Bombay Castle, 31st December 1867.

No. 772 of 1867.—Brigadier General Russell is appointed to the Command of the Garrison of Aden whilst holding the office of Political Resident there.

No. 773 of 1867.—The following scale of Bedding is published in supersession of that laid down in G. G. O. No. 928 of 1858 and 69 of 1860:—

- 1 Europe Blanket, measuring 7 × 4 feet, triennially, in lieu of the Country Blanket now issued biennially.
- 1 Do. do. do. do. triennially, in lieu of the Numdah Mattrass and Cover now issued.
- 1 Cotton Sheet (annually) after the first issue, when 2 will be supplied.
- 1 Settringee (triennially).
- 1 Bed Cover, canvas (not to become the property of the Soldier), measuring 6 feet 6 inches long by 2 feet 9½ inches wide, with raised sides 3 inches, intended to hold 20 lbs. of Straw, renewable when necessary.

Men who have already received bedding for the year 1867-68 will receive nothing more till the 1st October next, when, if they would have received a Numdah Mattrass under the Old Scale, they will receive in lieu an English Blanket and a Canvas Cover; the next supply of the former will take place after three years, but the Canvas Covers will only be renewable when they are condemned by a Committee.

Cotton Covers will be issued on the 1st October next to such men as received Numdah Mattrasses this year, and they will receive the triennial Blanket and the Canvas Cover in the following year.

When the biennial Country Blanket would have next fallen due under the scale of Bedding superseded by this Order, an English Blanket will be issued, which will thereafter be renewable triennially.

Recruits will receive one Blanket and one Settringee on arrival, and the remaining articles on joining their Corps.
