GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

Bombay Castle, 29th April 1886.

No. 1519.—In exercise of the power conferred by Act I. of 1870, the following Rules for Quarantine against Cholera have been made by the Government of Bombay, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council: they will take effect from the 22nd instant in the Port of Aden and at Perim as a temporary measure:—

- I.—The Commander of every vessel, including buggalows or other native craft, arriving from Bassein shall, before entering the harbour, indicate by signal the port from which such vessel has come.
- II.—Such Commander shall not, except as hereinafter provided, allow any communication, either with the pilot boat, except orally, or with the shore, or with any other vessel or boat in the harbour.
- III.—Immediately on arrival the Commander shall cause the letter R of the Commercial Signal Code to be hoisted, and shall keep the said flag flying during his stay in port or until authorized by the Health Officer to haul it down. If communication with the shore is not desired, the vessel shall anchor at such place as may be pointed out by the Port authorities, having regard to the season of the year. If communication with the shore is desired, the Health Officer shall go alongside the vessel, and, after all necessary enquiries, shall direct the Commander to take the vessel to the quarantine anchorage duly appointed and notified in that behalf by the Resident, there to remain for a period of seven days from the date of arrival, or for the shorter period prescribed in Rule IV., and undergo disinfection, which should apply as well to crew, passengers, effects, and susceptible goods.

Bombay Castle, 5th May 1886.

No. 1604.—The following four telegrams from His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, K.G., K.T., K.P., G.C.B., G.C.S.I., to His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor of Bombay, dated 4th instant, are published for general information:—

“ From His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to His Excellency the Governor of Bombay.

In forwarding proceedings of opening ceremony of Colonial and Indian Exhibition by Her Majesty this day, should be glad if you would publish them in special issue of Gazette.

From His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to His Excellency the Governor of Bombay.

COLONIAL AND INDIAN EXHIBITION.

Address by His Royal Highness the Executive President to Her Majesty the Queen on the occasion of the opening of the Exhibition.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY.—As Executive President of the Royal Commissioners appointed by your Majesty's Royal Warrant of the 8th of November 1884, for the promotion of an Exhibition of the British, Colonial and Indian Empire, and subsequently incorporated by your Majesty's Royal Charter of the 10th September 1885, I humbly beg leave to lay before you a brief statement of our proceedings up to the present time.

The general interest manifested in the display made by your Majesty's Colonial and Indian Empire at the Paris Exhibition 1878, led me, as President of the British Commission, to express a hope that an opportunity might soon occur by which your Majesty's subjects in England would be enabled to witness the marvellous development which, under your beneficent rule, their brethren and fellow-subjects had attained throughout so many portions of the globe. It was therefore with the highest gratification that I accepted your Majesty's gracious invitation to assume the Executive Presidency of this Commission, the appointment of which by your Majesty has been the means of making this hope a reality. The invitations which we were empowered by your Majesty to issue to the Colonial Governments and to the Government of India were forwarded towards the close of the year 1884, and from the answers received it at once became apparent that this undertaking had obtained warm and hearty sympathy throughout your Majesty's dominions. In your Majesty's dominion of Canada, throughout your Australasian, African, West Indian and Eastern Colonies, in your Mediterranean possessions and elsewhere, grants were voted, Commissions formed, and Executive Commissioners appointed. That the work of preparation was undertaken with enthusiasm and attended with success is evident from the complete and varied collections which at present fill the buildings through which your Majesty has just passed. The response received from the Government of India was also of the most cordial character. His Excellency the Viceroy caused, through the Revenue and Agricultural Department, instructions to be issued to every district of your Majesty's Indian Empire for the collection of objects illustrative of the arts, manufactures and resources of that great realm. These collections, which now adorn a large section of the Exhibition, have been supplemented by generous contributions from their Highnesses the Princes of India, by collections the formation of which we ourselves have authorised, and by the contributions of private native exhibitors. We are desirous of bringing under your Majesty's notice our deep appreciation of the hearty co-operation of the Colonial Governments in this Exhibition and of taking this exceptional opportunity of stating how greatly we are indebted to the Commissions appointed by these Governments and to the Executive Commissioners on whom the superintendence of the entire work of installation has devolved. We further desire to record the valuable assistance which we have received from your Majesty's Viceroy, from the Supreme Government of India and from the various officials who have so ably and thoroughly carried out their instructions. Our grateful thanks are also due to the Colonial Governments, to the Government of India, to the co-operation of the City of London, to many city companies, and to the firms and individuals who have contributed to the guarantee funds. The fact that the list of subscribers not only includes those whose interests are likely to be specially affected by the Exhibition, but also comprehends every class of the community, supplies a gratifying proof of the universal sympathy and interest which this undertaking has aroused. We venture to avail ourselves of this opportunity to convey to your Majesty our dutiful and loyal acknowledgments of the interest which your Majesty has been pleased to take in our labours, proved as it is by your Majesty's presence here to-day; nor can I resist a reference to a similar ceremonial presided over by your Majesty but a few paces from this spot thirty-five years ago. On that memorable occasion, the first of its kind, the Prince-Consort, my beloved and revered father, filled the position which I, following in his footsteps at however great a distance, now have the honour and gratification of occupying. Your Majesty alone can fully realize with what deep interest my beloved father would, had he been spared, have watched, as their originator, the development of Exhibitions both in this country and abroad, and with what special pleasure he would have welcomed one having for its object the prosperity of your Majesty's Empire, the interest of which he had so much at heart. In the great Exhibition of 1851 your Majesty's Colonial and Indian possessions were indeed represented, but their importance was then but little realised, and their present greatness was at that time unforeseen. During the years that have elapsed since 1851, few greater changes have been wrought than the marvellous development of the outlying portions of your Majesty's empire. It is our heartfelt prayer that an undertaking intended to illustrate and to record this development may give a stimulus to the commercial interests and intercourse of all parts of your Majesty's dominions, that it may be the means of augmenting that warm affection and brotherly sympathy which is reciprocated by all your Majesty's subjects, and that it may still further deepen that steadfast loyalty which we, who dwell in the mother-country, share with your kindred, who have elsewhere so nobly done honour to her name.

From His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to His Excellency the Governor of Bombay.

Speech by Her Majesty the Queen-Empress.

I receive with the greatest satisfaction the address which you have presented to me on the opening of this Exhibition. I have observed with a warm and increasing interest the progress of your proceedings in the execution of the duties entrusted to you by the Royal Commission, and it affords me sincere gratification to witness the successful result of your judicious and unremitting exertions in the magnificent Exhibition which has been gathered together here to-day. I am deeply moved by your reference to the circumstances in which the ceremony of 1851 took place, and I heartily concur in the belief you have expressed that the Prince-Consort, my beloved husband, had been spared, would have witnessed with intense interest the development of his ideas, and would, I may add, have seen with pleasure our son taking the lead in the movement of which he was the originator. I cordially concur with you in the prayer that this undertaking may be the means of imparting a stimulus to the commercial interests and intercourse of all parts of my dominion by encouraging the arts of peace and industry, and by strengthening the bonds of union which now exist in every portion of my Empire.

From His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to His Excellency the Governor of Bombay.

Ode on the opening of the Colonial and Indian Exhibition by Lord Tennyson, Poet Laureate.

Welcome! Welcome! with one voice
 In your welfare we rejoice;
 Sons and brothers that have sent,
 From isle and cape and continent,
 Produce of your field and flood,
 Mount and mine and primal wood,
 Works of subtle brain and hand,
 And splendours of the morning land;
 Gifts from every British zone,
 Britons! hold your own!

May we find as ages run
The mother featured in the son,
And may yours for ever be
That old strength and constancy
Which has made your father great
In our ancient island state.
And where'er her flag may fly,
Glorying between sea and sky,
Makes the might of Britain known,
Britons ! hold your own !

Britons fought her sons of yore,
Britain failed : and never more,
Careless of our growing kin,
Shall we sin our fathers sin.
Men that in a narrower day—
Unprophetic rulers they—
Drove from out the mother's nest
That young eagle of the West
To forage for herself alone—
Britons ! hold your own !

Sharers of our glorious past,
Brothers must we part at last ?
Shall not we through good and ill
Cleave to one another still ?
Britain's myriad voices call,
Sons be welded each and all
Into one imperial whole—
One with Britain heart and soul,
One life, one flag, one fleet, one throne,
Britons ! hold your own ! and God guard all !

By order of His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor in Council,

J. NUGENT,
Secretary to Government.
