payment of the Government revenue, the land may be let in farm or held khás for any term not exceeding twelve years, and such persons shall receive a málikána allowance of not less than five and not more than ten per cent. of the nett amount realized by the Government from such land; provided that if in any case the non-engaging proprietor was called upon to state the amount of revenue for which he was willing to engage and did state such amount, and the amount was higher than that subsequently realized by the Government, the máiikána allowance payable to the said pro-prietor shall be calcuated on such higher amount.

Rent demandable from proprietors for land cultivated by themselves in pattidari or bhyachárá estate let in farm or held khás.

When any estate or portion of an estate-held by several cultivating proprietors in pattidárí or bhyachárá tenure or the like is let in farm or held khás, the rent demandable from the proprietors of such estate on account of the land occupied and cultivated by themselves shall be adjusted in accordance with the rates paid by tenants or other resident cultivators, not having an heritable and transferable property in the land, for land of a similar description in the same or adjacent villages, subject to a deduction of five per cent. on account of málikána allowance, or such other rate, not being less than five per cent., as the Local Government may determine.

31. If within the period of six months previous to the expiration of any term of settlement the Collector or Settlement Officer shall issue a notice to the person with whom such settlement was concluded, requiring him to declare whether he is willing to continue his engagement for the year next ensuing after the expiration of the term of such previous settlement, and such person shall not forthwith notify his refusal to such continuation, he shall be deemed to have agreed to the extension of his engagement, and the said engagement shall continue to be in force from year to year, unless and until the Local Government shall otherwise direct.

POWERS OF SETTLEMENT OFFICERS.

When existing engagements for the pay-32.

First.—Arrears due from estates in the Province of Benares.

Secondly.—Arrears due from estates not permanently settled.

Thirdly.—Arrears other than those of the current or of the preceding year.

Fourthly.—Arrears due on account of estates other than that to be sold.

Fifthly.—Arrears of estates under attachment by order of any Judicial Authority.

Sixthly.—Arrears due on account of takkávi, pulbandí, or other demands not being land revenue, but recoverable by the same process as arrears of land-revenue.

The following procedure shall be observed :-

A notification in the language of the district, specifying the nature and amount of the arrear or demand, and the latest date on which payment thereof shall be received, must be affixed for a period of not less than fifteen clear days preceding the date fixed for payment in the office of the Collector or other officer duly authorized to hold sales under this Act, in the Court of the Judge within whose jurisdiction the land advertised lies, in the Courts of the Subordinate Judges and in the Munsif's Court and Police Thána of the Division in which the estate to which the notification relates, or a part of it, is situated, also at the kácháktí of the málguzár of the estate.

Every officer at whose office such Notification is affixed shall give to the person from whom he receives it a certificate that it is so allowed, and every person who athexes or delivers any such notice shall certify the fact that he has so affixed or delivered it to the person under whose orders he did so.

71. The Collector or other officer duly authorized to hold sales under this Act shall, as soon as possible after the latest day of payment, issue notifications in the language of the district, to be affixed in his own office and in the Court of the Judge of the District, and to be published in the official Gazettes, specifying the estate or estates which will be sold as aforesaid, and the day on which the sale of the same will commence, which day shall not be less than fifteen or more than thirty clear days from the date of affixing the notification in the office of the Collector or other officer as aforesaid. And except as hereinafter provided, all estates so speci-fied shall, on the day notified for sale, or on the day or days following, be put up to public auction by and in the presence of the Collector or other officer as aforesaid, and shall be sold to the highest bidder. And no payment or tender of payment, made subsequent to sunset of the said latest day of payment, shall bar or interfere with the sale, either at the time of sale or after its conclusion.

sunset of the latest day of payment, receive as a deposit from any party of the estate in arrear, the amount of the arrear of revenue due from it, to be carried to the credit of the said estate at sunset as aforesaid, unless before that time the arrear shall have been liquidated by a proprietor of the estate.

If the party so depositing, whose money shall have been credited to the estate in the manner aforesaid, is a plaintiff in a suit pending before a Court of Justice for the possession of the same or any part thereof, the Judge of the District in which such estate is situated may order the said party to be put into temporary possession of the said estate, subject to the rules in force for taking security in the cases of appellants and defendants.

If the party depositing whose money is credited as aforesaid proves before a competent Civil Court that the deposit was made in order to protect an interest of the said party, which would have been endargered or damaged by the sale of the estate, he shall be entitled to recover the amount of the deposit, with interest, from the proprietors of the said estate.

aforesaid is unable from Adjournment of sale.

sickness, from the occurrence of a holiday, or from any other cause, to commence the sale on the day of sale fixed as aforesaid, or if, having commenced it, he is unable, from any cause, to complete it, he may adjourn it to the next day following, not being Sunday or other close holiday.

If he does so he shall record his reasons for such adjournment, and forward a copy of such record to the Commissioner of Revenue, and announce the adjournment by a written proclamation stuck up in his kácháhrí, from day to day, until he shall be able to commence or to complete the sale; except in the case of adjournments so nade, recorded, and reported, each sale shall invariably be made on the day of sale fixed in the manner aforesaid.

79. The purchaser of an estate at any such public sale as aforesaid, Conditions of sale. shall be required to deposit twenty-five per cent. on the amount of his bid, immediately, or as soon after the conclusion of the sale of the estate as the Collector may think necessary, either in cash, Bank of Bengal Notes or Post Bills, or Government Securities duly indorsed.

In default of such deposit, the estate shall forthwith be put up again and sold.

The remainder of the purchase money must be paid by the purchaser before sunset of the thirtieth day from that on which the sale of the estate took place, reckoning that day as one of the thirty ; or if the thirtieth day be a Sunday or other close holiday, then on the first office day after the thirtieth.

In default of such payment within the prescribed period as aforesaid, then and afterwards as often as such default shall occur, the deposit shall be forfeited to Government, the estate shall be resold, and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the estate, or to any part of the sum for which it may subsequently be sold.

If the proceeds of the sale which may be eventually completed are being less than the price bid by the defaulting bidder aforesaid, the difference shall be leviable from him by any process autho-rized for realizing an arrear of public revenue, and it shall be so levied and credited to the defaulting proprietor of the estate sold.

If default of payment of purchase money occurs more than once, the defaulting bidders shall be held jointly and severally responsible for such difference to the extent of the amount of their respective bids.

Every re-sale on account of any such default shall be made after notification and in the forms prescribed by section seventy-one, and such notifications shall not be issued until the expiration of three clear days after the day on which the default shall have occurred.

Payment or tender of payment by or on behalf of the proprietor of the arrear for which the estate was first sold and of the arrear which may have subsequently become due, made before sunset of the day preceding the day of the notification of re-sale, and after the defaulting purchaser has made the deposit required by section seventy-nine, shall bar such re-sale.

an appeal against any sale Appeal against sale. made under this Act if preferred to him on or before the fifteenth day from the date of sale, or if preferred to the Collector for transmission to the Commissioner on or before the tenth day from the day of sale, and not otherwise.

The Commissioner may in every case of appeal so preferred, annul any sale of an estate made under this Act, which appears to him not to have been conducted according to the provisions of this Act.

If the sale was in his opinion occasioned by the neglect of the proprietor, the Commissioner may award at the same time to the purchaser a payment from the proprietor of compensation for his loss, not exceeding in amount interest at the current rate of Government Securities on the amount of deposit or balances of purchase money during the period of its being retained in the Collector's office. The order of the Commissioner shall, in such cases, be final.

Procedure when hardship or injustice appears on appeal.

81. The Commissioner of Revenue may suspend the passing of final orders in any case of appeal from a sale on the ground of hardship or injustice, and represent the case to the Board of Revenue, who may recommend the Local Government to annul the sale. The Local Government in any such case may annul the sale and cause the estate to be restored to the proprietor on such conditions as appear equitable and proper.

82. All sales of which the purchase money has been paid up as pre-When sales become final scribed in section seventyand conclusive. nine and against which no appeal has been preferred shall become final at noon of the thirtieth day from the day of sale, reck-oning the said day of sale as the first of the said thirty days. And sales against which an appeal may have been preferred, and the appeal dismissed by the Commissioner, shall be final and conclusive from the date of such dismissal, if more than thirty days from the day of sale, or if less, then at noon of the thirtieth day as above provided.

83. Upon a sale becoming final, the Collector or other officer as afore-Certificate of title to be said shall give to the given when sale becomes purchaser a certificate final. of title in the following form :

I certify that A. B. has purchased at public auction under Act No. Mahal C, and that his purchase has taken effect on and since the day of ---- (being the date of the day after that fixed for the last day of payment).

The Collector shall apply the purchase money first to the liquidation of Application of purchase arrears due upon the latest money. day of payment; and se-condly, to the liquidation of all outstanding demands debited to the estate in the public ac-counts of the district, holding the residue, if any, in deposit on account of the late recorded proprietor or proprietors of the estate sold, to be paid to their receipt on demand in shares proportioned to their recorded interest in the estate sold, if such distinction of shares were recorded, or if not, then as an aggregate sum to the whole body of proprietors upon their joint receipt.

If before the payment of any surplus that may remain of the purchase money after liquidation of all Government arrears and dues to the proprietor of the estate sold, or his representative, such sur-plus is claimed by creditors in satisfaction of debts due by him to them, or by any one creditor, such surplus shall not be payable to any such claimant, nor shall it be withheld from the proprietor by attachment, except under precept, and n satisfaction of decrees of Court for such debts. If the balance of purchase money has in any such case been paid away in liquidation of the proprietor's just debts by order of any Court, and a decree shall afterwards pass for annulling the sale, the proprietor shall not be restored to possession until the amount so paid away be returned by him with interest.
