SCHEDULE.

Act XXVI. of 1850, to enable improvements to be made in Towns.

Act VII. of 1854, for the apprehension, within the territories under the Government of the East India Company, of persons charged with the commission of heinous offences beyond the limits of the said territories and for delivering them up to justice, and to provide for the execution of warrants in places out of the jurisdiction of the authorities issuing them.

Act VI. of 1863 to consolidate and amend the laws relating to the administration of the Department of Sea Customs in India.

Act VII. of 1865 to give effect to Rules for the management and preservation of Government Forests.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

By Act XXXII. of 1867 the Governor General of India in Council was empowered to delegate to a Chief Commissioner any power conferred on the Government of India as a Local Government by an Act of the Governor General of India in Council. When this Act was under consideration, the Government of Bombay represented that great inconvenience was found to arise from the non-possession, by the Commissioner in Sind, of some of the powers of a Local Government, and suggested that the opportunity might be taken of removing the inconvenience. The Government of India in reply stated its opinion as adverse to a general enactment enabling the Government of Bombay to delegate to the Commissioner in Sind the powers of a Local Government, and suggested that a measure should be introduced for the special transfer of such of the powers as are requisite. The present Bill is therefore introduced in accordance with the instructions of the Government of India and the Government of Bombay.

PART VI

BILLS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT (Legislative).
The Bill for the purpose of enabling the Government of Bombay to delegate to the Commissioner in Sind the powers of a Local Government, and suggested that a measure should be introduced for the special transfer of such of the powers as are requisite. The present Bill is therefore introduced in accordance with the instructions of the Government of India and the Government of Bombay.

Government of India
The Bill for the purpose of enabling the Government of Bombay to delegate to the Commissioner in Sind the powers of a Local Government, and suggested that a measure should be introduced for the special transfer of such of the powers as are requisite. The present Bill is therefore introduced in accordance with the instructions of the Government of India and the Government of Bombay.

We, the undersigned, the Members of the Select Committee of the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations, to whom the Bill for repealing certain enactments which have ceased to be in force or have become unnecessary was referred, have the honour to report that we have considered the Bill and the papers noted in the margin, and have examined the Schedule of enactments which the Bill proposes to repeal.

From Under-Secretary to Government of Bombay, No. 3372, dated 20th November 1867.

From Assistant Secretary to Government of Madras, Legislative Department, dated 21st December 1867.

From Secretary, Board of Revenue, North-Western Provinces, No. 1250, dated 24th December 1867.

Note by Honorable Mr. Hobhouse, dated 23th December 1867.

From Secretary, Board of Revenue, North-Western Provinces, No. 15, dated 9th January 1868.

Note by Honorable Mr. Hobhouse (undated) respecting the Acts proposed to be repealed.

From Assistant Secretary to Government of India, Public Works Department, No. 96 E, dated 21st January 1868.

Note by Honorable A. G. Macpherson, dated 27th January 1868.

Two of these enactments, Acts No. XIX. of 1858 and No. XLI. of 1858, we have struck out of the list, as we think they will be more fitly repealed by the measure for the consolidation of the stamp-laws, which will probably soon be introduced.

We have also omitted Act No. XXIII. of 1859 as being already repealed by Act No. XXV. of 1865.

We have omitted Act XIX. of 1844 as its repeal might, it is thought, give rise to questions as to the power of the Local Government to abolish taxes upon trades in districts which have been annexed since the Act was passed. We have also, at the desire of the Board of Revenue, North-Western Provinces, saved sections 16, 17, and 18, of Act IX. of 1859.

As some of the persons mentioned in the Schedule to Act XVIII. of 1848 are still alive, it seems undesirable to repeal that enactment.

Act XX. of 1859 has not yet expired, and to repeal it might, we think, be premature.

It seems undesirable to repeal single sections which merely repeal prior enactments. Such sections sometimes serve to interpret the rest of the enactment to which they belong. We have therefore omitted Act VIII. of 1856, section 1, and Act VI. of 1863, section 2.

We have added words saving Act XXIX. of 1837 as to the power to prescribe the language and character to be used in revenue and judicial proceedings, and saving Act XXVIII. of 1865 as to estates not completely wound up under its provisions.

2. We think that the following list of Bengal Regulations (for preparing which we are chiefly indebted to our late colleague, the Honorable Mr. Justice Hobhouse) may safely be added to the Schedule:—
