STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Act IV. of 1863, sec. 1, authorises goods imported into Rangoon to be cleared at that port for the territory of the King of Ava on payment of a duty of one per cent. ad valorem. The present Bill is intended to authorise the re-importation into British territory of goods so cleared on payment of the difference between that duty and the duty to which they would have been liable on first importation by sea if cleared for home consumption.

The Bill has been prepared by the Chief Com missioner of British Burma.

WHITLEY STOKES.

Secretary to the Government of India.

The following Bill was introduced into the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 1st August 1872, and was referred to a Select Committee with instructions to report thereon in six weeks :-

Bill No. 17 of 1872.

A Bill to amend the Burma Courts Act, 1872.

Whereas it is expedient to amend the Burma

	Courts Act, 1872; It is Preamble.	hereby enacted as follows :
1. This Act may Short title.	be called "The Burma Courts Act Amendment Act."
It extends only to Local extent.	the territories under the administration of the Chief Commissioner of British Burma;
Sections three, four,	and five shall come into force on the first day of Commencement. October 1872: The rest of this Act shall come into force on the passing thereof

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Appeals to lie from Courts of Original Jurissaid Act, and subject to any express provision to diction. the contrary contained in any other Act for the time being in force, an appeal shall lie from the decrees and orders of the Courts of Original Jurisdiction in British Burma to the Courts empowered by the said Act, section eight, to hear appeals from such decrees and orders.

All such appeals shall be regulated by the Code of Civil Procedure.

All such appeals presented between the fifth day of April and the passing of this Act, shall be deemed to have been presented under this section.

3. No person shall be permitted to appear, plead, or act as the Licensing of advocates.

Advocate of any suitor in the Court of the Judicial Commissioner, or in any Court subordinate thereto, unless such person is licensed thereto by the Judicial Commissioner, either generally or specially.

The Judicial Commissioner may from time to Rules for their qualification and admission.

time make rules for the qualification, admission, and enrolment of proper persons to appear, plead, or act as aforesaid and for the suspension or dismissal of any such persons who are guilty of fraudulent or grossly improper conduct.

All such rules shall be published in the local official Gazette.

Any person appearing, pleading, or acting in contravention of any such rule, shall be liable, by order of the Court, to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Saving of agents of Government suitors, co-suitors, and Advocates of High Courts. 4. Notwithstanding anything contained in section three or in any rule made thereunder, any person may appear, plead, or act as the agent for the Secretary of State for India in Council, and any suitor may appear, plead, or act on behalf of himself or a co-suitor;

and any person who for the time being is an Advocate, Vakil, or Attorney-at-law of any High Court may appear, plead, or act as the Advocate of any suitor in the Court of the Judicial Commissioner or any Court subordinate thereto.

5. The fees to be received by any Advocate Fees liable to taxation. for business done in the Court of the Judicial Commissioner or in any Court subordinate thereto, shall at all times be subject to the control and taxation of the presiding Judge; and no such fees shall be recoverable unless they have been allowed on taxation by the said Judge, or such officer as he appoints in this behalf.

6. The Judicial Commissioner may call for the Power to call for record where Subordinate Court has refused to submit statement.

h

record of any case in which a Court of first appeal has, in his opinion, wrongly refused to submit a statement under section thirty-five of the said Act, and may pass such order in the case as to him seems fit.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The objects of this Bill (which has been prepared at the request of the Chief Commissioner and the Judicial Commissioner of British Burma) are to correct a mistake, and to supply two omissions in the Burma Courts Act, VII. of 1872.

That Act (section eight) gives the Appellate Courts established under it jurisdiction to hear appeals where such are "allowed by law." But the Schedule to the Act repeals Act XXIII. of 1861, section twenty-three, so far as it relates to British Burma, and this is the law which allows appeals from decrees. The result is that no appeal lies from the decrees of the Courts of original jurisdiction to the Appellate Courts so established.

The Bill corrects this mistake.

The Act gives no powers to the Judicial Commissioner to make rules for his own Court and the Courts subordinate thereto, regulating the qualification, admission, and enrolment of pleaders, their suspension and dismissal, and the fees payable to them.

And it does not enable the Judicial Commissioner to call for the records of cases in which the Courts of first appeal have wrongly refused to submit statements under section thirty-five of the Act.

The Bill supplies these two omissions.
