above prescribed should have the fact clearly stated on their Bills of Health.

By order of His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor in Council,

J. DEC. ATKINS,
Secretary to Government.

No. 3057.—VOLUNTEER CORPS.—

Bombay Volunteer Rifle Corps.—Lieutenant-Colonel the Honourable Lyttelton Holyoake Bayley, Aide-de-Camp, is transferred to the Supernumerary List with effect from the 28th June 1895.

No. 3058.—Lieutenant-Colonel L. H. Bayley Honorary Aide-de-Camp to the Viceroy and Commandant, Bombay Volunteer Rifle Corps, having, on leaving India, been transferred to the Supernumerary List, His Excellency the Governor in Council desires to take this opportunity of placing on record his appreciation of the services rendered by that officer in connection with the Volunteer movement in India. Lieutenant-Colonel Bayley joined the Bombay Volunteer Rifle Corps as Major in November 1878, and was appointed Commandant of the Corps in April 1883. In 1885 he convened and was Chairman of a Committee which submitted proposals for the formation of Volunteer Reserves in Bombay, and whose members received the thanks of Government for their energy and public spirit. Lieutenant-Colonel Bayley, with the Corps under him, rendered important services on the occasion of the riots in Bombay in 1893. Throughout his connection with the Bombay Volunteer Rifle Corps Lieutenant-Colonel Bayley has spared neither time nor energy in his efforts to maintain and improve its efficiency, and by his departure from India the Corps has lost a highly-esteemed Commandant and Government the assistance and advice of an experienced and valued officer.
